

Relief Committee Hopes For WPA Projects Soon

The Sherman county relief committee met Wednesday to consider applications for old age relief and passed favorably on one application presented to it. Cost of direct relief in the county has been low during the summer months but is expected to rise with oncoming winter. Some WPA projects are being considered to relieve the situation.

Mrs. Marion Powell and her infant daughter came home Tuesday from the hospital. Miss Nadine Temple of Dufur is here to help her for a few weeks.

Mrs. Alice Belshé was married in The Dalles this week to Walter F. Lavender of Cambridge, Idaho. Mrs. Lawrence Mitchelmore, Mrs. Mae Belshé, Mrs. L. V. Moore, Mrs. C. R. Morrison, Mrs. O. A. Ramsey, and Mrs. H. B. Pinkerton drove to Pendleton Tuesday to attend the state synodical meeting of the Presbyterian church.

L. J. Pape was here from Portland this week to look after business connected with his farming properties in this county.

It is expected that the CCC camp will be entirely removed by next Monday as far as the men are concerned. SCS foremen will move to Stanfield to join the part of the force already there. Orva Dyer and family have moved to Hermiston where they will be close to the work. Mr. Elmes will be the only conservation service remaining here during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cothran and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin Jr., and son George were in Portland Saturday and attended the stock show in the evening.

George Updegraff is still working on the PWA project for rebuilding the Legion hall and while progress has been slow because of technicalities he expects it to go through before the deadline, December 31.

M. A. Skinner, superintendent of banks for Oregon, was here last Friday to appear as a witness in the Roedell case.

Wily W. Knighten of Moro has been named an executive board member of the veterans' club working for the re-election of Secretary of State Earl Snell.

The Womens Missionary Society will hold its "Guest Day" meeting next Thursday, October 20, at the Woman's Club building at 2.00 o'clock.

The High school Christian Endeavor society was host to a deputation of Mt. Hood Union officers, Sunday night. The group included Roy Wolff, Union vice president, of The Dalles and Misses Ruth McKee and Violet Mortimer of Dufur. Plans were presented that explained the 1938-39 projects of both district and state.

H. W. Berry, well known machinery salesman of Portland, was here Wednesday.

F. L. Koons, district highway engineer, was here Wednesday from The Dalles.

Erection of a neon sign for Bucholtz confectionery drew the interest of spectators Tuesday. The sign announces the fact that lunches may be had in bright green letters that will also lighten that part of the main street.

Art had to do a job of tree trimming before his new sign showed up to suit him and it must have hurt his feelings for a dry land guy like Art sure hates to cut a tree.

All Sherman county school teachers will be in The Dalles next Monday and Tuesday to attend the annual institute for this district.

Joe and Rodney Truitt, Ray Blake and W. F. McLeod returned Wednesday night from Paulina with three deer the result of a four day hunting trip in the eastern part of Cook county.

He man Thomas, economist for the SCS, is here working on an economic survey for the service in this county.

All offices in the court house except the county agent's and the school superintendent's were closed Wednesday in honor of Christopher Columbus, who, according to schools book lore, discovered America back in 1492.

Otis Baker and family are moving this week to the Ridgeway house east of the tracks having purchased that property recently.

New registrations of voters as turned in to the county clerk show that 50 Republicans have registered and 47 Democrats. Three have registered as non-partisan and one as a Socialist. Complete returns on the registration in this county are not available to date.

James Galvin, Seattle flyer, and an assistant, have been in the county this week taking passengers for rides about the towns and to Mr. Hood.

Fred Roedell returned to Missoula early this week after having won his contention that he was the actual depositor of the $6000 in the Bank of Moro. Judge Hendricks heard the case. George Updegraff represented Roedell.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandos were here Wednesday to attend the relief meeting.

Mrs. Phil Ruggles is in St. Helens visiting her parents for a few days.

MORO-HI-HI-LITES

By Frank Sayrs

School has started again with the same faculty that was here last year: Miss Leisz, Mr. Mayfield and Mr. Cunliff, principal.

Among the new changes are a mechanical drawing class and a home-making class; also a beginner band has been started under Mr. Simpson's direction. It is composed of 28 grade school students taken from the four higher grades. The high school band has about 20 members and is getting in shape very well.

The high school officers this year are Dean Rinkerton, president; Wyman French, vice-president; Gene Brisbine, secretary-treasurer. The Optimist editors are Lois Melszer, Editor-in-Chief, and Wyman French, assistant editor. They have one edition out and another one will be out this week.

Sports this year are going very well for the girls, but not so well for the boys. The girls have won two games and lost none. Their first game was with Wasco here. The score was 35 to 9. The Moro line-up was: French, Brisbine, B. Peters, J. Peters, Thompson and Sayrs. Substitutions were Melszer, Searcy and McLeod. Their next game was with Grass Valley, a very exciting game, which ended in Moro's favor, 19 to 13. The line-up: French, Brisbine, B. Peters, J. Peters, Sayrs and Melszer. Substitute was Searcy.

The boys won the Wasco game 67 to 22. The line-up was Christian, Pinkerton, Sayrs, Barze, French, and Lutje. Subs were Bill Astell and Bob Astell. The Grass Valley game was lost by a score of 33 to 27. The line-up was the same as the Wasco game.

The high school is planning a dance with concessions for Halloween.

Due to time and expense of driving to The Dalles to secure the service of a Chiropractic Physician, which makes it almost prohibitive only in an emergency, I have been asked by a number of Sherman county residents to open a branch office here. It being my business and intention so serve as many people as I can to the best of my ability, I have decided to fit a room in the Moro hotel, where I will be Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings from about 7 p. m. until 10 p. m., or until all who desire my service are taken care of. If I find it is necessary to be here more than three nights a week I shall do so. I will start this schedule Friday, October 14 and will carry on as long as my services are desired.

During my thirteen years of practice, I have successfully treated nearly every ailment that the human family is heir to, and am convincing myself more every day that the only way for anyone to get their health back is to assist nature in the natural way and she will do the healing.

If you have any malcondition, or ailment that you do not understand or want to get rid of I urge you to consult me and I will explain it to you in words that you can understand and you can use your own judgment as to whether you want to do about it.

If you support a local Chiropractor you will have one near you when you need him.

Mrs. Ted Everett had as guests Saturday afternoon Mrs. Sarah Stalcup, Mrs. Bill Clothier, Mrs. Ernie Weld and Mrs. Lawrence Funk of Wasco.

Mrs. Roy Wells was pleasantly surprised Friday evening when a few friends and relatives arrived and reminded her that she was a year older.

Fire... A Needless Disaster

Local fire officials join safety forces throughout the nation in observing National Fire Prevention week, aimed to educate the public for greater care in preventing needless destruction of property by fire. Most fires, like the disastrous one above, could be prevented by constant vigilance against fire hazards. Inspect your home for hazards today, before it's too late.

T. M. Rolfe took his Percheron stallion from the State Fair to the National Percheron Show at Pomona, California, and from there to the International Stock Show in Portland. He is home again this week.

Mrs. Glen King and sons returned Sunday from Portland where they had been for several days attending the Stock Show.

Mrs. J. H. Wilt, Mrs. Herman Schilling, Mrs. Tom Alley and Mrs. A. F. Balzer attended the Moro-Grass Valley bridge club which met with Mrs. C. L. Poley on Monday afternoon. Mrs. May Belshé received the high score and Mrs. Herman Schilling the second. Mrs. Walter Ruggles received the guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Feely and family of The Dalles were over night guests at the Gus Smith home Saturday.
