

Moro Masons Go To Fossil for Initiation

A large number of Masons from all the Sherman county lodges went to Fossil last Saturday night on invitation from the lodge there which was initiating Judge Carl Hendricks into the order.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barzee spent the week end at Fossil visiting with Art Barzee and wife who recently moved to Wheeler county. E. E. reports Art as being well satisfied with his new ranch a few miles above Fossil.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French and family were in Fossil Sunday.

Mrs. Walter A. May underwent a major operation at The Dalles last Friday morning and is reported to be improving very well since that date.

Dr. W. N. Morse was here Tuesday for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Moore.

LeRoy Wright was in Corvallis Monday and Tuesday on business for the allotment committee of the county.

Harry Ragsdale was here Friday afternoon while returning to The Dalles after a trip through out eastern Oregon in behalf of the wool marketing organization now represents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Belshaw and Mrs. Art Johnson spent Sunday in Hood River.

Elmer Nelson, former high school student in Moro, and Art Keed, of Stevenson, Washington visited with Moro friends last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Keed is an engineer on the Bonneville construction crew, and Mr. Nelson is working with the surveyors under Mr. Keed.

During the month of March A. M. Zevly took seven coyotes and two bob cats in the 31 days he worked.

Eugene Courtney was up from The Dalles Wednesday on business.

Collection of additional funds to complete the fence around the tennis court is reported to be complete and as the fencing material has been bought. It is expected that the fence will rise in a few days.

Mothers of seniors of the local high school met this week and decided to hold the annual banquet for the class May 17th at the church.

Grandma Ruggles is improving from the result of a fall in The Dalles last week. Her left arm was strained so badly that it was thought it might be broken.

A shower was given Thursday afternoon at the Vernon Platt home by Ruth Huls and Mrs. Platt, in honor of Miss Eunice Lawrence, who will be married in May to Bert Lite of Portland.

Miss Akers spent Thursday in Moro coming from her home in Wasco.

Mrs. Bob Henderson returned from the hospital with her daughter early this week and the family moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conlee.

Merrill Oveson left for Corvallis Thursday to remain a few days on business for the experiment station.

Miss G. R. Maxwell of Oakland, California was seriously injured on the Sherman highway just south of Finnegan canyon Thursday morning when she drove her car off the road and into a culvert heading. She was badly cut and bruised although not thrown out of the car. Miss Maxwell a school teacher, was on her way to eastern Washington to attend her mother's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ruggles were visitors here over last week end from St. Helens where they are now living.

Ted Thompson returned Wednesday night from Gilliam county where he had been for the past 10 days helping Dr. Taylor examine cattle in that county.

Hosiery runs repaired. Brown Shoe Store - The Dalles - 22-28

Classified Ads

RELIABLE MAN WANTED - call on farmers in Sherman County. No experience or capital required. Steady work. Make up to $12 a day. FURST THOMAS, 426 - 3rd St., Oakland, Cal.

FOR SALE - cedar telephone poles and posts. Also 100 cords 1 inch fir wood at $3.50 and 15,000 fence posts at $80.00 a thousand. Maurice S. Watson, phone 186, Parkdale, Ore. Located 1 mile south of Hood River on Loop Highway.

FOR SALE: 8 weeks old purebred Cocker Spaniel pup. Call Mary Nichols, 29F6, Moro. 24-6 pd

CHURCHES

Moro Christian Science Society: Church services are held every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The Wednesday evening service includes testimonies of Christian Science healings. The reading room in the rear of the church is open daily, with an attendant before and following the Wednesday evening service. All authorized Christian Science literature is for sale. The public is invited to all church services and to make use of the reading room.

Moro Community Church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Classes for all ages. Chester Smith, superintendent. 11 a. m. Morning Worship. Sesquicentennial of our American Constitution. The local Masonic lodge will attend in a body as our special guests for this occasion. Sermon by the pastor on the theme, "The Price of Liberty." Junior Church during church hour. 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor meeting led by Miss Lois Melzer on the subject, "What Should a Church Member Do?" 8 p. m. Evening worship and sermon by the pastor.

Moro Full Gospel Assembly: Special services Saturday, April 29, at 7 p. m. preceded by open air meeting. Speaker will be Pastor Wm. F. Freeman from The Dalles. Sunday, April 30th Evening service 7 p. m. Subject: "Does Jesus Christ Still Raise the Dead? Jesus' Daughter in 1934 Authentic Instance of Restoration To Life." Evelyn Enderby, Minister.

Grass Valley First Baptist Church: 10 a. m. Bible school. Come and enjoy the study of the life of the Apostle Paul with us. 11 a. m. Morning worship. In a series of messages on "Modern Isms and the Bible" the third will be "Russellism (Jehovah's Witnesses) and the Bible." 6:45 p. m. B. Y. P. U. with Grace Zevly as the leader. 7:30 p. m. "Hour around the fireside" with Mrs. Sam Stary in charge of the opening variety program and a "Quiet talk about doing our part." 8:00 p. m. Thursday - Prayer and Bible study at the parsonage "Christ does not promise to make us better, but to make us anew." Anon. Gerald C. Dryden, Pastor.

