

Moro Husbands To Be Feted By Club Wives

Husbands night for the women club will be held next Friday night December 4, at the Moro Hotel. Rev. R. A. Hutchenson of The Dalles will be the speaker of the occasion.

Vernon Miller and family left Friday morning for Eugene to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Miller's parents near there. The date of the annual big game had something to do with the time of the visit.

Donald Burnet was among those who went to Corvallis Friday to see the game between OSC and U of O last Saturday.

Ray Hulst was here Monday night from Mosier. He says that his family is now living in Camas, Washington and that he will move there himself soon.

Marion McKee and wife drove to Corvallis in time to see the game Saturday and Mac says it turned out just right to suit him. Harry Pinkerton and family and Mrs. Perry Johnston and son, Dale, went to Corvallis Friday and stayed over the week end to see the game and visit with Mary Pinkerton, a student at Oregon State. They returned Monday evening.

County agent, LeRoy Wright was in Corvallis on business for the agricultural conservation committee of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Thompson and family left Wednesday for Beaverton to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Thompson's parents, who are publishers of the paper there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Miuhel were hosts to the Legionnaires and Auxiliaries last Friday night at their farm home. The dinner was served at small card tables and after a round of singing of old and war time songs five hundred was played until a late hour.

Mrs. Naomi Van Gilder was in Portland the first of the week to attend the annual meeting of the county treasurer's association of Oregon.

Judge George A. Potter was elected chairman of the third district of county judges and commissioners. The newly formed association of county courts has been divided into several zones of which the mid-Columbia is one. The recent meeting in Portland ended with the election of officers Judge Phipps of Wasco county was the former chairman.

Mrs. T. B. Searcy left Friday for a two weeks visit with Chester Searcy and wife near Sisters. Mrs. Josephine Barnum and daughter Florene arrived Wednesday evening to spend the Thanksgiving holidays at the A. H. Barnum home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nordstrom of Spokane visited Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Mitchelmore over the week end. Mr. Nordstrom is an examiner with the Farm Credit Administration. They were on their way to Portland after a business trip that took them into North Dakota for several months.

County Agent Joe Ballanger of Morrow county, and wife, Mrs. Joe Wright and Miss Charlotte Wright, mother and sister of LeRoy Wright were here Thanksgiving day to enjoy turkey with the county agent and family.

Charles Harding, manager of The U. S. National branch in The Dalles and Ed. Kolar of the Portland office of the same firm were in the county this week looking over the conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamer Sayers were here for Thanksgiving with their parents.

Vernon Eakin came up from Corvallis where he is attending school Wednesday night accompanied by Margaret Macnab and Anna Coats of Rufus. Ellen Cox of Grass Valley and Imogene Johnson of Moro.

Perry N. Johnston was here Wednesday from Condon where he has been inspecting rangers of Gilliam county for the government's new program.

Forrest Peetz and family are here for the Thanksgiving holiday from Zig Zag where Forest has been working for several years.

Mrs. O. H. Bucholtz and daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Harper, visited here with Mrs. Bucholtz' son, Arthur last week.

The American Legion boys are giving a dance Saturday night December 5, at their hall in Moro.

John McCune is about town again having finished his seasons work on the Wm. Ross place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Michel were in Hermiston last week to visit Mrs. Michel's daughter, Mrs. McCabe.

W. H. Ragdale is now a regular resident of The Dalles although he spends a few days in Moro out of nearly every week. Work for the production credit corporation necessitated the change.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Thompson left for Portland this week to remain a few days and to have Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Thompson's father, J. A. Thompson.

Lloyd and Maxine Henrichs are home from Corvallis, Doris Thompson is here from the same school and in fact, nearly all of the young people who are absorbing higher learning are home to absorb some home cooked turkey.

Moro Defeats Rufus For Championship

By Wyman French

Moro showing the best it had, defeated the Rufus sextet by the very wide margin of 25 to 7.

