

Former Moro Resident Dies In Portland

Word was received by Clifford Kenny this week that Bill Cody, former cream station agent of Moro, died at his daughter's home in Portland March 7, and was buried in that city on Saturday, March 4th.

Mrs. Chas. Adlard has spent the last ten days in The Dalles helping to care for her sister in law, Mrs. J. O. Elliott who is seriously ill at the home of her son, Ted Elliott.

Darold Belshe had the misfortune of having a horse he was riding Saturday morning, slip on frozen ground, and fall with him, injuring his right foot quite badly.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Christian of The Dalles were here Monday on business at the court house, and visiting with old friends.

Vic Barr arrived in Moro Thursday from Harper to return Mrs. Barr with him. They expect to rent a cabin in an auto camp and keep house in a small way.

Stanley Reavis, an employee of the Pacific Power and Light company, now located in Prineville, with Mrs. Reavis was visiting in Moro over the week end at the Ralph Brisbine home.

Mrs. Frank Fagan of Mc Minnville, a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Young, came to Moro Thursday to care for her mother, while Mrs. Watkins returned to her home in Tygh Valley. Mrs. Watkins returned Monday as Mrs. Yoda has had an attack of pneumonia and is not so well as she has been.

K. C. Boehmer of Portland, superintendent of sales for the Texas Company, visited the J. K. McKean Texaco station here Tuesday.

Mr. Crane of Portland, who has been in the county since the 24th of February auditing the books of the grain elevators and warehouses expects to finish the work by Saturday.

The Woman's club held a benefit card party Saturday evening with twelve tables of five hundred in play and one of Chinese checkers. Mrs. E. R. Moore and Mr. E. E. Barnum won high score honors and Mrs. Carroll Sayrs and Mr. W. A. May the consolation prizes. Mrs. R. B. Hoskinson won the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Reese and daughter Mary went to Pendleton Friday for a visit with their daughter and family, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell.

Mrs. W. J. Martin went to Portland Friday for a visit with her sons and families, Wilbert and Avery.

The Misses Marjorie and Barbara Meloy, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Meloy of Roseburg spent the week end in Moro visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Coffman and daughter Betty, went to Portland Saturday, returning the first of the week.

Mrs. Dorothy Peetz and daughter Janet, arrived in Moro Saturday to spend the week end at the L. L. Peetz home. They did not return to Sandy Sunday, when Mrs. Peetz has employment as a teacher, as she developed a case of tonsillitis while here.

Mrs. Earl Landstrom, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. L. Peetz, drove to Lebanon, Friday for a visit with Mr. Landstrom's folks. They also expect to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Peetz in Portland before returning home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Douma left for Prineville Monday on account of the illness of Mrs. Douma's mother, Mrs. Elliott. Gloria is staying with her aunt and uncle, Mc and Mrs. Marius Douma during her parents' absence. Mr. and Mrs. George Kruger and Bud Amidon are doing the work on the farm.

Mrs. M. M. Oveson entertained Thursday evening with a shower honoring Mrs. Robert Henderson. Cards were played during the course of the evening.

The chicken pox list seems to be growing with the following victims this week: Priscilla Melzer, Dickie Oveson, Harold and Wayne Melzer, Mac Hall, Bill Newbill and Johnnie Peterson. Other members of the family not having had the disease are at home.

Classified Ads

FOR SALE: Purebred Hampshire ewes and lambs. Also fresh Jersey milk cows. Ralph Butler, Willows. pd 18

FOUND: Light gray felt hat left at court house last court meeting day. Lipman Wolfe property. Owner call and claim.

FOR SALE: No. 1 Bari wheat (treated). Lohrenz ranch, 5 miles south of Arlington. Write or phone. 17-18-19 c

FOR SALE: Marlot seed barley. T. S. Reese, phone 2F14, Moro. 16-17-18 pd also, making several vacant seats in the school rooms.

Robert Mountain, who has been working at the court house on aerial maps for many months, finished his job Wednesday of last week and moved to Aumsville over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Belshe's babies have been quite ill with the bronchial disease that seems to be making the rounds this spring.

This week end marks the beginning of spring vacation for the state institutions of higher learning, and the many sons and daughters attending from here are expected home for a stay of around ten days.

The Community church board voted Sunday to accept the application of Rev. Henry G. Hanson of Independence, a former minister of Moro, to fill the pulpit for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Knighten spent Wednesday evening as guests of the Bonneville Legion Post and Auxiliary. After installation of officers and the presentation of a charter to the newly formed Auxiliary, a party was given by the Auxiliary to the Legion in honor of their 20th anniversary.

