MORO SCHOOL NOTES

By Claudine Thompson

On October 31, the grade school had a Hallowe'en party in the school gym. Old Hallowe'en games with new ones added, were played by all the children and the visiting mothers also took part in the games. Cider and doughnuts were served as refreshments.

The high school had a pumpkin jack-o-lantern and some hallowe'en poetry posted in the library to remind them that it was hallowe'en.

There is both a boys and a girls volleyball game at Grass Valley this Friday. This game will be important in determining which girls will be county champions this year.

In conjunction with the Moro Masonic lodge, the Moro school is presenting a program at the school house on Saturday evening, November 4. It is to celebrate the annual anniversary of the signing of the Constitution. The public is invited and no admission fee will be charged.
