Every sportsman who plans to hunt this fall is urged to obtain a copy of the synopsis in order that he may be familiar with new regulations, both federal and state, now in effect.

A rather small boy asked a foreman in a shop for a job.

"What can you do sonny? Can you file smoke?" asked the foreman.

"Yes, sir, if you'll screw it in the vice for me," answered the lad. He got the job.

Game Laws Now Available

Copies of the official synopsis of the 1940 Oregon Hunting laws are now available at all Game Commission license agencies, as well as at the Portland office of the Oregon State Game Commission, 616 Oregon Building.

Printing of the synopsis was delayed somewhat awaiting the federal government's regulations on shooting of migratory birds. These regulations arrived from Washington D. C. about 10 days ago.
