

Moro Boy Seriously Ill In Hospital

Harold Melzer is in the Mid-Columbia hospital with a kidney ailment. He has been very ill but is now feeling better according to reports. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Melzer.

Mrs. Ed Race of Bingen came Saturday to remain a few days with her mother, Mrs. Emma Sayers.

Byron Peetz and wife and Tom McAdams and wife of Portland came Friday night from Portland to visit with Byron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Peetz and to do a bit of fishing.

Miss Alma Eslinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Eslinger, has been chosen as Goddess of Liberty for the Fourth of July celebration at Hillsboro.

Miss Bonnie Peters went to Hood River Tuesday to visit with her aunt who lives there.

The Jolly Dozen card club went to Warco last Friday to meet with Mrs. Maud Akers. Mrs. Omer Sayers won club prize and Mrs. Seval Searcy was winner of the guest prize.

Mrs. Roy Norene came Sunday from Portland to spend a week or so with Mrs. M. G. Melzer, who returned the same day from attending the Henkle reunion at Corvallis.

Lloyd Hennagin and family left Thursday for Seaside to spend the holidays along the coast.

Mrs. Kate Hansen has been quite ill from high blood pressure at the home of her son in law, Ralph Brisbane.

Miss Ethel Kee, former resident of Grass Valley was married Sunday in Portland to Fletcher Milton. They will live in Portland.

E. R. Fatland and County Agent William Marshall were here Monday for a brief visit.

A meeting was held Wednesday of the Farmer's Elevator company directors and stockholders.

Wily Knight and family went to Antelope Sunday to view the display of petrified rocks at agates gathered by Guy Comp who has made a hobby of his collection. Mrs. Lucy Ruzicki accompanied them and they all picnicked at the Brogan home.

Wednesday was the first day of the year that was really warm and shirt sleeved men sat on the curb in the shade and wondered what was happening to the wheat or the hillsides.

Marion McKee and family left Sunday for Seaside to spend the week the latter part of which will be taken up with the drugists' convention at Gearhart.

Wily Knight and family arrived in Salem this week where he is taking part in the annual meeting of county school superintendents.

Mr. and Mrs. Gies French left Thursday afternoon for Timberline to attend the convention of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, formerly Pat Pence, who helped start the original Sally mae Beauty shop in Moro, visited here Friday with her former partner, Mrs. Marius Douma. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhodes, who was Violet Binder.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henderson were in Pendleton and Hermiston Tuesday to Thursday of last week. Mrs. Ferne Gentry is here from Yuba City, California for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams returned from Portland on Monday where Mr. Williams was under treatment for five days, at the St. Vincent Hospital. He is much improved but has been instructed to continue the treatment at his own home, and report by the middle of next month.

Gus Wayson of Rufus paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice Mee, June 21 on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

Jean Essom, a cousin of Mrs. Marius Douma, who has been visiting here for the past month was taken to Vernonia Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Douma who visited over the week end.

Paul May and family were in Hood River Sunday to see his mother who is recuperating at the home of a sister there.

Mrs. Arthur Bucholtz entertained Thursday evening of last week for players at three tables.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of Pendleton and their children were here this week with Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Reese.

A nine pound son was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Belshe at The Dalles hospital.

Lloyd Hennagin and family were at Northwestern lake Saturday night and Sunday to attend the annual reunion of members of his family. All of the first Hennagin family who came to this county were present and many of the second generation.

It is very probable that harvesting in Sherman county will begin this week as both A. G. Futter and Wes Fuller are about ready to start machines on their ranches at the point east of Hay Canyon.

Cutting of barley will begin shortly and after the Fourth harvesting will be general in the north end of the county where grain is practically ready except for a few warm days to give it the final leavine.

Richard Barnes and "shadow" Thogerson arrived Thursday morning to spend the harvest season in Sherman county.

CHURCHES

Moro Community Church, Sunday, July 2, 10:00 - Sunday school, New Quarter - Character Studies for summer months, Chester Smith Superintendent. 11:00: Morning Worship - Quarterly Communion Service - Opportunity for children's baptism and reception of members. Solo by Mr. Allen Fraser. Sermon theme, "Sincere Stumbling Blocks." No evening meetings until further announcement.

Henry G. Hanson, Pastor

Moro Christian Science Society, Sunday morning service begins at eleven o'clock. Subject of the sermon for July 2 is "Christian Science." The reading room is in the rear of the church building open daily with an attendant on Wednesday evening. All are invited to the services and to make use of the reading room.

Wesley Methodist Church, Sunday school at 10 a. m. Classes for all ages. Preaching services at 11 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. F. L. Cannell, pastor

Hosiery mending. Buster Brown Shoe Store, The Dalles. 26-29

Classified Ads

WANTED: small band of shirt. Will pay cash. Maurice S. Walton, Parkdale, Ore. 34-37

WANTED: Grain to cut. New John Deere Combine. Can start immediately. Will use your tractor. Call at Journal office. 34-61

RELIABLE MAN WANTED to call on farmers in Sherman county. No experience or capital required. Steady work. MAKE up to $12 a day. FURST & THOMAS, 426 - 3rd St., Oakland, Calif.

