

Grass Valley To Give Reception For Teachers

A teacher's reception will be held Monday evening, September 15, at the L. O. O. F. hall. The public is invited to come and bring either salad, sandwiches or cake.

School started Monday morning with 63 pupils in the grades and 24 registered in high school and more will register next week. In the 1st and 2nd grades, 16 pupils with Miss Virginia Helyer as teacher; 3rd and 4th grades, 14 pupils with Miss Elizabeth Esson as teacher; 5th and 6th grades, 16 pupils with Miss Margaret Trubue as teacher; and 13 pupils in the 7th and 8th grade room, with I. V. Kane as teacher. The teachers in high school are principal, Ray Jewel, and William Beck and Mrs. Ellen Potter.

Visitors arriving Sunday at the Sam Holmes home were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holmes, from Oakland, California and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKay of Portland. In company with Miss Cassie Holmes they all motored to Pendleton Thursday to spend the day at the Round-Up.

Dick Reckman was a business visitor at Moro Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Williams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKay, Sam Holmes and daughters, Mabel and Cassie, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. John Brogan in The Dalles Monday. They stopped at Celilo on their way home to watch the Indians fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alley and children motored to Portland Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alley.

William Brinkert, Mrs. Glen Kurnes and son Lloyd, Jean Zevely and Miss Ethel Barnett were visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Williams and children, Beverly and Buddy, of Oakland, California arrived Saturday at the Sam Holmes home to visit, leaving for their home on Tuesday.

R. A. Stow, George Wilcox, Tommie Barnett, Tom Garrett, Wallace May, Harry Stark, Hans Koepke and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker were business visitors at Moro Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell.

Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Dryden and family returned home Friday from Portland where they had visited relatives for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eslinger and daughters and Robert Eslinger returned Sunday from a trip that took them to Astoria, Seaside and Lebanon: at the latter place they visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and family. They also visited relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Peters and sons returned home Wednesday from Newberg where they visited Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox and in Salem they visited Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hoffman.

Mrs. Lorene Hirl and son stopped here last Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker. She was on her way to Metolius where she will teach school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown were business visitors in Moro Saturday.

Dick Holdaway will drive the Buckley school bus this year. Other drivers are Harry Stark who will bring the Rosebush school children and Ross Fields, the Rutledge bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne and family were The Dalles visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Ted Trimble and Mrs. Lewis Olds were business visitors in The Dalles Friday.

Mrs. Alfred Kock went to Gresham recently on business. She was accompanied by Mrs. L. D. May who went to Portland to visit her brother, Ira Coffey. She will also visit her grandmother, Mrs. John Hughes in Salem.

Mrs. George Wilcox returned home Sunday from The Dalles where she has been with her son George, who is confined to a hospital. She reports him very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sherman of Forest Grove spent the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemley, arriving Saturday.

Roy Wells came down from Hermiston Monday evening returning with Mrs. Wells and sons, who will spend the week there.

T. M. Rolfe is transporting his perchon horses from Salem to Moro for the Sherman County fair this week end.

Mrs. Jim Blagg and daughter, Merie and Mrs. John Rolfe and children were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Wells home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Van Metre and family spent the week end visiting at the homes of Roy Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fortner. The Van Metres left Sunday for Boardman where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox left Wednesday for Chicago for several days of sight seeing before going to Flint, Michigan where they will take delivery of a new car, and on their return will visit relatives in Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Irby of Arlington visited last Sunday with Mrs. Irby's mother, Mrs. H. A. Sommer.

Vern Baker was a visitor here recently from Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hendricks and daughter, Carlotta of Fossil visited Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Simon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Capron and Mrs. Walter Roundtree of Chehalis, Wn., visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Reynolds.

R. J. Baker and Ben Payne were business visitors at Klondike Thursday.

Miss Janet Wilcox left last Saturday for Vale where she is one of the instructors in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schilling and son Robert left Wednesday for Salem to attend the state fair.

Mrs. A. M. Zevely and daughter Jean spent the week end here from Shaniko where Mrs. Zevely is teaching this year.

