One of the more important activities will be put on by the Seniors when they put on their annual Senior Ball. It will be held Friday, March 19 at nine p. m. The purpose of the dance is to make some money for the seniors for graduation.

All the students of Moro high are invited, the alumni, teachers, parents, friends, and all the high schools in the county and Golden-dale are also invited. The decoration scheme will be to fit the idea of St. Patrick's Day. The music will be produced by George French and his orchestra which consists of six pieces. He will be assisted by his public address system and a vocalist. This is the second annual Senior Ball and it is hoped that it will be as successful as the Senior Ball of 1936.

A week ago last Wednesday the high school was honored with the presence of Dr. Dan V. Poling a man who is to help seniors decide on a college and tell them what is like at the places of higher learning. He talked to the assembly first and led some songs and then he talked to the seniors.

Cleone Stoner came back to school Monday after having moved to Reedport and later to near Vancouver, Washington. The constant moving makes it hard to keep up her work so she will finish her junior year here. She is staying at the Cunliff home.

A basket ball game was played Friday night with the alumni. It was only a practice game and five quarters were played with the alumni taking the winning side of the game. There were only three alumni so two of the high school played on the alumni side.