Wasco Methodist Church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Text "Along Memory's Road." The service will be in keeping with the 150th anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington. The Masonic and Eastern Star lodges will be on hand next Sunday morning to honor the "Father of our Nation." Special music. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

F. L. Cannell, pastor. Grass Valley Methodist church: The Masonic and Eastern Star lodges will attend the afternoon service at the Grass Valley M. E. church on Sunday, April 30th at 2:30. The service will be in keeping with the 150th Anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington. Special music, instrumental and vocal, will be furnished by Grass Valley and Wasco. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

DANCE

Ausnice Three Links Club Grass Valley, Oregon

Saturday, May 6

Music by The Dalles Swing Club

Admission 75c

Humming Bird Hosiery - Sheer Semi-Sheer, Service. Buster Brown Shoe Store The Dalles. 22-28

Films Developed FREE

You Pay for GOOD PRINTS Only. Enlargement with each roll developed. Moro Pharm.

A. W. McLEOD Dealer in Calkin Weeders, Treaters

Used Weeders FRYFYTER EQUIPMENT

Moro, Oregon Phone 454

Grass Valley Declamatory Try Outs Held

The local declamatory contest was held at the school house Tuesday afternoon. The first division which includes the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades, first place was taken by Herman Peters, Anna Huhman second, and James Hartley third; in the second division which includes the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, first place was won by Phyllis Oestreich, Eileen Lemley received second place and Leroy Spoo third.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Oestreich and family, Estel Hartley and son Harry, and Dick Rechman were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilt were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blake in Moro Thursday evening.

Arden Squire made a business trip to Portland Sunday. Kendrick Dunlap was a visitor in The Dalles Saturday.

John Reckman went to Warm Springs to take Henry Patjens to Kelo, where he will stay with his sister, Mrs. Dick Patjens.

Jean Powell spent the week end at Corvallis, visiting her sister, Betty.

Art Bibby and children accompanied by his mother went to Cornelius Saturday where Mrs. Bibby will stay with her brother.

Jake Eslinger and his father, Bob Eslinger, were visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mrs. George Wilcox and sons were The Dalles visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Spoor and family were visitors at Wasco Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker arrived from Gresham Monday evening to remain several weeks looking after business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Spoor and daughter were visitors in The Dalles Thursday.

Mrs. Arch Cantrall and Mrs. Ted Everett were visitors in The Dalles Thursday.

Mrs. Tom Alley entertained the Grass Valley bridge club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Those honored with high scores were Mrs. Arden Squire for guest and Mrs. A. F. Balzer for club.

Bruce Alley, now working in

GEORGE G. UPDEGRAFF

Attorney At Law Moro and Wasco

Wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the aid given us and for the kind expressions of sympathy at the time of the death of our husband and father.

Mrs. Lillie Nunn and children.

TIRE PRICE REDUCTION

20 percent off List on all Tires & Tubes in Stock

Liberal Allowance on Good used Tires

FOSS & CO.

Moro Oregon

DO YOU NEED INSURANCE?

I represent three of the best Old Line Companies

Fire Insurance on Buildings and Furniture

Fire and Hail Insurance on Growing Grain

Automobile Insurance

Surety Bonds

S. W. Searcy

Moro, Oregon

Burns, spent last week end visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Adams of Hood River were callers here Friday.

Word was received here by Mrs. Trimble, that Abe Tillson's son John had suffered a stroke and was in a Pendleton hospital. The Tillson's were former residents here.

Ernest Blaylock and V. B. Eskin took a business trip around the Heppner country Friday.

P. N. Lemmon of Albany was a visitor here one day last week.

Mrs. Raleigh Nunn and sons returned to their home at Sweet Home Sunday after spending the week end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Amelia Peterson.

Mrs. Marion Van Metre and Mrs. Ben Leghorn went to The Dalles Monday, where Mrs. Leghorn remained under a doctor's care.

Kenneth Green, B. B. King and Lighted Wilde motored to Toppenish, Washington Friday on business.

Mrs. A. M. Nelson of Moro visited with Mrs. Glenn Karnes on Monday.

Ted Nelson, groom from the R. G. Stewart stables at Camarillo, California, selected two Percheron fillies from the Rolfe herd this week, shipping them south to be fitted for the draft-horse show at Corvallis, visiting her sister, Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Peterson of Bend attended the funeral of Mr. Nunn here Wednesday, returning home the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Payne took their daughter Leone to The Dalles to consult a doctor as to whether she had scarlet fever. The next day it was said she had the fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling and Mrs. J. S. Newcomb were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

Roy Wells went to The Dalles Thursday to bring his son David home from a hospital where he has been recovering from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Ted Everett and Mr. and Mrs. John Hays went to The Dalles Friday, where Mr. and Mrs. Hays remained to visit their daughters, Mrs. Roy Feely and Mrs. Arch Zahner, and families. Mrs. Everett visited a dentist while there.