Miss Dorothy Olds left last Saturday for Harbor, where she will teach school this year. Mrs. Tom Garrett accompanied her to Doris, California where she visited Mr. and Mrs. John Roth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brinkert returned home last Monday from Tillamook where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Brinkert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer left Friday for Sheridan and Newberg where they visited relatives over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crews had as dinner guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Elem of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis returned Wednesday from Heppner accompanied by her sister, Mrs. James Driscoll and daughter, who spent the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fortner.

Mrs. Boyce Blaylock and daughters left Sunday for Portland to visit relatives several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield of Portland visited recently with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eakin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blaylock left last Tuesday for Tacoma, Wn., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnett had as week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Macey of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace May, Mrs. L. D. May and Grace Marie and Mary Lou Zevely were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton May in The Dalles.

I. D. Pike injured his hand last Sunday when he and his son Frank were working on a pump. Frank took him to The Dalles where several stitches were necessary to close the wounds. Frank took him to The Dalles Thursday to have his hand dressed.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Elliott and family of Sheridan spent the week end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer.

Mrs. T. M. Rolfe and son, Willard left Thursday for Salem to attend the state fair.

(Claud and Cora Bayer were The Dalles visitors last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Baker arrived here Wednesday from Gresham on business.

Mrs. Ellen Potter and daughter of The Dalles moved here the first of last week. She is one of the local high teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Fritts and sons were The Dalles visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Frances King and family spent the labor day holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gore in Pendleton.

William Brinkert Jr., left Thursday for Salem to attend the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Simon accompanied by the latter's mother, Mrs. Strange, of Redmond motored to Longview, Wn., where Mrs. Strange remained to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Tilton, over the Labor day holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Block brought the latter's mother, Mrs. John Hays to her home here last Sunday, after she had spent several months visiting with them.

Mrs. Ed Alley and daughter, Lila Lee, went to The Dalles Wednesday, returning home Thursday.

Mrs. L. D. Pike returned home Wednesday from Grays Harbor, Washington where she had visited her sister, Mrs. Minnie Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart Wassermiller and family of The Dalles, visited over night recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wassermiller.

Lloyd Snodgrass of Port Angeles, Washington was a visitor at the Ted Everett home Saturday and Sunday.

Ross Fields left last Monday for Hermiston and Pendleton to visit relatives, returning home Friday accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Goodrich and son and Mrs. Louis May and son, of Hermiston, who spent the week end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Pike. Their father took them back to Hermiston Tuesday.

A Holmes family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted von Borstel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks of New York City. Mrs. Weeks is a niece of Sam Holmes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Holmes and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Williams and children, Beverly and Buddie, of Oakland, California; Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKay and Miss Dorothy Holmes of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Friday Holmes of Redmond; Miss Pridemore of Portland; Mrs. Ida Holmes and John Friday and son of Gateway; Mrs. Davis and son of Ashwood; Mrs. Millie McPherson of Cornelius; Mr. and Mrs. John Brogan and family of Antelope; Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes and family, Sam Holmes and daughters, Cassie and Mabel, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted von Borstel.

A Joke on The Medico—or was it? Chrissy Cronemiller, magnanimous queen of the royal house of Cronemiller, decided recently to honor Doc Coffey, the family medicine man, with one of those dinners for which she is justly famous. She sent the Doc an invitation with the customary R.S.V.P., and soon received a reply, so hopelessly scrawled she couldn't tell whether it was an acceptance or a Chinese laundry ticket.

"Take it to the drug store," sez Cronie, "druggists can always read a doctor's writing, no matter how fierce it is."

So Chrissy took the note to the drug store. After looking at it for a moment, the druggist went to the rear of the store. In five minutes he returned with a bottle. "There you are madam," sez he, "that will be 65 cents."—Forest Log.

Some folks there be whose blowing and bragging reminds us of what the flea said to the elephant: "Boy, did we shake that bridge when we came across!"

Kent Merchant Hears Of Death Of Brother

J. E. Norton received word Friday of the death of his brother, Walter Norton at Hoskins, Oregon. Mr. Norton and daughter Geraldine left Sunday for Corvallis where the funeral of Mr. Norton was conducted Monday.

Miss Helen Halvorsen arrived Friday and Miss Jean Braat arrived Saturday to take up their duties as instructors in the Kent schools which opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 47, which is considerably smaller than the 1940 enrollment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthes were callers at the L. W. Amick home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson called briefly at the Dick Reckman home at Grass Valley Monday evening.

