

L. M. Millers Have Difficulties Getting To Wasco

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Miller of Moro on their way to Wasco Saturday, were delayed when their car stalled in the snow. Mr. Miller walked back to Moro, and Mrs. Miller came on by stage to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schwendel.

The Dalles Townies and the Wasco Quinet basketball teams played last week, the final score 85-40 for The Dalles. Melvin Walsh was high man for Wasco with 21 points.

The high school basketball game scheduled at Mosier has been postponed until travel is easier.

Mrs. Maude Akers and Miss Scott were dinner guests, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin and family.

Moro and Wasco high school basketball teams played here Friday. Scores were 33-9 for the boys with Wasco winning. The Moro girls won the other game 41-22.

Mrs. R. H. McKean stayed with Mrs. S. A. Porter each evening last week. Mrs. Porter's daughter, Mrs. Mills, has been unable to visit her mother lately because of illness.

Mr. Halstead, Standard Oil superintendent, was in the Wasco area Saturday.

Virgil Brock of Twin Falls, Idaho, arrived Friday for a visit of a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brock.

The emigrant school bus was unable to make its daily rounds last week as Dick Yocum, driver, was ill.

Mrs. Lewis Scholl spent some time last week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Knebel in The Dalles.

Wasco Woman's Study club met at the home of Mrs. E. D. McKee last week. Program numbers included "Practical English Lessons Mrs. Harry Proudfoot; "Life of Galsworthy," Mrs. E. H. Watkins; and a review of Galsworthy, "The Man of Property" by Mrs. Maude Akers.

Miss Olive Robinson entertained guests at three tables of pinocle, Friday. Mrs. Hines received high score with Walter Eaton and Mrs. J. F. Royce and Arthur Barzee turned in the low scores. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Estelle Hailey was in Portland several days last week. She was a guest of Mrs. Guy Pound of The Dalles, Sunday evening before returning to Wasco.

The Tuesday Study club members met at the library. The English study period was conducted by Mrs. Maude Akers. After the usual business meeting the group spent the remaining part of the afternoon visiting. The next meeting is scheduled for the home of Mrs. Ida Andrews.

H. D. Proudfoot left Saturday for Chicago where he is attending the final meeting of the Fact-finding committee of the Farmers' National Grain corporation. Mr. Proudfoot is one of two representatives from the Pacific Northwest.

Miss Geraldine Funk spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Funk. Miss Funk lives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ornduff of The Dalles were in town Sunday.

Several Wasco citizens enjoyed the Serge Rachmaninoff concert in Portland, Sunday. Among those present were Mrs. Augusta Hunkin and daughter Augusta; and Mrs. Arthur Sargent.

Miss Ivalou Peugh of Portland is visiting her mother.

Last Saturday night neighbors met together at the Gus Henderson home for a game of cards and a time to visit. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bargenholt, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Schwendel and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Miller were guests.

Kenneth McKenzie, Rufus grade school teacher, accompanied Joe Morris to town last Friday.

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to the many friends who have shown such kindly thought in word and deed during our recent bereavement. We appreciate the beautiful floral offerings and other tributes paid to our dear mother.

Flu Epidemic On The Wane At Rufus

Norman Fleck, who is in a hospital in The Dalles with ulcers of the stomach, has been reported to be in no better condition at the first of this week.

Chet Medler was taken to the hospital some time ago to be treated for kidney trouble. He is some what better, it is said.

While formulating the sick list, it can be said that there are a case or two of flu in the community and numerous colds, but there seems to be no danger of the flu epidemic affecting this community very heavily.

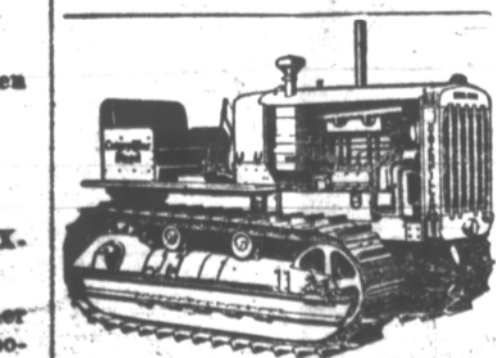

Until Monday, January 25, the mercury has not been able to climb past the 30 degree mark, but Monday it took a sudden skip up as high as 45 degrees, and during the course of the week of January 18 to 22 it dropped nearly to the zero mark—this is just the condition in the immediate vicinity of Rufus, however. Another slight fall of snow decorates the ground since the same week netted us about six inches more than we had, but it wasn't enough to prevent the school buses from making their usual runs.

The winter may be hard and long, but it is still necessary that one should keep his means of locomotion up to date, evidently. The Bryant family, of Biggs, can now skim over the terra firma in a brand new '31 V8 Ford car.

My Neighbor would make more with a "Caterpillar"

—says a "Caterpillar" owner

"My neighbor is losing money because it costs him too much to farm. He should be using the "Caterpillar" Diesel Tractor. My "Caterpillar" Diesel uses cheap fuel and not much of it. My neighbor feeds wheat hay and oats to his horses and it costs him more to feed six horses than it costs me to operate my Diesel. He's losing what he feeds his five other six-horse teams."

The above excerpt from an owner's letter reflects the thoughts of hundreds of wheat farmers who have changed from horse farming to "Caterpillar" farming. They are enthusiastic because they have tried both methods and have earned more from tractor farming. They chose "Caterpillar" Diesels because of preponderance of evidence which proves they are better built, operate more economically, last longer.

BANK TRANSFER

drawal restrictions. "We have given serious consideration to the re-opening of the bank and had further considered the advisability of moving its location with the hope that we would be able to continue our relations with our depositors and friends, which have been so satisfactory in the past. Our only thought has been the future welfare of our depositors. We have decided that with the limited facilities of a small bank, and the restrictions placed on banking at this time, we would be unable to render satisfactory service, and have transferred your deposit to The United States National Bank through its direct branch in The Dalles."

The Eastern Oregon Banking Company was established in 1900 and for thirty-seven years has served a wide territory. Its directors are J. W. Hoech, who was also president of the bank, A. R. Altermatt, vice president, John McLenman, A. J. Connolly, and L. Barnum.

The United States National Bank is the largest banking institution in Oregon, its recent statement showing deposits of approximately $114,000,000, and resources in excess of $123,000,000. The Dalles Branch is one of its largest.

and most important units. It owns an impressive business block in the heart of the city and its recently modernized quarters give the bank a decidedly metropolitan aspect. Other branches of the United States National are located in principal cities throughout the state.

Arlington—Masons from every section of the district that comprises lodges located in Echo, Heppner, Condon, Fossil, Ione, Umatilla, Hermiston, Stanfield and Arlington gathered here, Saturday night, January 16, for a district convention and fiftieth anniversary of Arlington lodge No. 88.

Fossil—Sheriff E. J. Kelsey collected taxes to the amount of $131,182.56 during the year just past when but $104,537.38 had been levied. More taxes were collected during 1936 than during the previous 18 years, in Wheeler county.

MEASURED LIGHT

protects young eyes

Young eyes need more light than middle-age eyes. Proper lighting helps them see more easily and without danger of eyestrain. It is a simple matter today to tell whether your home lighting is adequate for reading, sewing, or studying without eyestrain... and so protect your family's eyesight.

That's where a measured-lighting check-up comes in. All you have to do is telephone or write your Pacific Power and Light Co. office, and a lighting advisor will measure the lighting in your home with a Sight Meter; free of charge. Make an appointment today; protect your family's eyes with measured light.