Mrs. Della Tubbs from Washington, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Roy Belshe, this week. The two ladies spent Tuesday with Mrs. Jim Kenny, a daughter of Mrs. Belshe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinkerton left Wednesday morning for Toppish, Washington to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pinkerton's uncle, Grant Shelton. Seral Searcy met his mother, Mrs. Lena Searcy, a sister of the deceased, in The Dalles Tuesday and with Mrs. Charles Ruggles, drove to Toppish for the services.

The Past Matrons of the Eastern Star chapter met at the home of Mrs. L. R. Conlee Tuesday for an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Clarence Sparling won the high score and Mrs. Ernie Moore the consolation prizes. Mrs. Roy Powell was assistant hostess for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin are having the interior of their house redecorated, the Mitchell brothers starting the work this week.

Harvey Thompson left Wednesday morning by stage for his home at Donald after spending several days here helping his sister, Mrs. Frances Henrichs on the farm.

Mrs. Charles Burnet and Mrs. Lyle Woods entertained Friday in the apartment of Mrs. Woods, honoring Mrs. Karl Landstrom, during her visit here. Two tables of bridge were in play during the evening with Miss Signa Woods winning high score.

Mrs. Sara Rasmussen of Pendleton arrived Wednesday evening, for the funeral of her uncle, Henry C. Ruggles, held Thursday in Moro.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henn of Blanchard, Iowa saying they are snow bound, but digging out.

W. T. Balzger was in Walla Walla Monday and Tuesday of this week on business.

Jack Winn of Pendleton and C. Scendby of Spokane, Wn., of the forestry service were here this week in the interest of the SCS work of the government in regard to the planting of the 40,000 trees in the county this month.

Word was received Thursday that there is to be another series of Rebekah plays in Grass Valley Saturday evening, March 11. There will be no charge for the plays, and with only a small charge for the dance to be held immediately after the plays, as before. This time the contestants will be from The Dalles and Grass Valley.

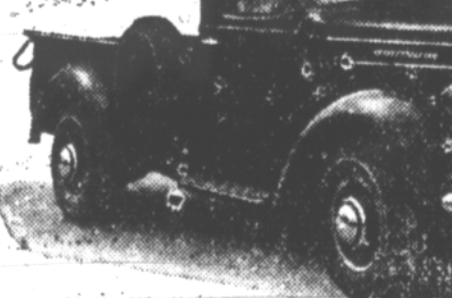

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Thomssen came up Friday from Portland for a visit with their son, Harvey and wife. Their son-in-law Edward L. Ward of Bowd was also visiting in the county this week.

Two eleven-gallon gowns sewed together make an excellent poncho.

Read the ads in the Journal.

The New INTERNATIONAL Pick-Up Trucks . . . in 3 Sizes

In the new International Truck line special attention has been given the popular pick-up type of truck—available in three sizes. Neither appearance nor all-around utility have been neglected in this new line. And no matter what the load there is always an International built to fit the job exactly.

Pick-Up bodies available in 76, 88 and 102 inches (inside body) lengths on 115, 125, and 136-inch wheelbases.

Ask for a Demonstration

J. K. McKean

MORO, C. GO.

Birthday Party Given for Grass Valley Woman

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Newcomb were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when friends called to wish Mrs. Newcomb a Happy Birthday. Bridge was the diversion of the evening, high score going to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling. Lunch was served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brinkert were pleasantly surprised Saturday when three car loads of friends called to help him celebrate his 73rd birthday. Five hundred was played during the evening and lunch was enjoyed at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Kent were business visitors here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell of Wasco were business callers here Tuesday.

Fred Cox returned from Corvallis one day last week where he visited his daughter Ellen. He has been ill since his return.

R. J. Baker and H. A. Sommers were business visitors in Moro Monday.

Charles Lemley and son Frank were Moro visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker were visitors at the Henry Howell ranch near Wasco on Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Alley and son Bruce were visitors in Portland one day last week.

Mrs. Glen Karnes entertained friends of Kenneth Crews Monday evening, the occasion being his birthday.

Bruce Alley was a business visitor in Burns Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Moore of Myrtle Point came up to visit her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bibby.

Ben Payne and son Benny have rented the place farmed by Glen Fairchild and will move his family there this week.

The basketball game between the Chicago Colored Girls and the Grass Valley Zebras was well attended Sunday afternoon. Grass Valley winning by a large score of 51 to 30.

