

Farewell Party Given For Miss Belle Clothier

A farewell breakfast was given in honor of Miss Belle Clothier, Monday, with Mrs. Etta Morford as hostess. Telephone exchange girls being invited. They presented her with a gift. Miss Clothier has been transferred to Castle Rock, Washington.

Pythian Sisters, No. 64, installed new officers Thursday night with Mrs. E. D. McKee as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Walsh grand manager, and Miss Olive Robinson, grand senior. Officers for the year 1937 include: Mrs. Joe Hilderbrand, past chief; Mrs. F. L. Fields, most excellent chief; Mrs. G. C. Andrews, excellent senior; Mrs. Maude Akers, excellent junior; Mrs. Belle Clothier, manager; Mrs. W. A. Clothier, protector; Mrs. Howard Hines, guard.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hines of The Dalles spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hines and family.

Mrs. Ida King is visiting at the home of her brother, L. Hines of Condon.

The birthday anniversary of Miss Hazel Marie Watkins was observed with a card party, Thursday night, when a group of friends met at the home of Mrs. Roy Atwood. Mrs. Estrella Hailey assisted Mrs. Everett Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kaseberg and daughter Janet, were in Hood River Sunday. Paulen from the University of Oregon was in Wasco the same day.

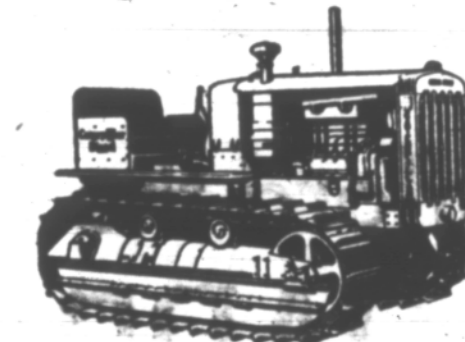

Members of the Woman's Study club met in the library room Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. C. Andrews as hostess. Mrs. Hugh A. Walker conducted the English lesson. Mrs. H. A. White gave interesting sketches on the life of Rudyard Kipling, and Mrs. F. S. Lamborn spoke on the life of Josephine Lawrence.

Tillicum bridge club members were guests of Mrs. William Nesbit last week. Following a dessert luncheon two tables of bridge were played with Mrs. L. L. Funk holding high score, and Olive Robinson low score.

Ladies of the Christian church are announcing a St. Patrick's day

Speaking of Investments

Here's one that brought big dividends

Camas, Washington

Gentlemen: In October of 1933 we purchased an old "Caterpillar" "as was" for $1,000.00. No telling how many thousands of hours of work it had done, but from its appearance they were many. We put an $80.00 set of used track chains on it and went to work. Since then we have spent a little less than $50.00 for repairs although we did our own overhauling work, and have not charged our time against the machine. This first year it plowed 710 acres, double-disked 200 acres, spring-toothed, drilled and dragged 500 acres and did about 12 days of belt work.

The second year it plowed, disked, spring-toothed, drilled and dragged about 500 acres, with 10 days on the belt. This, the third year, it plowed 270 acres, double-disked, spring-toothed, drilled and dragged 200 acres with 15 days on the belt. Also, it did 60 days of work pulling a two-yard scraper.

Besides doing our own work this old "Caterpillar" has taken in a little over $1500.00 doing custom work. Figuring one-third of this amount off for gas, oil and operator, it has paid for itself. Our next tractor will be a "Caterpillar."

Yours truly, Harold Brown.

How many tractors other than "Caterpillars" do you see earning dividends like these over so long a period of use? It's proof . . . of "Caterpillar" quality.

O'MEARA SUPPLY CO.

tea to be given at the home of Mrs. R. H. McKean. A committee has been appointed to arrange the program.

Members of the Tuesday Study club met with Mrs. Eliza Dingle. Twenty members were present to respond at roll call. Mrs. Leo Watkins conducted the English lesson and Louise White gave an outline sketch of Crater Lake. Mrs. Wesley Wilde told of Mt. Rainier, and Mrs. R. F. Ennis, National Park, Virginia.

Pythian sisters extend a cordial invitation to all who wish to play cards at a party to be held March 11, in Fraternity Hall.

Ladies of the Methodist church are giving a St. Patrick's tea at the home of Mrs. Augusta Huckin on March 17.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Proudfoot motored to Eugene where they spent the week end. They were accompanied by Mrs. Maude Akers.

Mrs. Leonard Morria is enjoying a visit with her daughter at Hermiton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fridley left Friday for Portland, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace moved to the Clyde Fridley home last Saturday.

Mrs. Andy Stolson gave a birthday dinner at her home Sunday for Mrs. Charles Everitt. Husbands were invited.

John Kaseberg of Portland was in Wasco last week.

Mrs. Rachel Neece of Portland arrived here Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller.

James Maddox, Lydia Darby, Mrs. Roy Atwood and Leon Smith are patients in The Dalles hospital. Mr. Smith is expected home some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hildebrand and John Matthias of Sunnyside were Sunday visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dingle, Mrs. T. L. Fields and Mrs. Eliza Dingle were in Centralia Tuesday attending the funeral services for L. E. King.

