

Aged Moro Woman Injured By Falling

Mrs. A. M. Young fell last Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zene Watkins at Tygh Valley and broke her hip causing her to go to The Dalles hospital.

A marriage license was issued early this month to Earl Gentry of Moro and Mrs. Josephine L. Barnum of Portland who expect to be married on Christmas day.

Dr. Dan V. Poling and wife were here this week speaking to the schools in the county in behalf of the higher education facilities of the state.

George Updegraff was in McMinnville on business Wednesday of this week returning that night. Mr. and Mrs. E. Amidon drove to Portland Sunday night with a load of livestock.

Theodore Johnston has taken the position as director of the Farmers Elevator company left vacant by the inability of Lloyd Hennaghty to serve.

E. E. Barnum and wife, R. W. Belshie and wife and W. J. Martin and wife were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshie at Wasco.

Roy Tiller and family are now located on a place at the edge of Hermiston where they like it fine. Tommy Fraser was among the four teen contestants for the Rhodes scholarship and is expected home for Christmas.

The Rod and Gun club will hold a meeting next Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockie Rochford were down from Camp Sherman this week to visit with friends of Mrs. Rochford who was formerly Mrs. Emma Boardman. They were accompanied by her son Charles Boardman.

The population of Continental United States on July 1, 1938, was 130,215,000, according to preliminary estimates of the U. S. Bureau of the Census. This represents an all-time high population for the United States.

Marion McKee left Thursday morning for Hood River where his mother in law, Mrs. J. N. Stevenson was to be operated on. Mrs. McKee has been with her mother for several days.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Binder, 55, was held Thursday afternoon at Vancouver, Washington where the family has lived for some years. Mrs. Binder, with her husband lived here during the twenties. She is survived by her widow, a daughter, Mrs. Violet Rhode, and two sons, Lester and Lloyd.

A. F. Balzer has stopped driving between Grass Valley and Moro each railroad working day and is now batching near the station house.

Robert Belshie is on a trip to Flint, Mich., to take delivery on a new car.

Tom Fraser returned last Friday night from Chicago and Iowa where he delivered a stallion. Tom brought back a truck and a new car and two young horses, one of which he purchased in Iowa and the other came from the herd of the Michigan State college. Both are Belgians, of course, and both are sorrel with lighter manes and tails.

A news account tells that the first marriage license issued in Baker county after the new law went into effect was to Paul A. Fraser, who is now teaching at Halfway.

John Foss returned from Astoria where he saw his new grand daughter last Sunday stopping in Portland to visit with his boyhood friend J. W. Maloney, now collector of internal revenue.

A few of the new Oregon license plates are showing up on cars around town and, as usual, they look like thunder until we get used to them.

Streamlined unemployment compensation law procedures will be sought by the Oregon Commission at the coming session of the state legislature.

Thirty-one states now are paying unemployment benefits. Out-of-work benefits will become payable in the remaining states by January 1, with the exception of Illinois and Montana, in which benefits will be payable after July 1, 1938.

CHURCHES

Wasco Methodist church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Special music by the choir. Epworth League at 6.30 p. m. Don't forget the children's Christmas program Sunday evening at 7:30. The Mary Elizabeth class will meet at the home of Mrs. Maud Akers on Wednesday afternoon, December 21, at 2 o'clock. Choir practice at the parsonage every Wednesday evening at 7:30.

F. L. Cannell, pastor.

Moro Christian Science society: Church services every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The Reading room is in the rear of the church building and has an attendant at the close of each service. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and to make use of the reading room.

G. V. SCHOOL NOTES

By Dolores Simon
Tuesday, December 6, Antelope came to Grass Valley where the boys played basketball. The score was 20 for Antelope, Grass Valley 68. On the same evening the Wasco girls played volleyball here. The score of the game was 16 for Wasco, and 24 for Grass Valley.

Grass Valley went to Rufus Friday, December 9, where the boys played basketball. The score was Rufus 21; Grass Valley 19.

Friday, December 16, Moro will come here where they will play basketball.

Wednesday, December 14, St. Mary's was here, and the boys played basketball.

Saturday, December 17, Arlington will come here, for a basketball game.

MORO - HI - HI - LITES

By Frank Sayrs

The high school and grade schools are very busy putting the finishing touches on their plays and skits for the band program Saturday night December 17, and the Christmas play December 22.

The high school band will offer a varied program, consisting of marches, overtures and solos. Carl Severson of Arlington is guest soloist. He is eleven years old but has won the State Solo Contest twice. His selection is "Castles in the Air."