Bill Baker and Ray Jewell were visitors in The Dalles Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Squire were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

The Benefit Card party and picnic at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening was also a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Elinger. Five hundred was played at seven tables with high scores going to Mrs. Ernest Elinger and Lester Barnum and low scores going to Mrs. Wayne Spoor and Harold Eakin. Mr. and Mrs. Elinger were presented with an electric clock from the Eastern Star Chapter.

Ralph Balzer had the misfortune to put his fingers Wednesday afternoon. His brother Melvin took him to The Dalles where several stitches were needed to close the wound.

Mrs. Glen King entertained the Moro-Grass Valley bridge club her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Stella Poley received high score. Mrs. Vera Alley second, and Mrs. Marie Hoskinson was awarded the guest prize.

The contest between the Rebekah plays from The Dalles, Cove and Grass Valley will be given at the Civic auditorium on Saturday evening, March 11 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Funk of Wasco visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted Everett Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Hays, Mrs. Ted Everett and Mrs. Gus Smith were in The Dalles Monday. Mrs. Everett went to see a dentist, and Mrs. Don Smith had wires removed from her jaws.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gunn and Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore of near Moro, attended the show here Sunday.

Dell Olds and Arden Squire were business visitors in Prineville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Dell and Mrs. Arden Squire motored to Biggs Friday, when Mr. O'Dell left for Boise, Idaho to look for work.

Mrs. Dick Huhman entertained the junior bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Those honored with high scores were Mrs. Dell Olds who won the guest prize and Mrs. Arden Squire received the club prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling and son Robert and Mrs. J. S. Newcomb and daughter Doris were shoppers in The Dalles Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Arzell Lemley and daughter Carolyn and Cassie Holmes went to The Dalles Wednesday, taking Carolyn to a hospital with bronchial pneumonia. She is slowly improving.

Mrs. J. H. Wilt, Mrs. Tom Alley, Mrs. Edgar Alley, Mrs. Dean Reynolds and Lila Lee Alley attended the Mother and Daughter banquet at Moro Friday evening, given by the Woman's club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Balzer and sons Ralph and Clair were in The Dalles Sunday visiting Mrs. Balzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bruckert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilt visited at the Ray Blake home at Moro Sunday.

Wasco Methodist Church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. The Band church parade will be postponed until a week from Sunday, March 19th, due to many of the pupils being on the sick list.

F. L. Cannell, pastor.

SPEAKER FROM SOUTH AMERICA AT GRASS VALLEY

At 7:30 p. m. tonight (Friday) people in Grass Valley and the adjacent communities will have an opportunity to hear Rev. C. P. Klaassen, a missionary on furlough from Colombia, South America. Mr. Klaassen and his family have spent nearly eight years in the South American country, returning to his native Minnesota last summer. He expects to return to Colombia in June of this year. Mr. and Mrs. Klaassen were schoolmates of Rev. Gerald Dryden in the Northwestern Bible School in Minneapolis, Minnesota eleven years ago.

The meeting will be held in the Baptist church in Grass Valley.

DANCE

Auspice Three Links Club

Saturday, March 11

Music by The Dalles Swing Club

Admission 50c

Dance will be in the auditorium following the Rebekah plays.

CHURCHES

Grass Valley Baptist church 10 a. m. The Church Studying—Bible school with classes for every age. 11 a. m. The Church Worshipping—Continued study on "The Crucible of Calvary" discussing "Caiaphas, the Apostate." 7:30 p. m. The Church at Home—"Hour Around the Fire-Side" with the school orchestra as our special guests for the evening. 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Class in Soul-Winning and Prayer Service.

SPECIAL NOTICE—7:30 p. m. Friday, March 10, Rev. C. P. Klaassen, missionary on furlough from Solombia, S. A., will speak.

Moro Christian Science Society: Church service on Sunday morning begins at eleven o'clock. The subject of the Lesson-sermon is "Substance." Wednesday evening meeting begins at eight o'clock. The reading room is open after each service with an attendant in charge, where all authorized Christian Science literature may be purchased or borrowed.

Wasco Methodist Church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. The Band church parade will be postponed until a week from Sunday, March 19th, due to many of the pupils being on the sick list.

F. L. Cannell, pastor.

Ouch!

The dean of girls paused in the doorway of the study hall. Instantly a hush settled over the room. Voices were stilled, but not the jaws. These kept right on working.

In answer to her prolonged and disapproving survey, the supervisor spoke up. "Let it disgraceful the way these pupils chew gum? I tell them I don't know what they look like with their jaws going up and down, up and down." "I do," came the dean's prompt reply, "a dairy."