Moro took the lead by 6 to 1 in the first quarter and were not overtaken. The score at half time was 21 to 6. It was the last game for M.H.S. to be played by Helen Strong and Louise Baizee, the two senior players. The game was played Tuesday because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

In the afternoon the band marched downtown to arouse interest and it apparently was successful for a good crowd attended. The second team game was very close with Moro leading till the last play. Rufus won the last point to make the score 20 to 21.

In the Kent game played last Friday, Moro took the lead, was caught up with, and then gave a little spurt and won easily by a score of 49 to 9.

Tuesday proved to be a very busy day. All children signed up for the club projects they wanted under the supervision of County Agent Wright and Superintendent Knighten. A picture show was given by the Chevrolet company advertising the 1936 car. It was forty minutes long and was educational as well as interesting.

"The Coon town Millionaire" given last Thursday was a proven success. It enabled the high school to get some new suits for the basketball boys as well as some new curtains to adorn the stage. Six weeks exams were over by Wednesday of this week.

MARIE MEYER, 19, Portland, named state 4-H champion in foods on seven years of club work by Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, won an all-expense educational trip to the 15th National Club Congress to be held in Chicago, Nov. 27-Dec. 5. She baked 128 loaves of bread, prepared 172 meals, made 226 dishes, and canned 351 jars of food. Last summer she won first in both the county and state cookery demonstration contest. Her prizes total $98.85, and she values her club projects at $218.90. She is a contestant for a Servel Electrolux kerosene operated refrigerator to be awarded each of two 4-H club girls scoring highest in the western states. She will also compete with other state champions for three cash college scholarships of $400, $300, and $200 also given by the maker of the refrigerator and sponsor of the contest.

Washing Their Sins Away in the Potomac

Whiteclad penitents shown being baptized in the waters of the Potomac river near the Washington airport. Bishop Charles M. Grace is seen conducting the ceremony. All are members of the "House of Prayer for All People."

Grass Valley People Visit And Are Visited

Clyde Davis of Seattle was visiting his mother, Mrs. W. J. Davis, for a short time.

Mrs. Betsy MacInnes of Kent accompanied Fred Cox to Portland to attend the funeral of Rev. Ed Cofer.

A. A. Dunlap, A. M. Zevely and Dick Reckman were in Moro on business Monday.

Mrs. Herman Schilling and daughter Barbara and Mrs. Helen Alley were shoppers in The Dalles Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Blaylock of Hood River have moved into the Baptist parsonage.

Mrs. A. M. Zevely returned from the hospital last Thursday.

Willard Barnett and Mrs. Oscar Ruggles went to The Dalles Saturday to bring Mrs. Barnett and infant son home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Leghorn and daughter Ruth Ann were visitors in The Dalles Wednesday.

Mrs. O. H. Bucholtz, her daughter Mrs. Gertrude Harper and son, and M. Campbell of Portland were visitors at the home of Miss Anna Schwartz Monday.

C. H. Schwartz was taken to the Mid-Columbia hospital in The Dalles for an operation Monday.

Pauline Wilcox came up from Portland last Thursday and returned Sunday.

Dell Olds left for Harry Heising's Saturday to get a saddle horse. He will return Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvy Remington of Maupin came up to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dell Olds over the last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis are spending Thanksgiving in Bend with Mrs. Davis' mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Newcomb and daughter Doris left Friday for Camas, Wash., to visit Mr. Newcomb's brother Arthur of Camas and Ray of Orchards. They will have their Thanksgiving dinner Sunday and return home Monday evening.

Barbara Walpole came up from Portland Sunday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling.

Rev. Captain Hall preached at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Arden Squire went to Portland Friday night to bring his wife and baby daughter and Mrs. Eben Kee home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rust are the parents of a tiny baby daughter born at The Dalles hospital. She weighed 2 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stow, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Christensen went to Hood River Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schmidt went to Shaniko on Monday.

