Dr. H. C. Curry, the Seattle Optometrist who has made professional visits to Moro for years and is known for good optical work at reasonable prices, will again be at the Moro Hotel Friday, April 10 for one day. Eyes examined, glasses ground and fitted to each individual eye. No guesswork. Will be at Wasco Saturday April 11.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Cope on Wednesday, April 8, at 2 p.m.

Miss Stella VanAvery from Portland was a weekend visitor at the L. V. Moore home. Miss Mildred Hansen is here this week to visit with her sister, Viola Hansen, deputy county clerk.

A meeting of the Moro Townsend club will be held at the Presbyterian church April 9th, next Thursday. Eugene Burr of Portland will be the speaker.

Several from this town were in Kent last Saturday night to attend a meeting of ex-service men and the auxiliary.

Moro Band Plays In Contest At Goldendale

By Norma Melzer

The Moro band went to Goldendale Friday afternoon in spite of bad weather. Only a very few were unable to go. We found the Goldendale weather much more pleasant than ours and the mass band composed of all nine bands marched down town and back and played two numbers.

There was a dance in the afternoon at the auditorium for the band members and a free lunch was served in the middle of the afternoon. At 7:30 the contest started, each band playing three numbers. Part of the band came home after the contest, but others stayed for the dance at the Masonic temple.

Tuesday Mr. Simpson and Mr. Walker picked out the lucky ones who will get to go to Corvallis to the state contest. Mr. Simpson said it was a very hard job, but to help him out in tight places he took the one with the highest grades. Wednesday morning Mr. Walker put the list on the board and the 25 with three alternates have been practicing alone.

OLD TIME NEWS

A. S. Johnson was down from Kent Friday having Foss & Co. fashion a fishing instrument with which to pick up a drill and set of "jars" that had broken loose from his well drill at Wilber Haggerty's farm south of Kent. The drill was down 315 feet when the rig broke.

Clay Neece, one of the early pioneer farmers of this country, is visiting with relatives in this vicinity. Mr. Neece has been located at Corvallis for the past few years.

R. C. Bennett has rented his farm near Grass Valley to Clarence Blagg and is figuring on the purchase of property either at the Dalles or Portland.

Could You Be A Park Director For The US?

The United States Civil Service commission has announced an open competitive examination for the position of assistant director (historic sites and buildings), in the National Park service, Department of the Interior.

The entrance salary is $5,600 a year, less a deduction of 3 and one-half per cent toward a retirement annuity.

Applicants must have completed a four year course in a college or university of recognized standing, and, in addition, must have certain specified experience. The applicant's experience, among other things, must indicate thorough and comprehensive training in American history.

Full information may be obtained from the Secretary of the United States Civil Service Board of Examiners at the post office or custohouse in any city which has a post office of the first or second class, or from the United States Civil Service commission, Washington, D. C.

Many Ill With Scarlet Fever As Disease Spreads

It's hazy from the recent wind storm giving a murky look to the air and an unreal feeling to the observer. And it is cold, really cold with the ground frozen just like winter time. Work is going on slowly because of the weather although the farmers feel lucky they were not in the blow areas.

To break the monotony of a chill spring day Herman Schilling burns the rye grass in his cow pasture that was once a city park. The small boys used to keep the rye grass burned down every spring when Willy Knights, Arlie Heath and Allie Hembree were kids. Now it is a part of the regular spring cleanup of property owners.

Jack Gervais and Jim Burton are batching in the old Wilcox house while waiting for their families to get out from under quarantine with scarlet fever. Ivan Gervais' mild attack is keeping Jack away from home and Kathryn Burton's illness keeps Jim batching.

Jim Blagg and Ernest Eslinger are also living apart from their families because of scarlet fever quarantine. Boys in both families have it.

Bruce Alley was operated on for appendicitis last Friday and Mr and Mrs. Ed Alley went down to Vancouver to see him. He was recovering from the shock of a local anaesthetic then but is better now. Mrs. Alley remained to be near him for a few days.

George Wilcox was in Pendleton Tuesday to listen to the relief heads explain the new plan for giving pensions to all those over 70 who can qualify.

Cora Bayer and two Bayer boys have scarlet fever, but are not very sick which is the fortunate condition attendant to the disease so far this spring.

Mrs. Orville Ruggles is in the city of Portland visiting for a few days with her parents.

Mrs. Ben Leghorn has the fever

Coming Again Dr. Curry the Old Reliable Optometrist of Seattle, who has made Professional visits to Moro for years will again be at the Hotel Moro Fri., April 10 for one day. Eyes examined, glasses ground and fitted to Relieve Eye Strain Headache. Charges Reasonable. Will be at Wasco Sherman Hotel Sat. April 11
