

Storage Bins May Not Be Available in '43

Word has come to the county agent's office that storage bins of the portable kind on display here are now available for purchase for storage of the 1943 wheat crop. It is feared that they will not be on the market next harvest because of priority regulations.

LeRoy Wright left Wednesday evening for Pendleton to attend the ram sale there and to study lambs for the feeding experiment to be conducted by the Eastern Oregon Wheat League in which local boys and girls will compete.

B. E. Jones of the Federal warehouse department has been here this week in pursuance of his duties.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barnum left Monday for Redmond to stay for a few weeks on the farm near that place with their son, Cleo.

Hallie Ingle, niece of E. E. Barzee, came up from Corvallis for a weekend visit. Mrs. Barzee went home with her to remain for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. McAllister of Medford stopped here Sunday night while on a trip through eastern Oregon. Mr. McAllister is a candidate for the speakership of the 1943 Oregon House of Representatives of which he has been a member since 1937.

Lewell Stockman, Republican candidate for congress, was in town Monday while on his way to Klamath Falls. He states that his crop is harvested on his farm near Helix and in the warehouse, although storage is a problem in Umatilla county this year.

Mrs. Josie Underhill and Mrs. Owen Barnett of Wasco were callers at the Robert Evans home in Moro Tuesday.

Miss Reatha Sayrs is home after spending the last six weeks in Portland working in defense industry.

Mrs. Karl Landstrom and daughter left Sunday for her home in Medford after spending ten days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Peetz.

Mrs. P. G. Norgren, a former resident of the Wasco community died at Forest Grove Wednesday after a long illness. Mrs. Norgren was a sister of Mrs. E. E. Barzee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cochran left Sunday for California to visit a couple weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Ray Edwards and family.

Frank Sayrs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sayrs, was married Saturday of last week in Longview, Washington, to Mrs. Virginia E. Cavanaugh of that city.

Mrs. Lucille Goodin left Wednesday for Tacoma after a short stay in Moro with relatives. She was formerly Lucille Powell, sister of Marion Powell. David Moore went with her to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huntley.

Frank Sayrs expects to enter the army at Camp Lewis next Thursday according to word sent his parents.

Melvin Baker has written his mother, Mrs. Pauline Baker, from Australia saying that cigarettes are hard to get in kangaroo land and the boys all appreciate having them sent to them. Melvin also says "Australia is a wonderful place and the girls are crazy over the soldiers (Yanks)".

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barnum were in Portland the first of the week in order for Mrs. Barnum to consult her doctor.

Eugene C. Lockett of Moro has been promoted in rank at Camp Sutton, N.C. and is now a technician fifth grade, attached to an army ordnance unit.

Robert Christianson at Camp Benning, Ga. has been rated as a T-1 which corresponds to the rank of corporal in the mechanical division.

Mrs. Darwin VanGilder left Tuesday night for Missouri to join her husband for a few days before he is sent to the east coast for further training.

Phil Ruggies and wife were here this week from St. Helena for a vacation with his parents. They went on to Camp Sherman where they will meet Gordon and Vivian Thompson. Gordon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson.

Mrs. Bernice Wilt is out of the hospital again after a "serious" session with nose bleed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ray Blake and Mrs. Wili and T. S. Reese were in Pendleton last visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell.

Little Priscilla Melzer has been very ill this week.

Jocelle Peters will take over the work at the county agent's office next week when her sister, Bonnie becomes the bride of Edward Sharp.

William Wallan has been ill at the Pinkerton farm where he has been this summer.

Mrs. H. C. Nelson of Bend and Nellie Wilson and Mrs. J. C. Wilson were here Tuesday to visit Mrs. G. Douma.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Strong left Thursday for a vacation trip that will take them to Eugene and the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Martin are here from Portland with their children to visit a few days with relatives in Moro.

Mrs. Mae McKinney of Portland a niece of Mrs. J. C. Freeman, was here from Saturday until Tuesday with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Herhall Axtell and son of Eugene came up for a few days and took Mrs. P. C. Axtell home with them.

Jean Hire left Wednesday for The Dalles.

Mrs. A. B. Christianson and daughter are going to go to Portland Friday with Mrs. Frances King who will meet her sister in law from Ventura, Cal.