Mrs. Augusta Huckin entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss

WASCOMARKET

RED & WHITE STORE

Groceries—Meats—Fresh Fruits and Vegetables in Season

Your Patronage Appreciated

Augusta. Mrs. J. F. Royce and Guy Andrews received high score prizes when Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guy entertained at four tables of bridge Saturday night. The St. Patrick's motif was used at refreshment tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dutton and grandson, Douglas of Fossil were in Wasco, Sunday morning.

Mrs. J. C. Pounders and son, Cecil of Spokane and Miss Evelyn Scott were Sunday dinner guests at the Ed Moon home.

Mrs. Minnie McKinney and Fred Cole spent Sunday visiting at Heppner with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Guy and Malcolm spent Sunday at Goldendale.

Homer Dixon, high school principal is ill with influenza. Mrs. Dixon is teaching some of his classes.

Staylate—You know, I heard the worst ghost story the other night. It was so eerie it actually made me start.

Miss Bored—Gee, I wish I knew the story.

When Your Shoes need repair send them to

WERNMARK'S GOOD SHOE REPAIRING 204 Second St. THE DALLES

Kent News of The Week Told Briefly

Mrs. J. M. Wilson accompanied A. A. Dunlap of Grass Valley to Spokane, Wash., Thursday where she visited her mother and sister, Mrs. Betty Kelly and Mrs. I. E. Wilson, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Gregg of Bend, is spending a few days visiting here at the Alfred Lyons home.

Omar and Elden Bothwick of Antelope. Mrs. Ida Davis of Moro and Otto Wallman were dinner guests at the J. L. Davis home last Monday.

George Wilson of Fossil was at Kent Wednesday, and he was accompanied home by his son Paul who had been at the home of his grand parents here for several weeks.

Clyde Rucker of Portland is visiting here with his brother Jack Rucker for a few days.

Those from Kent attending the basketball tournament at Dufur last Friday were: Robert Mitchell, Paul Schillings, Myrtle Helyer, Helen Wilson, Luther Warren Davis, Frank Adams and Mary Settembrak.

Nellis Wilson was an over night guest of Mrs. John Wilson Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reckman Jr.,

and daughter Margaret of Grass Valley were dinner guests at the J. C. Wilson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg and daughters Frances and Dolores of Bend were visitors at the John Wilson home Friday night enroute to their new home at Ellensburg, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Amandus von Borstel and children were dinner guests at the home of J. L. Davis last Sunday.

Kent Grange No. 688 held its regular all day meeting Saturday, February 27th. Thirty five members were present. County deputy J. L. Davis installed the officers for the coming year and an oyster dinner was enjoyed at the expense of C. B. Andrews, former Master Pomona Grange meets at Kent on Saturday, March 6th.

Kent Christian Church will have Sunday school again next Sunday, March 7th, after several weeks with no meetings due to the bad roads and stormy weather.

Try Journal advertising. it pays.

T. Lester Johnson LAWYER WASCO OREGON

Community AUCTION SALE AT CONDON SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1937 Starting at 10:30 a. m. At the stockyards

Horses, Dairy & Stock Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Harness, Farm Machinery

Anything you may have to sell, including cars, trucks, household goods and what not.

Bring in your articles on Friday or Saturday before the sale. Livestock brought in early will be fed by the management free of charge.

There will be a large number of fat cows and heifers on hand for sale as well as a good bunch of draft and saddle horses.

A L SALES MADE FOR CASH

BOB RUNNIN Auctioneer C. E. CROUCH Manager A representative of the Condon branch, First National bank of Portland will be clerk.

See us for Sodium Chlorate and Atiaride V.C. Family and Princess Flour Mill Feeds Grain Bags Dairy and Poultry Feeds Twire Rolled Grains Concentrates Flour Salt All kinds of Insurance Sherman Cooperative Grain Growers : : : Wasco, Oregon Safety Deposit Boxes for Lease

