

Moro Man Attends Funeral Of Brother

John Foss and wife left early Sunday morning for Freewater on getting information that A. A. Foss, Mr. Foss' brother, was seriously ill. He died a few minutes before they arrived and was buried Tuesday at Athena where he had lived nearly all of his life, coming there in 1884 when but ten years old. He is survived by his widow, John and one-at Terrebonne.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McKinney of Portland spent Sunday visiting with Mrs. McKenney's aunt, Mrs. Jessie Henrichs, returning home that evening.

Wayne Akers and family were here Wednesday while returning to Eugene from a vacation trip spent at Victoria, B. C. He is a brother of Mrs. Lloyd Hennagin.

Wily Knight and family drove to Portland Friday. Wily entered the Veteran's hospital to have an examination and receive treatment and the family returned to Moro Sunday.

Several families from here made up a picnic party Sunday going to Mosier for the day. The Martin Melzer, Pinkerton, Dewey Thompson, Dean Reynolds, Bob Henderson, Peetz and Fresh families, Jean Brisbane and Carrol Bennett were in the party.

Little Louis Peetz returned to Moro Sunday after having spent the past three weeks in Portland with his mother.

J. B. Adams left last week for Portland from where he and his family went to San Francisco for the fair. He expects to be gone for two weeks.

Miss Laura Whalley is here to visit with relatives. Her home is in Portland.

Darwin Van Gilder and wife drove to Tygh Valley Saturday to do their weeks fishing and visit with Mr. and Mrs. Zene Watkins, Mrs. Van Gilder's sister and brother in law.

See Dr. Curry the Seattle Optometrist at Hotel Moro Thursday, Sept. 7, for Better Fitted Glasses to Relieve Eye Strain and Headaches. Charges Reasonable. Many years experience examining eyes and fitting glasses. At Wasco on Friday, September 8th.

W. F. McLeod is recovering from a bad burn he received when the water heater in the hotel blew up as he opened the door. One side of his face was scorched and one ear burned.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barnum arrived Friday afternoon from Dayton, Washington to visit over the week end with relatives and friends. They went on to Corvallis Monday to get their furniture.

Stated Communication of Eureka Lodge No. 121, A. F. — A. M. Thursday evening, September 7th, all members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Kenneth Sather visited her parents in Condon last week.

The annual Sherman county picnic was held in Laurelhurst park in Portland last Sunday with several families from here going down to meet the many old time residents who live in Portland and arrange the get-together each August, the last Sunday in that month being the usual date.

Elmer Barzee and son went down to Newport last week and to see his parents who are living there until the fall rains begin.

Mrs. Vic Barr and Ferrel drove to Harper, to spend the week end with Vic, who is foreman of the CCC camp near that town.

The Schadewitz and Truitt families were at the Schadewitz summer home back of Wemic last week end.

The girl scout meeting this week included a trip to The Dalles to view the show "Wizard of Oz."

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin jr., are away this week taking a vacation visiting Willamette valley points where relatives reside.

A band made up of young people went to The Dalles Thursday to play during the first day of the Frolics and to march in the parade. Several members of the Sherman County Fair, Sept. 15-16-17.

Breakfast club were also in the parade.

W. J. Martin is selling his farm equipment at his place south of town on Saturday, September 9.

George Updegraff returned Sunday night from San Francisco, California where he had attended the meeting of national tile men.

Ramsey Schadewitz received word from Mrs. W. B. Powell that they were then in Rhode Island on their way to tour New England and go into Canada. Mr. and Mrs. McKean are expected home soon while the others in the party will return by the southern route.

Harry Kunsman and daughter, Marjori, drove to Gilest to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tomlin.

Vernon Flatt and family returned home Saturday from San Francisco and the fair, reporting a very good time and a well worth seeing exhibit.

Mrs. C. P. Adams cut her left hand severely this week with an axe between the thumb and finger and also on the fore finger. No serious complications have developed and it is thought she will retain the use of her fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Sayers left Sunday for Portland to visit relatives there going on to Beaverton to visit their daughter, Mrs. Ross Hart.

M. A. Bull and wife returned Sunday from Camp Sherman where they had been for a month.

Mrs. L. L. Peetz was hostess last Friday to the members of the Jolly Dozen card club. Mrs. E. E. Barnum won the club prize and Mrs. C. L. Poley the guest prize for the afternoon's play.

Mrs. Vashti Stragilis, who has been cooking at the Moro Hotel for nearly two years, has left that position and leased the Sherman Hotel at Wasco which she will operate as manager.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schilling left last week for San Francisco to see the Golden Gate fair.

Dr. Poley will attend the meeting of the county health officers association in Portland Friday and Saturday of this week.

CHURCHES

Moro Community Church: Sunday, September 3, 1939. 10 a. m., Sunday School. 11 a. m. - Morning worship service. Special Labor Sunday message: "In the Image of God," or "The Man With Hoe." 7:30 - The young people are cordially invited to the manse for an informal discussion on the theme: "Thinking Creatively."

Promotion and Rally Services are being planned for the Sunday School on the morning of Sunday, September 10. September is rallying time in all departments of the church. All are urged to cooperate that the church may function effectively.

Henry G. Hanson, Pastor.

Wasco Methodist Church: Sunday School at 10 a. m. Morning Worship at 11 a. m. The pastor will preach at the Grass Valley Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

F. L. Cannell, Pastor.

Grass Valley First Baptist Church: 10 a. m., Bible School. J. S. Fritts, Supt. 11 a. m., Worship Service. It is hoped that we shall have some out-of-town special music for this service. The pastor will speak on "The Burning Heart" 7 p. m., Baptist Young Peoples Union. 8 p. m. Cozy Home Hour—Directed by Shelton and Vivian Fritts. 2 p. m., Tuesday - Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Maude Garrett. 3 p. m., Thursday - Prayer meeting at the parsonage.

Gerald C. Dryden, Pastor.

Moro Christian Science Society: Church services are held every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The Wednesday evening meeting includes testimonies of Christian Science healings. The reading room of this society is located in the rear of the church building, where all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The public is cordially invited to the church services and to make use of the reading room.

T. Lester Johnson

LAWYER

WASCO MORO

GO PENDLETON ROUND-UP
September 13-14-15-16
LOW RAIL FARES
UNION PACIFIC

Reunion Held At Beacon Rock By G. V. Family

The Newcomb family reunion and picnic was held Sunday, August 27, at Beacon Rock, Washington. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newcomb and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newcomb and family of Camas, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newcomb and family of Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Morris and family of Orchards, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Weld and family of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Logan of Oakland, California; Mrs. Moreo Canavero and son of Los Gatos, California; and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Newcomb and Doris.

E. M. Helyer went to The Dalles Saturday for medical aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Engstrom returned Wednesday from a trip to the coast.

R. J. Baker and Gus Engstrom were business visitors in Moro Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley and sons Frank and Oscar left for the coast on a vacation trip Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alley and daughter Mildred returned Sunday from their vacation trip to California, to see the world's fair saying it was well worth seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cook of Nova Scotia and Mr. and Mrs. John Brogan of Antelope spent Tuesday at Crater Lake.

Among the visitors in The Dalles Tuesday from here were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alley, Edgar Alley, Mr. and Mrs. Don Clodfelter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley, Gerald Dryden, Kenneth Todd, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Eakin and daughter Ellen, and Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Fritts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clark, who have been helping with the harvest at the Grover Young home left for Bend Tuesday to visit his sister before returning to their home at Dallesport, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alley and family and Lila Lee Alley returned home Thursday from a vacation to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker returned to their home at Gresham Friday after spending several weeks here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kock and children and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunlap attended the Gresham Fair Saturday returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brinkert and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rolfe attended the Gresham Fair Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Olds and daughter Betty Lou went to Gresham to visit Mr. and Mrs. Arden Squire and to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McGinnis arrived from Likely, California Thursday to visit their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cantrall and their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Dunlap, before going to their home at Nyssa. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jones of Medras were here visiting Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cook arrived here Thursday from Nova Scotia to visit the Sam Holmes family.

Ina Mae Ziegler had her tonsils removed Tuesday, at Moro, by Dr. C. L. Poley, Cassie Holmes assisting.

Mrs. Millie McPherson of Cornelius is here visiting at the Sam Holmes home.

Kenneth and Lloyd Karnes returned Sunday from their vacation in Colorado and Kansas.

Mrs. Belle Ginn and Miss Evelyn Enderby of Moro spent the week end at the L. D. May home.

Mrs. Shelton Fritts entertained some friends of her son Ed at a birthday dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Glen Karnes called on Mrs. Nelson at Moro Monday evening. Mrs. Nelson is convalescing from an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Payne and daughter were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

Those who motored to Suttle Lake Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Estel Hartley and sons; Cora Bayer, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Eakin and sons and Bob Eslinger, where they met Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson and family, who drove up from Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Zahner of The Dalles were here Tuesday visiting relatives. Nelda Feely of The Dalles was also here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mathews and family of Stevenson, Washington were here Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rolfe. Frances Wells, who was visiting here, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and family spent several days in Portland this week.

Miss Virginia Helyer went to Hood River Saturday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams.

Wesley Zimmerman who has been in a boys school near Salem, is here with his father, Tom Zimmerman.

Eileen Hogue is now employed at the local telephone office.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stradley and son Clyde and daughter Doris, and Georgia Blaylock left on a trip to California Wednesday, where they will attend the Golden Gate Exposition.

Dick Huhman spent the week end in The Dalles visiting with his wife and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bruckert of The Dalles visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Payne Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cantrall and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McGinnis and daughter Viola and Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Dunlap went to Shearers bridge Sunday for a picnic dinner and to fish.

The Kent Rebekah lodge is making plans for a District Convention to be held September 9th at Kent. The President of the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Marshall will be present, says Mrs. Laura Sather, Secretary.

Films Developed FREE

You Pay for GOOD PRINTS Only Enlargement with each roll developed. Moro Pharmacy

Grass Valley Theater

FRIDAY and SATURDAY SUNDAY and MONDAY

MICKEY ROONEY

RICHARD DIX

IN

IN

"Huckleberry Finn"

"Man of Conquest"

Choose from a stock of goods that is the most complete in the county.

Buy at a price that is fairly based on quality and workmanship.

Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes to meet the needs of the community

Dependable, Quality Groceries

ZEIGLER'S Quality Store Grass Valley

Auction Sale

Saturday, September 9

at the W. J. Martin ranch, quarter of a mile south of Moro, at 2 o'clock, p. m., the first house on the left.

- 3 horses
- 2 Jersey cows
- 1 part Holstein cow with calf
- 2 yearling calves
- 5 wagons
- 2 header beds
- 1 20 hoe Superior grain drill
- 1 18 hoe Kentucky grain drill
- 2 20 ft. harrows
- 1 double disc
- 1 17 ft. buckrake
- 1 rod weeder
- 2 2 bottom 14" high lift plows
- 1 3 bottom 16" plow
- 11 sets of harness
- Miscellaneous farm equipment

Terms: Cash

W. J. Martin, Owner

"The Paris" presents

New: Sleekly Moulded DRESSES

Cleverly draped, tucked and shirred -- They're dramatic, sophisticated, NEW --- you must see them.

$7.95 to $35.00

Others as low as $4.95

Figuratively speaking the most flattering dresses you've worn. Sleek bodiced, snug waisted, in Jersey, Crepe--- Black and rich colors.

Misses---Womens

See our New Coats of all descriptions.

$12.95 up

The Paris

The Dalles, Oregon

Want Ads

FOR SALE: 2 extra good fresh milk cows; 1 matched team black geldings, 5 yrs. old; purebred O.I.C. gilts and boars; 15 purebred Hampshire ewes. Ralph Buter, Willows, Ore. pd43

RELIABLE MAN WANTED to call on farmers in Sherman County. No experience or capital required. Steady work. Make up to $12 a day. FURST & THOMAS, 462 - 3rd St., Oakland, California.

FOR SALE: 8-room house 1 Moro, full basement. Inquire Geo. G. Updegraff, Moro; or Fred Krusow, Grass Valley. tfn