FOR SALE: Cedar 7-ft posts, 14 ft. posts, poles, and 16-inch fir wood on highway 14 miles south of Hood River. M. S. Walton, Parkdale, Ore. Phone 186. 32-34

ORDERS RECEIVED by 15th of July will obtain reduced rates on pine and oak wood cut to order. Write Bernard Newton Dufur. 32-34 p

FOR SALE: or Trade for cheap team: Letz Hay chopper with grain grinding attachment. Tom Coyle, Grass Valley. p 33

Grass Valley Odd-Fellows Picnic At Dufur

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and their families enjoyed a picnic at Dufur park Sunday. Foot races, sack races, three legged races, jumping rope and soft ball games were played every one taking part and having a good time. A bountiful basket dinner was enjoyed at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox and sons were visitors in The Dalles Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker accompanied by Doris Newcomb left Sunday for their home at Gresham after a weeks stay here on business. Doris will visit her sister, and family Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Weld in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kock and family and Mrs. Estel Hartley and son Harry went to Roseburg Thursday to visit Mrs. Kock's sister and family.

Dell Olds and daughter Betty Lou and Lewis Olds motored to The Dalles Monday where Lewis went to consult a doctor.

The Pre-school conference was held Tuesday in the Odd Fellows hall where Dr. C. L. Polev examined seventeen children assisted by Miss Katherine Moran, Mrs. A. F. Ritzer, Mrs. C. A. Oestrich, Mrs. Art Bibby, Mrs. Arzell Lombard and Mildred Allen also helped with the children and records.

Mrs. Dell Olds entertained the Moro Grass Valley bridge club at her home Monday afternoon. Games passed with high scores. Mrs. Tom Allev, high; Mrs. Edna Moore second, and Mrs. Walburga received the guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunlap and daughter Anita left Friday for Yamhill to visit her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Haynes en route to the coast where they will visit until after the Fourth.

Frank Lemley was a visitor in The Dalles Tuesday.

Oscar Adams and G. L. Benson of Hood River were callers here Thursday.

Gus Engstrom is having the front part of his house remodeled, with Henry Roth doing the work. Ben Lezhorn and daughter Ruth Ann were in The Dalles Saturday to visit Mrs. L. zhorn in the Dalles hospital.

Tillie Wassenmiller and girl friend of Portland visited at the home of her sister Mrs. Dean Olds and family on Monday. They also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wassenmiller.

John Hays was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening after the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge, when the Odd Fellows were invited to help celebrate his 82nd birthday anniversary. Later in the evening ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. Roy Schilling entertained the junior bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Eben Kee received the club prize and Mrs. Ed Alley received the guest prize.

E. M. Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alley and daughter Lila Lee and Cliff Quincy were visitors in The Dalles Tuesday.

The Grass Valley base ball team motored to Parkdale Sunday where the game ended in a tie 17-17.

Cliff Quincy, Earl Olds and daughter Dorothy and Mildred Alley were visitors in The Dalles Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Oestreich and family and Dorothy Ball motored to Portland Saturday taking their daughter and Dorothy to the dentist.

Edwin Peters returned from Heppner Monday. Emma Ellen

Fortner returned with him after several days visit there with relatives.

Mrs. Arch Cantrall and son Mrs. Kendrick Dunlap and Emma Ellen Fortner were in Moro Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Feely of The Dalles spent the week end here visiting relatives.

Lighton Fields and Vernal Teschner were business visitors in Hood River Thursday.

Art Bibby was a visitor in The Dalles Friday.

Mrs. R. A. Stow left Saturday by stage for Hood River to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schmidt and family.

Mrs. Charles Lemley entertained the Grass Valley bridge club at her home Wednesday afternoon with high scores going to Mrs. Dell Olds and Mrs. R. J. Baker, and Mrs. Herman Schilling received the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hutchcroft and family of Milwaukie arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley Saturday. Mr. Hutchcroft returned home Sunday and Mrs. Hutchcroft and the children remained for a weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling had as guests Saturday and Sunday the latter's sister, Mrs. Fred Cronk of Aberdeen, Washington, and Mrs. Cronk's daughter, Mrs. George Jorgensen, and Mr. Jorgensen and family from Yakima, Washington.

Mrs. Maud Garrett and friend of Bend spent last Tuesday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Davis and Mr. Davis.

Ted Everett, Henry Peters and Ed Alley were business visitors in Moro Thursday.

Mrs. Don Spith entertained friends Saturday afternoon in honor of the second birthday anniversary of her son Larry. Those present included Barbara and Jennie Baylock, Buddie L. zhorn, Keith Barnett, Lois Ann Everett, Stephen and Janice Bibby and Robert Fortner, with their mothers.

Clyde Davis was a business visitor in Portland the first part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMurray and family of Portland arrived Tuesday to visit her brother, Ted Trimble and wife.