MORO - HI - HI - LITES

By Frank Sayrs

Sherman county distinguished itself at the Sub-district Tournament at Odell March 3 and 4. Moro was vanquished their first game losing to Parkdale 26 to 20. Line-up was French, Pinkerton, Christianson, Sayrs and Axtell. Subs were Kenny and Martin. It was a close game although Parkdale was ahead from the start—Moro, however, getting within two points of them for awhile. Pinkerton was high for Moro, with six foul shots, and one field goal.

Rufus defeated Grass Valley for the championship Saturday night. Grass Valley was ahead of the Rufus team until the last few minutes of play when Rufus caught up with them and defeated them 27 to 25. Rufus placed three men and Grass Valley also placed three men on the all star teams. Millard of the Rufus team received the individual players award.

The class averages for the high school at the end of the fourth

six weeks are Sophomores 1.87; Seniors, 2.27; Freshmen, 2.3 and the Juniors 2.4. Students with "one" averages are Audrey Baker, Claudine Thompson, Wyman French, Gene Brisbine, Lee McLeod, Lois Melzer and Dean Pinkerton.

The fourth annual Senior ball will be held next Friday, March 17, in the school gym. Cards, games and dancing to Morey Graff's music will be offered. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

Distinguished Service

Convenient Location

Coffee Shop - Buffet Tavern

Dining and Banquet Rooms

Famously Fine Food

Modern Apartments

Garage Opposite

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

visior spoke up. Let it disgraceful the way these pupils chew gum? I tell them I don't know what they look like with their jaws going up and down, up and down." "I do," came the dean's prompt reply, "a dairy."

MORO - HI - HI - LITES

By Frank Sayrs

Sherman county distinguished itself at the Sub-district Tournament at Odell March 3 and 4. Moro was vanquished their first game losing to Parkdale 26 to 20. Line-up was French, Pinkerton, Christianson, Sayrs and Axtell. Subs were Kenny and Martin. It was a close game although Parkdale was ahead from the start—Moro, however, getting within two points of them for awhile. Pinkerton was high for Moro, with six foul shots, and one field goal.

Rufus defeated Grass Valley for the championship Saturday night. Grass Valley was ahead of the Rufus team until the last few minutes of play when Rufus caught up with them and defeated them 27 to 25. Rufus placed three men and Grass Valley also placed three men on the all star teams. Millard of the Rufus team received the individual players award.

The class averages for the high school at the end of the fourth

six weeks are Sophomores 1.87; Seniors, 2.27; Freshmen, 2.3 and the Juniors 2.4. Students with "one" averages are Audrey Baker, Claudine Thompson, Wyman French, Gene Brisbine, Lee McLeod, Lois Melzer and Dean Pinkerton.

The fourth annual Senior ball will be held next Friday, March 17, in the school gym. Cards, games and dancing to Morey Graff's music will be offered. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

Distinguished Service

Convenient Location

Coffee Shop - Buffet Tavern

Dining and Banquet Rooms

Famously Fine Food

Modern Apartments

Garage Opposite

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

visior spoke up. Let it disgraceful the way these pupils chew gum? I tell them I don't know what they look like with their jaws going up and down, up and down." "I do," came the dean's prompt reply, "a dairy."

MORO - HI - HI - LITES

By Frank Sayrs

Sherman county distinguished itself at the Sub-district Tournament at Odell March 3 and 4. Moro was vanquished their first game losing to Parkdale 26 to 20. Line-up was French, Pinkerton, Christianson, Sayrs and Axtell. Subs were Kenny and Martin. It was a close game although Parkdale was ahead from the start—Moro, however, getting within two points of them for awhile. Pinkerton was high for Moro, with six foul shots, and one field goal.

Rufus defeated Grass Valley for the championship Saturday night. Grass Valley was ahead of the Rufus team until the last few minutes of play when Rufus caught up with them and defeated them 27 to 25. Rufus placed three men and Grass Valley also placed three men on the all star teams. Millard of the Rufus team received the individual players award.

The class averages for the high school at the end of the fourth

six weeks are Sophomores 1.87; Seniors, 2.27; Freshmen, 2.3 and the Juniors 2.4. Students with "one" averages are Audrey Baker, Claudine Thompson, Wyman French, Gene Brisbine, Lee McLeod, Lois Melzer and Dean Pinkerton.

The fourth annual Senior ball will be held next Friday, March 17, in the school gym. Cards, games and dancing to Morey Graff's music will be offered. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

Distinguished Service

Convenient Location

Coffee Shop - Buffet Tavern

Dining and Banquet Rooms

Famously Fine Food

Modern Apartments

Garage Opposite

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES

600 ROOMS - SENSIBLE RATES