

Wasco Youths Home On Furlough

Jack Hines and Danny Kaseberg, who have enlisted in the navy, arrived Tuesday of last week for a few days at home. They left Thursday of this week, Jack to attend aviation school and Danny to go to the islands. The boys were entertained at a social party with games and refreshments Thursday when Mrs. Lee Hines and Mrs. Vernon Van Gilder were co-hostesses. Students of the high school and class mates of the two, the 1940 class, were present at the Hines home.

Officers of the Annie Fulton chapter will be installed in January. They are Worthy Matron, Fern Wilde; Worthy Patron, Roy Belshee; Associate Matron, Gladys Zell; Associate Patron, William Rhodes; Secretary, Ellen Harper; Treasurer, Lydia Darby; Conductress, Isabell Haufelt; Assistant Conductor, Ida Everett.

Mrs. H. M. Zell and Mrs. Carl Everett were co-hostesses at a five-table bridge party at the home of Mrs. Everett Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Bernis Guy held high score honors. Dessert luncheon preceded cards.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Endicott left for Prineville Friday, after she had spent some weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. White.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDermid were among the guests in attendance at St. Pauls Episcopal church Sunday in The Dalles at the marriage of Miss Ardene Clemmons of Hood River and Robert Baker of The Dalles.

Mrs. Vernon Van Gilder entertained at five tables of pinocle Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hines. Mrs. Van Gilder and Ross Hilderbrand won high scores.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eaton, house guests of Mrs. E. Sisco, visited in The Dalles with relatives Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Coleman and are now in Portland visiting relatives.

The churches are uniting in a Christmas program this year. It will be held Sunday evening, December 22 at the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson and son Donnie of The Dalles were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshee.

Clarence Sparling, Lloyd Hennagin, Ray Blake and Scott Fortner of Moro came to the Roy Belshee place Sunday and accompanied Roy goose hunting.

Mrs. Ivan Gervias and daughter returned to Prineville after a weeks stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hatley.

Harry Barzee was in town Saturday from Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. McQuellin and the latter's mother, Mrs. Barzee, have moved into the house on the hill next to Frank Lamborn.

Jimmy Hilderbrand is attending St. Mary's academy in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent, instead of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Gilder, as stated in last weeks news, were among those attending the Legion and Auxiliary meeting in Hood River.

Miss Marjorie Hatley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hatley, and Harold Ireland, son of Alta Ireland, were married Friday December 6, in Goldendale in the presence of the bride's parents. The young couple are residing in Wasco.

Wasco was victorious over Dufur in both basketball games played Tuesday night.

It is reported that Max's Cafe will be reopened under the management of Ruth Moore.

Community members in attendance at the wheat league last week in Pendleton included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaseberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Root, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Proudfoot, Hugh Walker, Cecil Fields, Asa Richelderfer, Carl Everett, Joe Hilderbrand.

The annual Christmas bazaar given Saturday by the members of the Methodist church was successful. In the afternoon fancy-work, toys and used clothing were on sale. In the evening about 60 persons enjoyed the dinner and later a musical program was given in the church auditorium. Arch Gosson carried home a nice turkey won from the candy guessing contest. Over $100 was taken in from the dinner and bazaar.

At a library board meeting a new schedule of library hours was decided upon. The library will be open from 1:30 to 4 both Wednesday and Saturday of each week.

Mrs. Diebert Johnson was hostess to members of her 500 social club Friday. After dessert luncheon three tables were in play. Additional guests were Mrs. John McClure, Sarah Stalcup and Mrs. Alta Smith.

Klondike club members met with Mrs. Ernest Shull Thursday of this week. The ladies are doing charity work making a Christmas gift of a comforter to send to the Doernbecher hospital.

Mrs. T. Lester Johnson and mother, Mrs. Grosscup of Portland, were hostesses at a contract bridge party of four tables and luncheon Friday. Mrs. Everett Watkins and Mrs. Floyd Root were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Watkins spent the week end in Portland with Hazel Marie, their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clothier and daughter, Ann, motored to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamborn were dinner hosts at the Lamborn home Wednesday evening. Guests included Mrs. Jane Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Royce were in Portland from Thursday until Saturday attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McKee of Moro were dinner guests Thursday evening at the E. D. McKee home.

Mrs. A. B. Potter and Mrs. Geo. Potter were in The Dalles Monday.

(Continued from page one) cause Rep. Knute Hill, Washington, prematurely announced that a bomber base, originally intended for Yakima, was to be located at Pendleton. Oregon's Congressman Pierce wants a committee appointed to investigate election polls. He has written Dr. Gallup of his desire and Gallup has replied that his poll on Oregon was wrong only one-tenth of one percent. Explanation of why nothing is being done to prevent British Columbia from dumping apples on the American market to the detriment of orchardists of Oregon and Washington, is to enable Canada to acquire dollar exchange with which to purchase war munitions. Government wants instructors, air corps technical school, salaries

$2000 to $3800 a year; instructors, aeronautical engineering materials, $1620 to $2600; aeronautical engineering aids, salary $1620 to $2600; aeronautical engineering draftsman, $1620 to $2600. For information apply to any first, or second-class postoffice.
