ONE to invite himself or herself and ONE OTHER to this service. Special features will be furnished by the high school, members of the faculty, and others from the community. Topic, "The Eternal Quest." We expect the community to back up the young people in this service.

Thursday Evening, November 19, Mid Week Service Night. Those who are supporting the present mid week services will be honored guests. Topic, "Victorious Living." There will be some high moments in this service. You can count on that!

Friday Evening, November 20, MEN'S NIGHT in which we have the whole service to ourselves. If you are a man, you'll be at this service. "Behold the Man." Unless our plans change radically there will be something in the basement following service. Certain ladies will be responsible for that.

These services are INTERDENOMINATIONAL. Nothing but the challenge of the KINGDOM OF GOD will be stressed. Our purpose is to cement the friendship of the churches of this community and to challenge each member of the community to a new and VICTORIOUS LIFE. You cannot afford to miss these services.
