

Dinner Given For Departing Schadewitzes

Friends of the Mel Schadewitz family sponsored a farewell potluck dinner for them at the Community church Wednesday night which was attended by many of those who have been associated with them in church and social affairs for the many years they have lived in Moro. They left Thursday to live at 2204 NE 36th in Portland.

The Christmas holiday of the Moro school will be shortened for this year. It will begin the afternoon of December 24 and resume work the following Monday. The New Years holiday will also be observed. This will permit closing of school earlier in the spring.

Irvin and Lynnie Hart are expected home Friday from an extended trip to Seattle where they have been visiting. W. J. Martin has been taking care of their ranch and Bud and Eloise have been playing parents to Kenneth.

Mrs. Carrell Bennett, nee Gene Eriskine, is here for a weeks visit with her parents.

W. C. Miller has bought Mel Schadewitz' registered Guernsey cow, Ann Fern's Prairie Lass.

T. M. Rolfe reports that he has sold his harness and wagon of his horse show outfit and will not take a team to the shows when they are started again. The Meadowbrook Farm of Rochester, Michigan was the purchaser.

Mrs. W. E. Hart and nephew, Milton Dunn, were here the first of the week from Hood River for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thompson. Mrs. Hart is Mrs. Thompson's mother. Dunn is leaving for the army Saturday.

C. C. Wilson, Sherman county's sheriff, was elected vice-president of the state sheriff's association in Portland last week. T. Lester Johnson, district attorney was chosen secretary of the attorney's association at the meeting held the same week for DAs.

Mrs. E. R. Dunlop and children returned to Bend accompanied by Mrs. Robert Fairfield and son who will visit in Redmond for a few days before returning to Long Beach, California. Mrs. Fairfield senior expects to accompany her daughter in law to California.

Mrs. E. R. Barzee went back to Portland Sunday after being here for several days.

Clyde Gillmor was in Salem last week on business with the state highway department.

Mrs. Eugene Amidon and Mrs. Bernice Whit left Thursday for Seattle and vicinity for a visit with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of Willamina were overnight guests Saturday at the E. E. Barnum home. Tuesday Mr. Barnum left for Redmond to take another look at his farm there and Thursday Mrs. Barnum left for Portland to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Jones. Mrs. Lester Barnum also went to Portland Thursday for medical examination.

L. R. Conlee has rented an apartment near the one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marvin and expects to remain in the city and work until farming starts next spring.

Mrs. May Barnum was up Wednesday night from The Dalles on business returning home Thursday morning.

Bill Raymond is now up and around the hospital in a wheel chair and expects to come home some time next week.

Charles and Helen Ruggles are going to Portland Friday for another operation on Charles' eye.

Mrs. Kenneth Sather's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar of Condon are here for a visit.

The Moro child health conference was postponed from Tuesday Dec. 8, to Tuesday, Dec. 22 on account of snowy weather. Notification will be sent to parents. Dr. Ethel Reuter of The Dalles has been appointed health doctor to replace Dr. Donald Bourg, who resigned.

Mrs. J. R. McCulloch is here with her husband who is correcting state income tax figures of the past three years.

Wasco Man Safe After Ship Sinking

Word was received that Lt. Jk. Eugene Spencer's ship, was one of those sunk on the African coast, but he escaped and is safe and sound.

Mrs. Albert Kaseberg was informed of the recent marriage of her sister, Mrs. Hazel Holling of Portland to Ross Barsegill of Seattle at the Rose City Methodist church November 22, the pastor, Roy F. Dunn officiating. The bride is a former resident of Wasco and well known by many here. The couple will reside in Seattle.

Mrs. Vernon VanGilder and Mrs. Harold White were shoppers in The Dalles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bains of Wenatchee, Wash., were weekend Thanksgiving visitors at Mrs. Bains' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole entertained her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKinney and family of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney and family of Heppner over a recent weekend.

The Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Harley Dutton last week with a good attendance.

It was voted to purchase 6 pair of pajamas for the Veteran's hospital, 6 sweaters have been knitted for the Red Cross, 20 sand covers were sent to the hospital and $100 worth of used clothing has been given to the county and hospital. Miss Hurst of the county public welfare department gave a talk on child welfare and adoption. The unit packed gifts to the amount of $20.67 for the child welfare and hospital with about $5 more in gifts to be collected. The good cheer barrels will be placed in the stores next Saturday to be filled with donations. The hostess served light refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Rev. F. L. Cannell received Christmas greetings from John Proudfoot in camp at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Latest reports from John T. Johnson at The Dalles hospital are that he is some better. Mrs. Johnson is staying in The Dalles to be near him and their son, Harold of Spokane, Wash., was at the hospital over the weekend.

Mrs. Sam Brock has been staying in town with Mrs. John T. Johnson.

Mrs. Ed McKee was able to be in the drug store again Monday. She now has her arm out of the cast.

Mrs. Maud Johnson is gradually improving but still is confined to her bed. Her daughter Mrs. Ray Barlow and little daughter, Susan of Eugene are with her helping care for her.

Chester Watkins inductee in the army will leave for service Friday. He and wife are packing household goods. She will go to work in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fridley and daughter, Joan have moved to Portland this week.

The Methodist Ladies WSCS will hold its bazaar and dinner Saturday at the church. The bazaar will open at 2 p.m. and the dinner will be served at 6:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Private First Class Willard Harper of Pasadena, Cal., is here on a 15 day furlough with his father, William Harper and family.

