EVENTUALLY, WHY NOT NOW

The settlement of the strike appears to be more remote at present than at any time since it was first started on October 31. Those who have made some progress in mediation are halted by an apparent desire on the part of the unions and ship owners who have signed agreements to change them and begin all over again.

From all parts of the state come reports of losses because of the strike and cessation of shipping. Hood River apple growers are aggrieved because their crop of shipping was increased, turkey growers feel that their market has been lost for the year and wheat producers are afraid that southern hemisphere wheat will be on the market before northwest wheat is moved.

Strikers are as insistent that their demands be granted as they were when the strike was declared. Perhaps all sides of the matter could get somewhere in a conference. It will have to be done that way eventually.

The Well Proportioned Life

Gilbert R. Carey, Pastor. Through the means of the press we are privileged to call to your attention an important passage of Scripture. Please open your Bible to Luke 2:52.

Characteristic of human nature, we the American people are happy to boast over being called a Christian nation. In order to live up to this name it becomes necessary to follow very closely the example of Jesus Christ. Listen to His Words: I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved and shall go in and out, and shall find pasture." John 10:9.

Now as we look at our scripture in Luke we notice first He advanced in Wisdom. All available means are being taken today to build a more perfect educational system in our land in order that our children might receive the best education possible. For this we are grateful. The mind is being provided for.

He also advanced in stature. Physical culture is far from being a neglected field in the thinking of the American people today. Medical science is doing much toward building a strong body. As we watched the Olympic games American came to the front time after time, which proves our strength is being maintained.

Last but not least we notice Jesus advanced in favor with God and men. This time as we look at our nation we see a different picture. Through the year 1936 in a great many churches there has been a decrease rather than an increase in attendance. In other words we are not growing in favor with God as rapidly as we should.

As we study the life of Jesus in God's Holy Word we find He spent much time alone in prayer to his heavenly Father. On several occasions he prayed all night. There is no question about the fact that as a people do not spend enough time in prayer to Almighty God. If we expect to advance in His favor we must spend more time in His presence. Let us follow the example of Christ by putting God first in all things. We will be happier, the community in which we live will be a more, desirable place. America will be more Christian.

RING OUT THE OLD, RING IN THE NEW

This is the most colorful the most festive season of the year. Let's make the most of it. Allow the festive spirit to hold over a few days, though Christmas has passed, and it is not yet the New Year. . . a grand time to entertain everyone's in the mood.

It isn't necessary to plan an elaborate party. Just ask a few of your more intimate friends in for an evening of informal games.

Of course, refreshments of some kind are always a prerequisite to a successful evening. But simple food, carefully prepared, is always in good taste.

The housewife who seldom has an opportunity to eat a meal outside her own home finds an invitation to supper particularly welcome. However simple in detail, it tastes delicious to the woman who hasn't had to plan and prepare the meal. A delightful change and an enjoyable evening . . . decidedly worth the effort it entails.

And what better way to spend New Year's Eve than with a few congenial friends or in a large family group. Ring the Old Year Out and the New Year In with a midnight supper. A favorite is said to carry over from the Dutch - several varieties of sliced cheese, also several varieties of sliced cold meats, olives, pickles, potato salad and so on. The guest takes a plate and helps himself. But many enjoy a refreshing salad, fruit, shrimp or crab, served with hot garlic bread or cheese puffs. The recipes below have been used time and time again with great success.

You, too, will find them highly satisfactory.

Cottage Cheese Mold Salad One and a half cups cottage cheese One cup of cream, whipped One pkg. lemon jello One half cup boiling water Two cups mixed fruits One tablespoon sugar One eighth tsp salt One eighth tsp cinnamon

Put cheese through a sieve, add sugar, salt and cinnamon and whipped cream. Add jello dissolved in boiling water. Add fruit. Put in molds and chill until set. Unmold and serve on lettuce with fruit salad dressing or a mayonnaise folded into whipped cream.

CHEESE PUFFS Puff Batter: One cup hot water One half cup butter One cup flour Three eggs and pinch of salt Boil water and butter together. While boiling stir in the dry flour. When cool, add one egg at a time, beating well after each addition. Add salt and mix well. Drop by teaspoons on buttered pans. Bake in oven (425 deg.). Watch baking carefully.

Filling: Three tbsp butter Three tbsp flour One and a fourth cups milk One half tsp salt One half teaspoon paprika Two eggs yolks Three fourth cup grated cheese Melt butter, add the flour and stir until smooth and creamy. Add the milk and blend well. Add salt, paprika, well beaten egg yolks and the grated cheese. Cook until thick in double boiler. Sift puffs cross wise while still warm and fill with cheese mixture. These give the appearance of cream puffs.
