Grass Valley High School Class Ends Work

The class of 1939 graduated May 24, in the high school gym. Rev. R. A. Hutchinson gave the address, his theme being the three "V's": Vision, Volition and Venture. This is the ninth time Rev. Hutchinson has been Commencement speaker.

Jane French was Salutatorian and Lois Melzer and Dean Pinkerton were Valedictorians. Musical numbers were rendered by the seventh and eighth graders. Audrey Baker, Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin and the High School Girls Chorus.

Mr. Cunliff gave a summary of the class's high school work and also awarded the cups and trophies. Harry Kunsman awarded the diplomas.

Winners of the awards were: Bucholtz athletic cup, Robert Christianson; Firemen athletic cup, Jane French; McKee best scholarship plaque, Lois Melzer and Audrey Baker, tied; Second scholarship plaque Wyman French; best class for scholarship, Sophomore; probabl success plaque, Jane French; scholarship to O.S.C. Dean Pinkerton; to P. U. Lois Melzer.

Sunday evening May 21, the class had its Baccalaureate address at the church. Rev. Hansen's theme being, "A Study in Values."

The high school went to Vinto for its picnic May 19. The Juniors and Seniors left about 5:30 so as to arrive in time for breakfast, which was prepared by the Juniors. The day was spent in boating and mountain climbing.

The Seniors were entertained by their parents May 17, in the church basement, with a banquet where they heard the class prophecy, will and history read by members of the class. Talks were given by parents, teachers and friends of the class. Also a very amusing song was given by a group of the parents.

A street concert was given by the band May 18, in the Christensen Garage before a large group of townsmen and country people. It was the last appearance of the high school band as a separate unit.

The faculty and students wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all those who had a part in helping with our Commencement program.
