The Grass Valley debaters consisting of Frances Fairchild and Wanda Tiller suffered a permanent setback Monday evening when they journeyed to Bend to uphold the negative side of the power question against Chiloquin. The Chiloquin team consisted of Norman Pohl and Darlene Warren, the same team which defeated Grass Valley last year, and then went on to defeat Dallas for the state championship. Chiloquin won by a 3 to 0 decision.

However, we do not feel discouraged because this is the fourth year of debating for Darlene Warren and the third year for Norman Pohl. The Chiloquin debate was our team's second debate.