A. J. Harvey of Wamic was in town on business Monday.

Wallace May motored to Salem Thursday and returned Monday. John Block was in Shanika Monday to see about work.

Mrs. Henry Roth gave a birthday dinner for her son Henry last Sunday night. The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer of Portland are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne. Mr. Cramer is a nephew of Mr. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley and Frank accompanied by Mrs. Herman Schilling and son Robert were in The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Fritz accompanied by Mrs. Roy J. Baker were shoppers in The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Baker left for Gresham to spend Thanksgiving and for the Baker family reunion.

Ellen Cox came up from Corvallis Wednesday night to spend Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox.

Robert Estinger returned from St. Martin's Springs on Monday night.

George Wilcox has bought the section of land owned by the State Land Board, and farmed by Chas. Forester.

The Odd-Fellows lodge is going to give a card party at their hall on Saturday night, December 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sayers and family and Mrs. Margaret Peetz and Carl left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alley and daughter Lila Lee left Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Bruce and with Tom Alley's family.

Misses Agness Simon and Evelyn Davis came home Wednesday evening from Portland where they are attending school to spend the holiday with their parents in Grass Valley and Kent.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

A very interesting and educational program was put on by Mrs. Carroll Sayers and her committee at the meeting of the Moro Woman's Club held at the Odd Fellows Hall on November 20th. David Moore gave a musical reading, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. C. L. Poley reviewed the book "When We Were Very Young," by Milne; and Mrs. C. P. Moore reviewed "Gone With The Wind," by Margaret Mitchell, and "Feeling Fine" the story of the life of Bill Hanley, by Anna Shannon Monroe. A fourth book "Invincible Louise" the story of the life of Louisa Alcott, by Cornelia Meigs, was reviewed by Mrs. D. E. Stephens.

For the musical part of the program Mrs. Cope told the story of the opera "Il Trovatore" by G. Verdi, and Mrs. M. G. Melzer the story of the opera "Der Freischutz" by Carl von Weber. Selections from each were played by Mrs. Carroll Sayers.

December 4th is the date that has been set for Husband's Night, an annual affair of the club.

Kent Grange Will Elect Officers Saturday Night

The meeting of the Kent grange next Saturday night, November 28 will be partially for the election of new officers for the coming year. All members are requested to attend.

John Adams and Emmet Eakin of Hood River were business visitors at Kent Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Lyle Smith and daughter Joyce of Hood River were visitors at the home of the formers parents Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schilling Monday.

Cliff Quincy who has been employed on the J. M. Wilson ranch, left for California Monday where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Wilson and son Kenneth, spent the first few days of last week visiting at Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Amick were business visitors at Redmond Wednesday.

Dinner guests at the J. C. Wilson home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gentry and daughter Bess of Moro, Frances Gregg of Bend and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schadewitz and son John were dinner guests at the J. M. Wilson home Sunday.

Kent Sunday school had twenty two in attendance Sunday, and a special meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson Monday evening, November 30. Those interested in the Sunday school are invited to attend.

Mrs. John MacInnes went to Portland Thursday to attend the funeral of Reverend Ed. C. Cofer who had occupied the pulpit a number of times at Kent during his pastorate in Grass Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton and daughters Geradine and Carol Ann and son Ross motored to The Dalles Sunday to see Mr. Norton's sister who is a patient in The Dalles hospital.

The turkey raffle held in the

Zell's Funeral Home
Phone 345 The Dalles, Ore.
or Alley's Confectionery
Phone 222

For Comfort and Security
Arvin Heaters
Weed Chains
Eveready Prestone
Foss & Co., Inc.

I. O. O. F. building Saturday evening was well attended. The turkeys went quickly. Wilmer Gunter owned the turkeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg and daughters Frances and Dolores of Bend spent the week end at Kent visiting the Alfred Lyons family.

