Rev. J. R. L. Haslam of Bellingham, Washington is coming to the Baptist church in Grass Valley for a series of Evangelistic Services, beginning Tuesday, November 2nd.

He comes with the highest of recommendations, having served as a pastor and in the evangelistic field in both Oregon and Washington for the past several years. In his last pastorate of two and a half years at Ferndale, Washington 75 members were added to the church and the Sunday School made a large increase in attendance.

Rev. Mr. Haslam resigned his pastorate to accept appointment from the National Board of Home Missions for the Baptists to assist in the building up of churches, both in numbers and spirituality, throughout the state of Oregon, where needed. He is known throughout the Northwest as a friend to the man in need and a believer in practical Christianity.

The meetings with Rev. Mr. Haslam will begin at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, November 2nd and last through Sunday, November 14th, except Monday. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Haslam, who will assist with the music. There will be children's meetings at 4 p. m. and special children's programs on Friday nights. Every one is invited to attend each and all these services.