The grade school band will play a program of marches, waltzes and chorals. The rhythm band will play some numbers also.

The Christmas program December 22, is an operetta, "The Gift of the Magi," with both high school and grade school pupils taking part.

Last Friday night Moro took a doubleheader basketball from the Wasco squads. The first team score was 36 to 33. It was a "thriller" all the way through with Wasco in the lead until the last few minutes of play when Pinkerton made a basket that put Moro in the lead. Line-up was Christianson, French, Pinkerton, Axtell and Kenny.

The second team score was 17 to 11. Line-up was Axtell, Lutje, Kenny, Barzee and Martin.

Don't forget Music, Laughter, Comedy Friday night at the school house. Admission: Adults 35c; High school 25c; grade and preschool no charge.

GEORGE G. UPDEGRAFF
Attorney At Law
Moro and Wasco

Grass Valley Eastern Star Holds Election

The Eastern Star chapter held a meeting last Tuesday evening for the election of officers as follows: Gertrude Van Metre, Worthy Matron; Harold Eakin, Worthy Patron; Mary Spoor, Associate Matron; Dell Eakin, Associate Patron; Oma Eakin, Conductress; Marie Lephorn, Associate Conductress; and Dorothy Dunlap, secretary. A. A. Dunlap, treasurer. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Walton of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Haufelt of Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett of Wasco were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Everett last Sunday.

Mrs. John Perry of Hillsboro came up Saturday to visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rolfe. Mr. Rolfe taking her to The Dalles Tuesday to return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells and family and Mrs. T. M. Rolfe visited Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mathews at Stevenson, Washington Sunday.

Thirteen Odd Fellows went to The Dalles Wednesday night when The Dalles lodge put on the First Degree work.

Wren Hogue and children and Mrs. Josephine Bauer spent several days visiting in Washington.

Mrs. W. J. Davis and sons Clyde and Sam were business visitors in The Dalles Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Clodfelter returned from Portland Wednesday after spending several days there on business.

Henry Roth and son Henry and Gerald Kelly were visitors in The Dalles Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buker of Paulina were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Olds Wednesday night.

Quite a number from here attended the program put on by the Kent Rebekah lodge at Kent Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley brought Frank home from The Dalles Sunday where he had been in the hospital for several weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Eslinger returned home after spending three weeks at Forest Grove with Mr. and Mrs. Asa Eslinger. Mr. Eslinger is still in the hospital, but is improved.

Mrs. Roy Schilling entertained the Junior bridge club at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bud Coon on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Arden Squire made high honors for club and Mrs. Herman Peters was awarded the guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Peters were shopping in The Dalles Monday.

The Zebras won the game from Maupin here Saturday evening after quite a struggle.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Kee and Mrs. A. A. Dunlap spent several days visiting in Portland recently.

Mrs. Jack Odell, Mrs. Art Bibby, and Mrs. Ted Everett were in Moro Thursday to see the dentist.

Mrs. Arch Fortner and daughter, Emma Ellen and Edwin Peters were shoppers in The Dalles Monday.

S. A. Skirving of The Dalles was business visitor at the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schilling and Mrs. W. F. Schilling were shoppers

A. W. McLEOD
Dealer in Calkin Weeders, Treaters
Used Weeders
FIRETYER EQUIPMENT
Moro, Oregon Phone 544

WINS HIGH POST

Arne G. Rae, since 1929 field manager for the Oregon Newspaper Publishers' Association, will leave Oregon January 1 to become executive secretary of the National Editorial Association.

Mr. Rae, who also holds a position as assistant professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, will make his home in Chicago.

in The Dalles last Saturday. Among the shoppers in The Dalles from here Friday were Mrs. Ed Alley, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alley, and John Conroy.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our appreciation of the kindnesses given us at the time of the death of our wife, mother, daughter and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Amick
Mrs. Jo Bauer
Wren Hogue and family.

During the sixty years from 1870 to 1930, the number of gainful workers in the United States in the professional classes increased gradually in relative importance from 2.6 percent of all gainful workers in 1870 to 6.7 percent in 1930, according to U. S. Census Bureau reports. The group was almost ten times as large in 1930 as in 1870.

County Granges Install Officers At Kent

Kent grange held its regular meeting Saturday evening Dec. 12 after which joint installation for Kent and Harland View officers for the coming year were installed by J. L. Davis and C. B. Andrews. Bill Wilson and Ina Jonca of Rufus acted as emblem bearers. Mr. P. Barnett, Kent's new master, took charge later and called for promontu talks which were given by T. M. Rolfe, Grass Valley; Howard Belshie, George McDonald Mrs. W. Bruckert and J. B. Adams of Harland View; J. L. Davis and J. M. Wilson, Kent; Bill Huck of Rufus. Dancing and refreshments completed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howell and children of The Dalles were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrow over the night Saturday.