Mrs. Don Clodfelter and Mrs. Art Bibby were joint hostesses Friday afternoon when the Book Worm club met at the home of the former, with nine members present. Mrs. Tom Allev gave a book review on "Set in Silver" by Williamson.

Among the shoppers and business visitors in The Dalles Friday were Sam Stark and son Harry; Bill Reinert, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Helver; Mrs. Ed Alley and daughter Lila Lee; Virginia Helyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Roy Baker and family; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling and son Robert; Mrs. R. J. Baker, Mr. Newcomb and daughter Doris, Helen Fortner and R. J. Baker.

Teacher—Lizzie, who was Francis Drake? Lizzie—a friend of Donald Duck.

So They Can Like the Men One day when walking up and down with Orville Dewey, Washington Irving said to him, "Don't be anxious about the education of your daughter; they will do very well; don't teach them so many things—teach them one thing." "What is it?" he was asked. "Teach them to be easily pleased."—Edinburg Dispatch.

Films Developed FREE You Pay for GOOD PRINTS Only Enlargement with each roll developed. Moro Pharmacy

Grass Valley Theater

FRIDAY and SATURDAY June 30 and July 1 "Pacific Liner" Chester Morris Victor McLaglen

SUNDAY and MONDAY July 2 and 3 "Gunga Din" Victor McLaglen Cary Grant Douglas Fairbanks Jr.

ZEIGLERS' the Grass Valley Quality Store

for Groceries that Satisfy Clothes that Wear and for the general satisfaction of trading where stocks are largest and quality guaranteed this old and reliable store merits Your Attention

Kent Grange Honors Departing Morrow Family

A party was given at the grange hall Saturday evening, June 24 by grange members, friends and neighbors as a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrow. The Morrrows have lived at Kent for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow have served several years as secretary and treasurer of the Kent grange. The evening was spent in playing cards and visiting. After refreshments were served, the Morrrows were presented with a gift from the grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKay left Saturday for Coquille where they will visit friends until after the 4th of July.

Mrs. Grace Gregg and Dolores were dinner guests at the L. W. Amick home Sunday.

Hugh Hoskinson left last week for Pendleton, where he is visiting relatives, and will work in the pea fields for a time.

Nellie and Lester Wilson and Robert Mitchell were dinner guests at the J. L. Davis home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank von Borstel and son Jack, Mrs. Carston von Borstel and Mrs. J. E. Norton left Sunday morning for San Francisco where they plan to spend a week seeing the Golden Gate Fair. Mrs. Norton will visit her daughter Mrs. Donald Welch while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howell and children of The Dalles were night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrow Saturday. The Morrrows accompanied the Howells to The Dalles and will spend several days there, looking for a location.

Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mrs. W. Hejser and J. C. Wilson attended the funeral of Mrs. Edgar Taylor at Tygh Valley Saturday at 2 p. m. The Taylors and Wilsons are cousins.

J. S. Fritts and J. C. Wilson were business visitors at Moro and Grass Valley Tuesday.

Evelyn Davis visited her parents here, from The Dalles over the week end.

Harry Howell and Marion Morrow motored to Independence last Friday. They returned Sunday accompanied by Helen Kneal and Julia Rhodes who will spend several days here at the G. W. Howell home.

Kent folks in The Dalles Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton and daughters Carol and Geraldine and son Ross, Nellie Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrow and son Joe, Mr. and Mrs. L. Sather and daughter Leona and Mrs. Millie von Borstel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. MacInnes were business visitors at Moro Wednesday.

Mrs. E. M. Perry and Mrs. Kingsley Allen of Portland were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis and son Luther Warren and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson and daughter Nellie motored to Moro Thursday evening taking a well prepared dinner to surprise Mrs. Ida Davis, mother of Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Davis, on her 66th birthday anniversary. Evelyn Davis came up from The Dalles, and was also present for the occasion.

Mrs. Mulcahy—An' why did yez keep Mickey in after school? Teacher—I asked him who George Washington was, and he only stood and ooked at me.

Mrs. Mulcahy—It's dumbfounded the b'y was at yer ignorance, likely.

Read the ads in the Journal

Reach your own by TELEPHONE

When the family is scattered, a daily "telephone date" means everything. Especially attractive are the night rates (7 p.m. to 4:30 a.m.) and all day Sundays between most Long Distance points.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

How did you learn men shaved with electricity?

Chances are you read it in an advertisement. It is a common and approved method of giving information about a product.

You know the price of flour or the admission to the next dance from reading an advertisement. Those merchants whose store is known, whose prices are known, whose services are known, achieve that position through advertising.

In Sherman County there is one economical and sure means of telling prospective purchasers about merchandise. It is

The Sherman County Journal

Automobile Insurance Reduction

I can give a reduction in bodily injury and property damage automobile insurance as high as 40 per cent. Insure with reliable, tested old line insurance companies.

Joe Truitt
Agent For: Aetna, Loyalty Group, Home Indemnity