Zeigler Buys Dunlap Stock

Herman Zeigler, Grass Valley merchant with the longest experience there, has purchased the grocery stock of Kendrick Dunlap and expects to move it to his store within a week or so.

This begins a move toward consolidation of groceries in Grass Valley. Previously there were four such stores and another that carried some food stuffs. The Dunlap store has had a brief existence as it was bought about a year ago from John H. Wilt just before his death.

The voters of the country will decide next November whether they want the seven-year emergency established permanently—Sullivan, Ind.) Union.