Mrs. Grace Gregg, Mrs. Edith Lyons and Mrs. Earl Gregg who had been at Kent visiting several days motored to Bend Thursday where the latter's son June was ill.

Lester Wilson returned to Kent Wednesday evening after having spent the past ten days at Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Gertrude Hogue and Eleanor Payne and Charles Swett were business visitors in The Dalles last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson motored to The Dalles Saturday where Mrs. Wilson left on the train for Moscow, Idaho to spend several weeks at her sons, Dr. J. H. Wilson for medical care.

The funeral of Mrs. Rose Hogue was held here at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. C. L. Swander of Portland officiated. A large crowd of friends and relatives attended, also a number of out of town folks were here for the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McGlasson sang three numbers and Pauline Davis and Nellie Wilson presided at the piano.

G. W. Howell and son Harry visited the former's son Dale at Goldendale, Washington several days last week, who is recovering from a recent operation. A large crowd attended the program sponsored by the Rebekahs here Friday evening. Several instrumental numbers, vocal solos, skits, and instrumental numbers were included and dancing and refreshments completed the evening. Guests at the J. C. Wilson home Sunday were: Mrs. Ida Davis, Pauline Davis and G. Douma of Moro and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McGlasson.

GET YOUR PERMANENT NOW

Holiday Specials

Flowers Permanent $1.95
Oil Permanents $3-4-5

LEROY'S BEAUTY SHOP

The MULTNOMAH
PORTLAND, OREGON

Distinguished Service

- Convenient Location
- Coffee Shop - Buffet Tavern
- Dining and Banquet Rooms
- Famously Fine Food
- Modern Apartments
- Garage Opposite

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

Station FOSS

Winter "Just around the corner"
Prestone your radiator
WINTER LUBRICATION
For your transmission and differential
CHECK: Tires, Battery, Ignition, Lights, Heater, Defroster.
Signing off for winter driving
Foss & Co.

Home GIFTS are Welcome

A recent survey in a nationally circulated magazine showed that a vast majority of people preferred gifts of Clothing.

We suggest therefore that to make gifts pleasing and practical give

HER: Slips, Boxed Handkerchiefs, Silk Hose, Scarfs
HIM: Sweaters, Scarfs, Sox, Ties
And theres Pillow Slips and Linen Goods

And to wrap that gift and give it the atmosphere and aspect of the Christmas season we have a fine assortment of ribbons, tissue paper, tags, seals, trimmings, etc.

J. C. Freeman Co.
Heavy Cloth for Cold Weather

SAFETY SONNETS

A PIG AT THE TABLE JUST BOOSTS HIS OWN WEIGHT.

BUT A PIG ON THE ROAD BOOSTS THE ACCIDENT RATE!

National Safety Council

Classified Ads

For Sale: Christmas turkeys and Roasters. Mrs. Frances Henrichs, 27F44, Moro. 5-6

FOR SALE. 1 2-bottom 14 in. JohnDeere Tractor Plow; 1 22-36 McCormick Deering Wheel tractor; 1 Allis-Chalmers tractor Model "m." J. B. Eslinger, Grass Valley. pd. 5-6

For Sale: Fat young geese, alive or dressed, if wanted dressed, order early, goose feather pillow and canary. W. E. Bruckert, Klondike, Phone 3F13, Wasco.

Many attractive gifts for Christmas. Handkerchiefs a specialty. Mrs. Martha Cope.

I still have some boxes of Christmas cards left. Miss Vivian Trounce. 6p

LOST or Strayed: 1 Corriedale ewe lamb, ear tag, Tiller 7; 1 Corriedale ram lamb, ear tag, Tiller 1; 1 Corriedale 2-year ram, ear tag RWP 299. Notify Journal office. 6-7

Lumber We are increasing stock and will have or be able to get any kind or quantity desired on short notice.

Coal, Wood, Prestologs We will have a stock of all fuels during the winter.

Gasco Briquets Get your order in for Briquets as price will raise $1 per ton the first of January.

Moro Lumber & Fuel Yard
M. G. Melzer, Manager

Announcement

The Grass Valley Theatre has installed new permanent sound and projection machine and will open December 23rd to show four nights a week---

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday
Matinee on Sunday and Holidays

Opening Show:
Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in
"Test Pilot"
December 23 and 24 Friday and Saturday