High scholarship is the requirement for election to membership in five honor societies at the University of Oregon. One of them Phi Beta Kappa, scholarship society, is the oldest Greek letter fraternity in the United States, as it was founded in 1776. The others are Sigma Xi, science majors; senior men; Mortor Board senior women; and Order of the Coif, law. All but the Friars are national organizations. The campus also has 24 professional societies which have scholarship as one requirement to membership.

University of Oregon, Eugene. Wayne L. Morse, dean of the university's law school, has been appointed to serve on the Oregon state bar committee on law enforcement and on the committee on legal education.

CHURCHES

Community Presbyterian Church 10 a. m. Thanksgiving in the Sunday school with program in charge of high school department. Missionary offering for Whitman Spalding Memorial.

11 a. m. Miss Marjorie Byers, student from Pacific University, will (sing) Rev. L. H. Mitchelmore will speak on "A Charge To Keep I Have."

7 p. m. Fourth session in World Friendship with the people of Africa. Adults, high-school, and intermediate groups are studying Ethiopia. Wednesday night, 7:30, Bible study at life church.

Christian Science Society

The subject of the lesson sermon is "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism. Denounced."

Golden Text: Matthew 4: 10, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Responsive Reading: Isaiah 14: 12-17, 24, 25, 27

WASCO CHRISTIAN CHURCH Gilbert R. Carey, Pastor. Bible School 10:00 a. m.

Bring your friends and attend a Growing Bible School, a class for all ages. Morning Worship 11:00 a. m.

FULL GOSPEL ASSEMBLY Pastor: Everett L. Cook. Sunday School 10:00 a. m.

Able instructors for all ages. Come and bring your children to the Sunday school. Morning Worship 11:00 a. m.

"Serving God With a Purpose." Evening worship 7:30 p. m. Subject: "The Voice of the Spirit."

A good time of song and praise awaits you at this meeting. There will also be a mid-week meeting on Thursday evening of each week hereafter. A welcome awaits you at every service.

When Your Shoes need repair send them to

WERNMARK'S GOOD SHOE REPAIRING

204 Second St. THE DALLES

Go home tonight BY TELEPHONE!

Have you been thinking about the folks at home lately? Why not call up tonight and have a friendly, homey talk? "Long Distance" really means "short distance." For it does just that to the miles—shortens them up to nothing.

Telephone home tonight!

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

CONFIDENCE
All Satisfactory Business is built on Confidence -- Confidence on the part of the buyer that goods purchased will be of good quality and fairly priced.
Dependable Groceries, Fresh Vegetables
Overalls, Jumpers, Shirts, and all kinds of DRY GOODS Trade At
H. Zeigler's Quality Store

Roof Paint, Special 75c a gallon
Radio Batteries Coleman Lights
Plumbing Supplies
Johnsons Floor Wax Furniture Polish & Cloth 75c
Machinery--Repairs
Extras and Implements
Come and get Your Wants
Roy J. Baker
Grass Valley, Oregon

Classified Ads.

FOR SALE: Saddle Horse and saddle. Gentle for school children. $35.00 John DeMoss.

PIANO FOR SALE—bungalow size. Must sell quick to save shipping expense. You take over contract for cash or small monthly payments. Address J. F. Smith, adjuter, Cline Piano Co., 1011 SW Washington, Portland, Oregon. 2-3-4

MAN WANTED for Rawleigh's Route of 800 families. Write today. Rawleigh's Dept., O S K-13-SA, Oakland, Calif.

For Sale: Farms owned by State Land Board. Liberal terms. See Richard M. Weber, agent for Sherman and Wasco counties, 310 Court St., The Dalles, Ore. Phone 358.

STEADY WORK - GOOD PAY. RELIABLE MAN WANTED to call on farmers in Sherman county. No experience or capital needed. Write today. FURST & THOMAS, 426 Third St., Oakland, Cal.

It's your Price
WILKEN FAMILY BLEND WHISKY
65.8 proof. 70% grain neutral spirits. Supervised by The Wilken Family, Joe S. Finch & Co., Inc., Schenley, Pa.