In England

Lieut. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., son of the President, chats with an officer of the women's royal naval service after his arrival in London. —Cablephoto.

Coast Guard Hero

Coastguardsman John C. Cullen, who helped trap Nazi saboteurs landed by German sub on the Atlantic coast, dances with Miss Alys Nelson in a New York night club.

Potters Attend Annual Sherman County Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Woods and the parents of the women, Mr. and Mrs. William Norcross of The Dalles, attended the Sherman county picnic at Laurelhurst park in Portland Sunday. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Andrews are visiting in Portland with their sons and families.

Miss Barbara Hines after spending a week in Portland with relatives is again home.

Mrs. Walter Hilderbrand of Sunnyside Wash. spent the week end with her sister in law, Mrs. Grace Medler and visiting with her husband, who is harvesting here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallace of Vancouver arrived Monday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Afton McLarty.

The McIntyre children are having a siege with measles, three of them having them.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Royce and sons of Fossil spent last weekend with Mr. Royce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Royce. A family potluck dinner was partaken of Sunday with other relatives and friends among who were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Royce and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamborn, Mrs. Wing and Bert Dearing.

Mrs. Gertrude Pepper left recently for Condon to be with her daughters' children while the parents are busy with defense work.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Fridley, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Johnson and Mrs. I. C. Andrews surprised Rev. and Mrs. Cannell at Northwestern lake and spent Saturday with them.

Andrew Landies, after spending his vacation with his children in the valley was seen in The Dalles Saturday on his way to Wasco.

The small son of Mrs. Franklyn Bird has recovered from an attack of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott and daughter, Doris left for Heppner where they sold their property and moved their household goods to Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fuller and family moved to Vancouver, Wash. Saturday. Their son, Newton has work in the round house there and has purchased a trailer house in which to live.

Roy Belshie had the misfortune to lose two fine work horses this week.

Mrs. Lois Hilderbrand took a load of children to The Dalles Tuesday afternoon.

Joe Mee and family moved to The Dalles Monday where he will be employed.

Harry Skerry of Portland was transacting business in Wasco a couple days last week.

Miss Donna Knox returned home Friday from Los Angeles where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Collins and husband for a part of the summer.

Mrs. A. Huckin, Mrs. Bruce Grady, Misses Eulalia Moorhouse, Marjory Rich, Mrs. John McClure and Leland Schwendel were in The Dalles Friday.

Mrs. Gordon Rich entered a hospital in The Dalles last week. Miss Janet Workman is spending the week with relatives in The Dalles.

W. G. Armsworthy returned home last week from visiting his daughter, Mrs. John Grant and husband at Bremerton, Wash. His daughter, Mrs. J. Illingsworth of The Dalles spent two days with him returning home Saturday.

Mrs. Della Tubbs of Bingen, Wash., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Belshie, returned home Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Belshie driving her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Weimer of Coulee City, Wash., spent Tuesday at Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum's home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jensen of Portland are visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum.

Mrs. A. Short and son of Portland are visitors with relatives in Rufus.

Mrs. Charles Hoggard spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Leah Jensen in The Dalles.

Mrs. Victor Stockard and two children of Hermiston are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Maurus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson of The Dalles stopped on their way home from a fishing trip to Paulina lake and visited with the Roy Belshies.

Mrs. Tom Robertson and three daughters of Portland after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson, returned home Saturday.