Roy Hogue of Grass Valley was a dinner guest of his grandmother, Mrs. B. A. Hogue, here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McKay and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Schadewitz returned home Wednesday after spending three weeks visiting in South Dakota and Nebraska. Mr. McKay visited his sister, Mrs. Jim Holsworth and family in Willow Lake, S. D., whom he had not seen for 41 years. The McKays then went to North Loop, Nebraska and Silver Creek, Nebraska, their native towns, where they spent several days with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cox and Mr. and Mrs. William Cox and families, and numerous other relatives. They were in eleven states on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKay drove to Sisters Thursday to meet the latter's mother, Mrs. Howard Pike of Springfield, who will visit the McKays for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bear of Carlton were calling at the home of Mrs. Max Pluemke Monday morning. Mrs. Bear will be remembered here as Miss Eva Miller, a former teacher here.

Misses Lillian Schassen and Evelyn Davis of The Dalles were dinner guests at the J. L. Davis home Wednesday evening.

J. L. Davis and son Luther Warren transacted business in The Dalles Monday.

Mrs. Walter Beyers of Shaniko was a visitor at Kent Monday.

Donald Haggis of California was a Kent visitor one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Barnett, Mrs. J. L. Matthes and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton were visitors in The Dalles Tuesday.

G. F. McKay and L. M. Schadewitz transacted business at Condon Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartley of Corvallis were dinner guests at the Max Pluemke home Tuesday evening. Hartley is a former Kent resident.

J. H. Wilson and son John motored to Davenport, Wn., Tuesday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Rambo and family. They returned Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Rambo and son Robert, who will make their home with Mrs. Rambo's father, Mr. Rambo will be at Kent soon after September 15th.

Mrs. Mary Cammack and daughter Esther returned to Kent Saturday evening, after spending the summer at home in Salem. Miss Cammack resumed her position as instructor in the Kent schools Monday morning.

W. B. Wilson and Dick Stakley were dinner guests at the Gene Watkins home at Tygh Valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson were dinner guests of J. H. Wilson and Mrs. Chauncey Rambo Sunday.

Defense Bonds Should Be Kept Safely

Q. Where should I keep my Defense Savings Bonds?

A. In a safe place, because they have value which constantly increases. If you wish, the Treasury Department or any Federal Reserve Bank will hold them in safekeeping for you without charge, giving you a receipt.

Q. Does an album filled with Stamps automatically become a Bond that will pay interest and mature in 10 years?

A. No. The completed album must be exchanged for a Bond. Regardless of the amount of money you have invested in Stamps, they will not bear interest until they are in the form of a Bond or Bonds.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for a mailorder form.

Your original investment, in Defense Savings Bonds, Series E, will increase thirty three and a third percent in 10 years.

Strike Warning

Harry Bridges (arrow), West coast maritime union leader, is shown as he warned of "a big strike" since he is not satisfied with longshoremen's wages.

Traffic Accidents Come In Bunches

At 12:30 p. m. on August 9th, a passenger in a motor vehicle was killed in an accident in Marion county. At 2:06 p. m. another Oregonian died in a motor vehicle accident in Lake county. Then at 4:40 o'clock, a traffic accident took one life in Polk county and at 5:15 o'clock there was another accident victim in the city of Grants Pass. At 9:15 o'clock, the fifth traffic victim was recorded in Malheur county and at 11:30 p. m., the Grim Reaper claimed two more traffic victims in Jackson county to complete his day.

Score: For one day of August 9, 1941, seven persons were killed in six traffic crashes.

That day saw the most traffic fatalities for any one day in Oregon since February 4, 1940 when seven persons were killed, according to the State Traffic Safety Division.

On January 11 of this year, six persons died in traffic accidents and there have been several days when five persons were killed.

The August 9th toll constituted 18 percent of all the traffic deaths recorded in Oregon for the entire month of August.

Of the seven deaths, only one occurred in urban areas, all the rest resulting from accidents on highways in rural districts. The urban accident involved a small child on a bicycle who rode across the path of an approaching car. Non-collision accidents took three lives and the others were killed in collisions involving two vehicles. The average age of the victims of August 9th was over 35 years.