Lou Clark and wife will leave Saturday night for Detroit, Michigan where they will take delivery of a new car and drive back thru the middle western states with it. They expect to be gone until the middle of May.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson expect to leave Tuesday by train for Detroit, Mich., where they will take delivery of a new car and motor to Tennessee to visit a few days, enroute to New York to take in the World's Fair at that place, coming west by the southern route to see the San Francisco fair, before returning home in May.

Lester Wilson drove to The Dalles Friday and will remain in a hospital for a few days for treatment for infection of the ears.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson were dinner guests at the L. W. Amick home Sunday.

J. L. Davis and R. Abell motored to Fossil Saturday where they attended Masonic lodge initiation that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Amick and J. C. Wilson attended grave side services at Grass Valley Wednesday for Raleigh Nunn.

John Wilson sold two truck loads of cattle to Chas. Belshie at Grass Valley Friday.

J. E. Norton, Arthur Justesen, J. C. Wilson and John Wilson were business visitors at Grass Valley Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McGlasson spent the week end in The Dalles.

Mrs. L. Sather surprised her husband Sunday, April 23, on his birthday anniversary by inviting

Former Kent Man To Teach At Powellhurst

Word has been received here that Lyle V. Hogue, who has been a successful teacher at Oakland the past ten years, will teach at the Powellhurst school in Portland this year. Lyle, a former Kent resident and son of Mrs. B. A. Hogue, received his grade and high school education at Kent and teachers training at Monmouth normal school. He also teaches industrial arts to both grade and high school pupils.

Elmer Sycet of Redmond was an over night visitor here with his children at the home of Mrs. B. A. Hogue.

Luther Warren Devine was in Portland over the week end attending dental care.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson of Bend were dinner guests at the J. C. Wilson home Sunday. They were accompanied home by their son George, who had been visiting his grand parents for a week.

Frances and Deloris Greig were all day visitors in The Dalles Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson expect to leave Tuesday by train for Detroit, Mich., where they will take delivery of a new car and motor to Tennessee to visit a few days, enroute to New York to take in the World's Fair at that place, coming west by the southern route to see the San Francisco fair, before returning home in May.

Lester Wilson drove to The Dalles Friday and will remain in a hospital for a few days for treatment for infection of the ears.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson were dinner guests at the L. W. Amick home Sunday.

J. L. Davis and R. Abell motored to Fossil Saturday where they attended Masonic lodge initiation that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Amick and J. C. Wilson attended grave side services at Grass Valley Wednesday for Raleigh Nunn.

John Wilson sold two truck loads of cattle to Chas. Belshie at Grass Valley Friday.

J. E. Norton, Arthur Justesen, J. C. Wilson and John Wilson were business visitors at Grass Valley Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McGlasson spent the week end in The Dalles.

Mrs. L. Sather surprised her husband Sunday, April 23, on his birthday anniversary by inviting the following guests to a twelve o'clock dinner in his honor. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Miller and son Lewis, Mrs. Kenneth Sather and daughter Helene and Helen Sather of Moro; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox and son Don and Cassie Holmes of Grass Valley; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Guyton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank von Borstel and son Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthes, Mr. and Mrs. Theo von Borstel and daughter Margarita, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrow, R. Abell, Charles Bothwell, Eva Miller and Marian Gittings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson and son Dick were dinner guests at the George Wilson home Sunday.

Sammie and Mary Lyons, and Grace and Dorothy Cratty visited Eleanor and Florence Hoskinson Sunday.

R. P. Barnett was a business visitor in Portland Sunday.

With Jeffrey, Jerry Wilson, Jr., Eugene Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson and daughter Connie were in Buck Hollow Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Poley of Moro was a visitor at the Kent school Monday.

Restlen Barnett returned to her home here Monday after spending several days with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barnett in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hoskinson were in Moro Saturday when Mrs. Hoskinson had some dental work attended to.

At Last Guest-Waiter, have you seen turtle soup here? I have never tasted it in my life.

Manager of Restaurant-In that case we have some

ZEIGLERS' the Grass Valley Quality Store

for Groceries that Satisfy Clothes that Wear and for the general satisfaction of trading where stocks are largest and quality guaranteed this old and reliable store merits Your Attention

Grass Valley Theatre

FRIDAY and SATURDAY APRIL 28 and 29 DOUBLE FEATURE

SUNDAY and MONDAY APRIL 30 and MAY 1

"Rhythm of the Saddle" "The Higgins Family"

Clark Gable - Myrna Loy

LOW COST

AUTO FINANCING

PERSONAL AND FHA HOME LOANS AND LOANS FOR OTHER NEEDS!

Any of 42 Branches

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND

THE LEADER IN OREGON IN FINANCING THE CREDIT REQUIREMENTS OF TRADE, COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION