Not a Court of Justice

A long haired youth entered a music publisher's office carrying under his arm a small roll of paper.

"Good afternoon," said the publisher, "what can I do for you?"

"Well—er—I have a song here," he began, "and I was wondering if you would publish it.—Er—shall I sing it?"

"Oh, yes, let's hear it," said the publisher; and the youth burst forth.

"Well," asked the young man, "what do I get for it?"

"Oh," replied the other, with an air of resignation, "I'm a publisher, not a magistrate."