Of all the sad surprises, There's nothing to compare With treading in the darkness On a step that wasn't there.

Hi-WAYS TO HEALTH by ADA R. MAYNE OREGON DAIRY COUNCIL

YOUR CHILD'S EATING HABITS

It is easier to build good eating habits than to change bad ones. Attitudes toward eating are developed early. When bad habits are already established it takes real perseverance over a period of months to build new ones. It must be realized that the food eaten in any one meal is relatively unimportant, and that it is the food eaten over weeks, months and years that counts.

A good appetite, the foundation of good eating habits, depends first of all on health. Is your child free from medical and dental defects? Does he get enough sleep? Does he have well balanced meals at regular hours? All these contribute directly to good health and indirectly to a good appetite.

Even a good appetite may be spoiled by bad eating habits. Eating habits are largely a result of the attitudes and actions of those who prepare the meal and eat with the child. A child will not learn to like foods readily if others in the family do not set a good example. The cooperation of the whole family is essential in giving a child a wholesome attitude toward food.

No two children of the same age have the same food habits or eat equal quantities of food. But certain basic food requirements should be satisfied even though menus may vary. A child should have a varied diet to give his body the proper building materials and energy. In the well balanced meals include each day one quart of milk for children, two or more servings of vegetables besides potatoes, one raw, green and yellow often; two or more servings daily of fruits, 1 citrus or tomato; three to five eggs a week; one or more servings of meat, cheese, fish or legumes; cereal or bread, most of it whole grain; two or more tablespoons of butter; and other foods to satisfy appetite and complete growth and activity needs.

For the well, strong, cheerful child, quantity of food practically regulates itself. Even if the child "eats hardly enough to keep a canary alive," if condition in relation to body type is good, he is getting enough. It must be remembered that one human body may digest, absorb and utilize much more of the food it receives than does another.

It is hard to convince mothers of small or thin or wiry type children, no matter how well they are, that these little folks are getting all the food they require because they make twice as good use of what they do get as the next child. For these children, balance of diet is the essential. Whatever small quantity they take, if distributed suitably among milk, cereals, vegetables, fruits, meat, eggs, their requirements will be adequately answered in the exact way that nature desires them to be answered.

With school days just ahead of us again, a thorough check on children's food habits is now in order. Setting about now to overcome faulty habits may save many anxious moments during the months to come.

Do you know that a single cigarette dropped on a forest roadside can in a matter of hours call up hundreds of men, fleets of tractors and trucks and even airplanes, an army equipped and backed with mobile pumps, motor and animal supply trains, field kitchens, portable two-way radio outfits, aerial photography, para-ehutists—all at a cost to as much as $25,000 per day? Help Keep Oregon Green and save such costs to the taxpayers.

Before school starts equip the youngsters with

New Clothes

from our shelves

For tasty, nourishing lunches visit our grocery

Zeigler's Quality Store Grass Valley

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

No. 30 of a Series

A BAD ONE DOES TURN UP ONCE IN A WHILE!

Good weather and a bumper crop! Even then one finds a poor stalk once in a while.

The retailing of beer is something like that. Most beer retailers operate respectable law-abiding establishments. Occasionally one finds an exception—a man who tries to beat the law or who permits anti-social conditions.

The beer industry wants this type of undesirable retailer stamped out. Your cooperation will help us in our clean-up efforts.

The beer industry brings important benefits to the community. Here in Oregon, beer provides employment for 13,238 persons, supports an annual payroll of $11,541,550 and contributed $617,020.86 last year in state taxes.

Oregon, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from over 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways. First—patronize only the reputable places where beer is sold. Second—report to the proper authorities any law violation you may observe.

BEER...a beverage of moderation

Today...
THE OREGON TRAIL
leads to OLD
HERMITAGE
if you're looking for as fine a Kentucky bourbon whiskey
as money will buy

$2.10 or.
$1.10 or.
A four-year-old whiskey famous since 1870

Grass Valley THEATRE

Sunday, September 14
Bud Abbott
and Lou Costello

IN
"BUCK PRIVATES"

Wednesday, September 17
Alice Faye and Jack Oakie

IN
"The Great American BROADCAST"