

Many Morosites Take Vacations In Far Places

End of the harvest season and the fact that there are two world's fairs in the United States has caused a big number of Sherman county residents to places of amusement or rest or recreation. With farm work well in hand until the fall rains start, August is a good month to take a vacation and many are doing so.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Powell, accompanied by their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Parkins and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McKean, left Thursday for the New York fair. The McKean's will return by way of Detroit where they will pick up a truck and car and the other members of the party will come back by the southern route.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Overton left Wednesday morning with their children on their way to Casle Lake, Utah where they will visit a month with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Landry, Arnold Landry and Miss Jean Gotten left Thursday for San Francisco where they will visit the fair and see other sights in California.

Wes Fuller and family left Wednesday for a trip to Crater Lake, the Oregon caves, Los Angeles and the San Francisco fair.

Misses Rachel Poley and Reatha Sayrs accompanied Miss Virginia Helyer and Miss Margaret Trabue on a trip to Astoria, Seaside, Marshfield and on down the coast to the San Francisco fair, leaving Monday. They expect to be gone for a couple of weeks.

A. C. Thompson and wife are leaving for Rockaway Saturday to spend a few days where the breezes are cool.

Earle Shipley, who has filled the pulpit at the Moro Community church for the past two Sundays, will preach at Grass Valley next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conlee, Marjorie Knusman and Bob Marvin returned Wednesday evening from a week at Occasnde.

A dance will be given at the Harland View Grange the night of August 18th. Members may invite friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Sayrs and daughter, Mary, left Thursday for a few days vacation at the Oregon beaches and in Portland.

Joe Belanger returned from Morrow and Umatilla counties this week to continue his experiments here and correlate them with information obtained from other counties.

Mrs. Elva Bryant and son Harold and family arrived Wednesday evening from Hood River to remain a day or two on business.

R. G. Cunliff and family came up from Portland last week to spend a few days working on school matters. He will go to Hood River to be with his mother a couple of weeks before moving back for the winter.

Paul Burnett was returned to Pendleton by attendants Tuesday morning after he had returned to Wasco upon escaping from a hospital there.

County Attorney T. Lester Johnson returned from a trip to Idaho and Montana where he went to obtain information about the men who are thought to be responsible for the murder of Dewey Barrel here last fall.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk last week to Murray Graham Walker of Ephrata, Washington and Augusta Christine Huckin of Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Wily Knighten and children left Wednesday for Portland and Salem where they will attend the annual state Legion and Auxiliary convention. Mr. Knighten is a district commander this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnston are in Salem this week to visit with Mr. Johnson's mother and attend the Legion convention to which he is a delegate. The public welfare committee will meet Friday for the first time for all of the members to be together. Dewey Thompson is a new member who has not been officially seated. Judge George Potter is the new chairman.

Art Barnum was brought from the hospital Monday feeling much improved from his recent heart attack. He will remain in bed for a month or more at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McLeod were in Portland over Sunday on business.

The work of rebuilding the corrals in the hog and sheep barn is going on this week with E. Amidon in charge of the saw and hammer.

Checking compliance on Sherman county farms will begin Monday, August 20, at which time all farmers who have completed their compliance can be checked. For those who still have to seed grass compliance will be delayed until seeding can be completed.

J. R. Kaseberg was up from Portland this week to look after his business affairs in this county.

Member of the Wasco bridge met at a no-host luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Moro Hotel and later adjourned to Mrs. Poley's home for an afternoon at cards.

It is with the most grateful appreciation that we thank our many Sherman County friends for their thoughtful generosity to us in our recent fire.

It is a difficult thing to stand by and see all the intimate accumulations of a home become only a memory, in one short half hour.

Your kindness has helped us immeasurably, to accept our loss and start again. Our sincere hope for each of you is, that you may be spared this experience. Thank you Friends.
