In the hope of getting her maid to do better work, Mrs. Brown decided to praise her efforts. Entering the kitchen, she said with a smile: "How nicely you ironed these things, Bridget." She carefully inspected all the garments. Suddenly her face took on a puzzled frown.

"Oh, I see; they are all your clothes," she added.

"Yes," replied the maid, "and I'd do yours just like that if I had the time, ma'am."
