band. Low score went to Mrs. Walter Blau. A 1:30 o'clock luncheon card party was held Thursday afternoon. Honors went to Mrs. Francis Watkins and low to Mrs. Wayne Darby.

Sarah Stalcup spent Sunday in Homeiston.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clothier and Ann were dinner guests Sunday at the Bruce Grady home.

A game of basketball resulted in a win for Wasco over Moro last Friday evening. The Wasco team played the Sierreson cream team at Wasco Thursday night and were beaten 39 to 30. Lewis was the star in the game.

The Evangelical Sunday school class met for its annual Christmas party at the E. P. Rich home. Each guest brought a gift for the children in the Palm Home near Corvallis.

The churches will unite in a Christmas program December 22 at the Methodist church. The program will be given this evening. School will then be closed until December 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ireland returned from Corvallis where he has been for a couple of months.

W. A. Spencer returned from Buckley, Wn., last week after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Free Crews and Marion left Thursday for California where they will visit until the first of January at the home of Mrs. Raymond Crews and her son. This will be the first Christmas together for twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock were birthday hosts in honor of Mrs. Roy Belshee Monday night. Guests seated at the table decorated in pink and green included Messrs. and Messtames Robert Belshee, Wilbert Martin, Jim Kenny, Clarence Sparling, Lloyd Hennagin, and Mrs. Edith Burnett of Moro; Charles Hoggard, Benton Barnett of Rufus; Jeff Wilson and Donnie of The Dalles. Mrs. Wilson gave a dinner Sunday for Mrs. Belshee. After dinner all attended the choral concert of which Mrs. Wilson is a member.

Mrs. Hildred Zell and Mrs. Walt Blau entertained at a Christmas party for members and husbands of the junior bridge club Saturday night at the Zell home. After a 6:30 turkey dinner five tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. L. P. Haven and Joe Hildebrand held high scores. Mrs. Bernis Guy and Lawrence Kaseberg, low. Christmas gifts were exchanged.

After a regular meeting of the Tuesday afternoon club members heard a special Christmas program at the home of Mrs. Cliff Fridley. Gifts were exchanged by the members. Numbers presented were a clarinet solo by Jimmy Coats with Marion Crews as accompanist; Christmas solo, Patricia Yocum; piano selection, Marion Crews; recitation, Joanne Watkins; Mrs. Leo Watkins sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Stephens; Mrs. Ida Carlisle gave a talk on Christmas customs in Holland; Mrs. Bruckert of Mexico; Mrs. H. H. White a reading and Mrs. Maud Akers a hymn. All club members joined in singing carols.