ROSE BOWL Based on a Story by FRANCIS WALLACE AND THE PARAMOUNT PICTURE OF THE SAME NAME

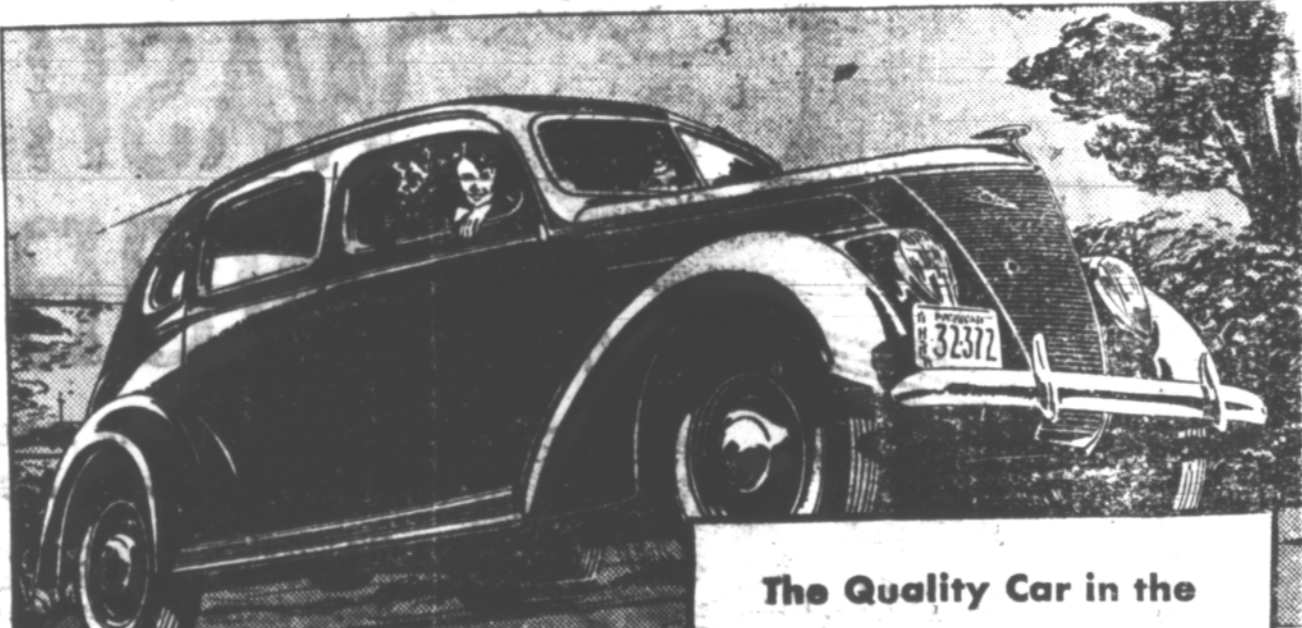

SYNOPSIS Ozzie Merrill, All-American full-back at Sierra and Paddy O'Riley, second string quarterback at Green Ridge, a small eastern college return to Bellport, their home town, in the summer preceding their senior years at school. Both were rivals for the affections of Cheers Reynolds, Bellport belle, but Ozzie's ardor has cooled now that he meets her to do with Cheers because of her fascination for Merrill. Despite Merrill's disparaging remarks about the "hick" football team at Green Ridge, the outfit starts its season with a bang by bounding over some of the best teams in the East.

The horn-toting delegation from Bellport went wild as Paddy came sidwheeling through the opposing Pitt players.

"No. These birds all have got nice square heels," answered his assistant. "Why don't they send in Paddy? Cheers was demanding half-hysterically of her sister at about this same time. "I thought you came to bowl O'Riley out—not cheer him on." "Oh, I'd like to see them put him in so he could go on his face." Susie grinned, but was careful that her little sister did not see her. "Pitt's ball—second down—four to go," boomed the loudspeaker. And, after the teams had unscrambled themselves on the next play: "No gain. Third and four." "O'Riley," said the Green Ridge coach, turning to his best bench warmer. "You know what we need." As Paddy trotted out on the field to replace a winded quarterback, Susie gave a sidelong look at Cheers. "Mind if I give a cheer to a very small cheer?" she inquired. Then, cupping her hands, she belted "Hurrah for O'Riley," and pretended not to notice that Cheers had done the same thing. The teams lined up. Pitt's full-back dropped back for a punt. Paddy also backed up, gauging the approaching ball. He reached for it—and the oval slid through his arms. He made a rush for it as the Pitt players did the same. But to escape this danger. There he suddenly stopped, pivoted, and, as the safety man dived past him, was off to a touchdown, on an eighty yard run. The crowd from Green Ridge, as well as a healthy delegation from Bellport, went wild at this brilliant performance. But a moment later they were silenced as a linesman, standing at the point where Paddy had evaded the safety man, pointed down and shook his head. "Ball called back," the loudspeaker thundered a moment later. "O'Riley went out of bounds on the Pitt 39." "Yes, and his eyes need attention," the Pitt fan remarked to Cheers. "You mean the official's eyes," she snapped. Then to Susie she added spitefully. "I told you O'Riley would pull a boner!" "Well, make up your mind," was her sister's good-humored answer. "Are you for him or again him?" As the teams went into action for the next play Green Ridge shifted, then seemed to explode into action. The line opened up a wide hole for Dutch, and, with good interference, he went bucking through to a touchdown which could not be questioned, just as the final gun cracked. An hour later the tired Green Ridge team were standing on the Pitt campus, waiting for the bus which was to take them to the train.

THIS YEAR SPEND LESS AND OWN MORE!

DISTINCTIVE new lines give only a hint of the sweeping advancements in the Ford V-8 for 1937. From its improved V-8 engines to Center-Poise riding comfort . . . this car offers you finer performance, greater luxury, less expense . . . than even Ford has ever offered. Now there's greater wisdom than ever in putting your money into the extra value that Ford always represents. This year millions of Americans will take more pride than ever before when they say, "We drive a V-8!" YOUR FORD DEALER

FORD V-8 The Brilliant '85' - The Thrifty '60' AUTHORIZED FORD FINANCE PLANS—$25 a month, after usual down payment, buys any model 1937 Ford V-8 car. Ask your Ford dealer about the easy payment plans of the Universal Credit Company.