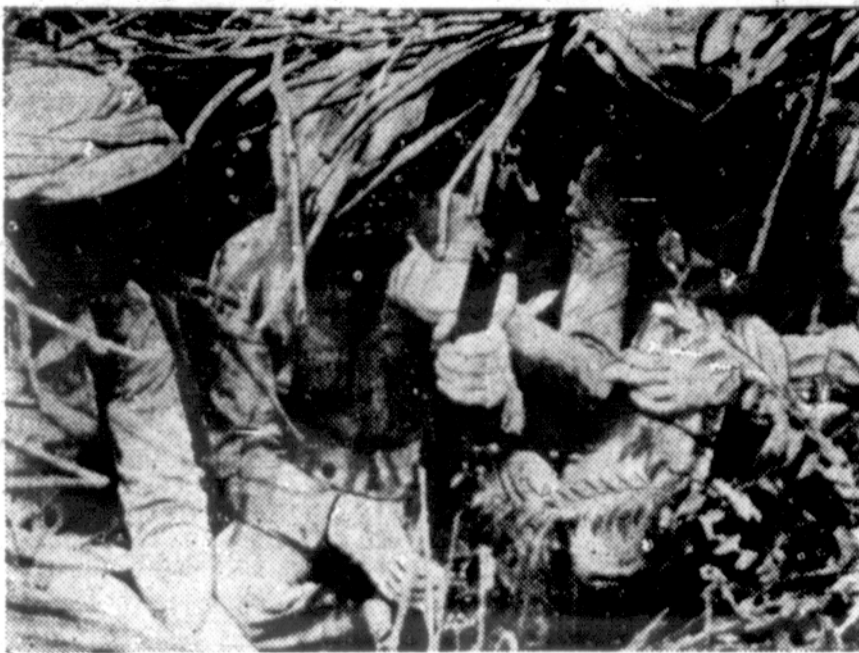

Mrs. Free Crews was in The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maffei of Hermiston stopped off to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Feldman, on their way home from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. Fred Hennaagin and Mrs. Letrelia Halley were in Portland several days last week.

Mrs. May Reid is postmistress while Mr. and Mr. Hal White and

Yanks in the Caribbean

This photo, from somewhere in the Caribbean area, shows U. S. troops in the course of their vigorous training for bush warfare, while becoming acclimated to the intense heat prevalent in these tropic outposts. A jungle fox hole is seen, well camouflaged.

son, Jimmy are vacationing at Depoe bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Caldwell spent Wednesday in Portland.

Ivan Kirkelle, who arrived from Portland to spend the weekend with his family, is ill at his home.

Floyd Root and small son, Billy after harvesting in Sherman county, returned to their home at Cres-Dell lodge.

A car of wheat got away and was derailed by the bumper this week.

A wreck occurred at the corner of the city park Wednesday and

Want Ads

FOR SALE: One purebred Short-horn bull, for fall delivery. Elmer Helyer, Grass Valley. 41-3

FOR SALE: 8000 ewes from 3 to 6 years old. Price $8 to $10 per head according to ages. Will take cattle in trade. Delivered at Redmond or Prineville in bunches of 100 anytime after Sept. 1. If interested contact Ben Taylor, Mitchell, Oregon. 42-5p

FOR SALE: 200 aged breeding ewes, fine wool will sell $5.00 per head. Albright Commission Co. Union Stock yards, North Portland, Or. 42-3

CHURCHES

Christian Science Society August 23, 1942. Subject: MIND. Golden Text: I Timothy 1:7. God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Cannell returned home this week from a three week vacation at Northwestern lake and asked that church services be announced for Wasco Methodist church this Sunday at 11 a.m., Sunday school at 10 a.m. and church at Grass Valley at 2:30 p.m.

At the Christian church Sunday August 23, pastor Claude Stephens discourse will be "Bethel, the Gate to Heaven".

The Trouble With Advertising in the Sherman County Journal is that you can't keep stock on hand--someone is sure to come in and buy it Of Course if you have something you really want to sell

we can recommend our advertising

T. Lester Johnson
LAWYER
WASCO MORO

C.L. Poley, M.D.
Physician & Surgeon
The Dalles Hospital
In. 415. 1930

The World's News Seen Through THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

An International Daily Newspaper
Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLISHING SOCIETY
One, Norway Street, Boston, Massachusetts is Truthful—Constructive—Unbiased—Free from Sensationalism—Editorials Are Timely and Instructive and Its Daily Features, Together with the Weekly Magazine Section, Make the Monitor an Ideal Newspaper for the Home.
Price $12.00 Yearly, or $1.00 a Month.
Saturday Issue, including Magazine Section, $2.60 a Year.
Introductory Offer, 6 Issues 25 Cents.

Obtainable at:

Reading Room, Christian Science Society, Moro Oregon.

THEY HAVE ANSWERED

THE CALL

"Caterpillar" Diesels were among the first to answer the call to aid in our nation's war effort. But, while new machines are helping in our fight for freedom, you may rely on our parts and mechanical service to keep your tractor in fighting trim.

O'MEARA
Supply & Imp. Co
John Deere Caterpillar