Baccalaureate services were held for the Senior class of 1937 Sunday night. Rev. Mitchelmore preached the sermon on the topic "Launching your boat out into the sea of life. He told of some of the breakers a person would have to pass and after a person finally made a successful launching he would be in the deep sea of life and in the deep sea a person needs a compass. This compass had instead of east, west, north and south, some of the qualities one would need in the sea of life.

Vocal selections were given by Mrs. Kenneth McKean, Genevieve Nahouse and Lyle Nahouse. The year ending semester tests were held last Monday and Tuesday. The grade school children have been going on their picnics this week. The four upper grades went Wednesday to Flecks Orchard and the four lower grades went Thursday to DeMoss Springs.

The high school picnic was an enjoyable affair being held at Bonney Crossing last Friday. The upper classmen left early to have the Senior breakfast. The lower classmen arrived later and spent the balance of the day.