Stephen O'Meara of the navy flew home last Thursday for a short stay with his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Pat O'Meara. He left again Saturday to report for duty.

Platoon Sergeant Arthur VanGilder arrived Sunday evening. He has been stationed 20 months in Sitka, Alaska and was much chagrined to find the ground covered with snow. He says he has seen enough of that and would like to see the bare ground for a change. He is with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry VanGilder and will have to report for duty Dec. 12 at Bremerton, Wash.

Mrs. Anna Lee and Harry Richelderfer among our sick are reported much better.

Mrs. Jeanette McDonald is in Portland having teeth extracted. Mrs. Grace Medler spent some of last week with her.

Mrs. Edith Hogard is now a resident of Rufus where she recently purchased a home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Yates are in Portland for medical attention for Mr. Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Woods came up Friday from Portland where they are staying and returned Sunday. Mrs. George Potter went back with them for a short stay.

Mrs. Cliff Fridley returned Friday from Portland.

Mrs. Leonard Maurus is in The Dalles for chiropractic treatment. Mrs. Everett Watkins received the sad news of her father's death Dec. 7 at Seattle. He was James Venable an old time resident of Sherman county.

The gas rationing and the snow have caused everyone to keep to their own fireside and spend the time in growing at the weather lack of gas and some place to go. Wonder what the new fangled Santa Claus will do for transportation from the North Pole.

WASCO SCHOOL NEWS

The junior and senior classes celebrated skip day last Friday when all went to The Dalles.

Rod Finney of the state salvage board was here Monday making arrangements for Pat O'Meara Jr. to attend the Liberty ship launching. He also released some preliminary material on tin can and kitchen fat salvage.

Wasco school observed the anniversary of Pearl Harbor Dec. 7 at 11:25 p.m. by having taps played and facing to the west and saying a pledge to carry on individual parts in the war. They closed with trumpets playing the colors.

The school listened to the battle-ship Oregon program.

A joint Christmas program of the school, Christian and Methodist churches will be held Tuesday Dec. 22 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Joan Fridley whose parents are moving to Portland severed connections with the Wasco school.

Marjorie Rich Married To A. A. VanGilder

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rich of Wasco was the scene of the wedding Wednesday evening December 9 of their daughter, Marjorie, and P. Sergeant Arthur A. VanGilder, US Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry VanGilder of Wasco. Rev. F. Claude Stephens officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue wool dress with matching hat and corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Elvis Rich, sister in law of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a beige wool dress with rose accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Leon Smith was best man.

Preceding the ceremony Malcolm Richelderfer sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Stephens. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony for members of the families and close friends.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Monmaw of Hubbard and Mrs. Darwin VanGilder of Moro. After a short wedding trip to Portland the couple will be in Wasco until Sergeant VanGilder reports to his base December 19.

CHURCHES

Wasco Methodist Church Sunday school at 10 a.m. Preaching at 11 a.m. Epworth League at 6:30 p.m. Rev. F. L. Cannell.

Church of Christ, Wasco Services for Dec. 13. Church Bible school at 10 a.m. Morning worship at 11 a.m. the communion and regular morning message. Christian Endeavor at 7 p.m. at the parsonage. F. Claude Stephens.

Moro Community Church James D. Moberg, pastor, Bible school 10 a.m. morning worship 11 a.m. Sermon "The Power Verse" Ph. 4:13. Special music choir. C. E. 7:30 p.m. Wed. 7:30 pm. choir practice. Thurs. 7:30 prayer meeting

Christian Science Society Sunday morning at 11. Subject "God, the preserver of Man" Wednesday evening meeting at 8 including testimonials of healing. The reading room is open in the rear of the building where authorized literature can be bought or read.

SHELL

I have taken over the management of the local Shell Oil station and will distribute Shell Oil products in the same areas the previous operator.

Prompt delivery High Quality Products

GAS - DIESEL OIL - KEROSENE
SOLVENT - MOTOR OIL

W. A. Ruggles, Moro, Oregon

DON'T BELIEVE RUMORS

AIBRIGHT COMMISSION CO.

Ship Your Livestock

to the

PORTLAND UNION STOCK YARDS

We have a good market on cattle, hogs and sheep and plenty of buyers.

Listen to our Radio Program over KEX, Portland at 12:15 P. M. every Tuesday and Wednesday

ALBRIGHT COMMISSION CO.

Portland Union Stock Yards

North Portland, Oregon

University 1661

The Moro Grain Growers Ass'n wish to announce the arrival of

Christmas Trees

Monday Dec. 14 which will be FREE to the Community and Customers

Be good to your friends
GIVE OLD HERMITAGE
Be good to your guests
SERVE OLD HERMITAGE
Be good to yourself
TREAT YOURSELF TO OLD HERMITAGE
For Generations - A Great Kentucky Whiskey

Old Hermitage smoothness and Old Hermitage flavor are old, old holiday traditions among men who love good bourbon.

National Distillers Products Corp., N. Y. • 90.4 Proof

KEEP NUTS AND BOLTS TIGHT!

Loose nuts and bolts invite wear and breakage. It's good practice to inspect them carefully during service periods. A few minutes spent in routine checkups now can save time, money, and materials.

O'MEARA Supply & Imp. Co

John Deere Caterpillar

There are Sherman Countians Everywhere, literally.

They are all over the world

India knows them, they are in Africa, Palestine, England, and their footprints are on the far isles of the Pacific

"They Dream of Home" is no idle line in a popular song

Send them and other absent ones the

Sherman County Journal

Of, by, for, Sherman Countians