MORO SCHOOL NOTES

At the regular school board meeting held last week all of the teachers were offered contracts for next school year, with some increases in salary. Mrs. Timmerman resigned this week in order to accept a position nearer her home, so as to be near her mother, who has been quite ill the past few months. This makes two resignations from the local staff, as Mr. Hollinshead resigned last week.

Two changes have been made in the school calendar for this month. The senior play has been moved from March 19 to March 25 because of the absence of several cast members. The show that had been scheduled for the 26th has been moved to the 19th, at which time Henry Aldrich, of radio fame, will be presented in "Henry Aldrich for President." This show comes highly recommended as fine entertainment for both old and young.

Under present plans, Moro school students will enjoy a spring vacation from March 26 to March 31.

The high school honor roll shows a decided increase this six weeks, with the following students listed: Donald Thompson Jr., 1; Dean Wilcox, soph., 1.1; Dorothy Barnett, soph., 1.1; Patty French, soph., 1.2; Dorothy Miller, jr., 1.2; Betty Barnett, sr., 1.4; Lila Lee Alley, sr., 1.6; Mary Kenny, sr., 1.75; Doris Newcomb, jr., 1.8; Duane Lemley, soph., 1.8; Jimmy Ziegler, fr., 1.8; Eileen Lemley, fr., 2.

The honorable mention roll included Anajean Knighten, Harold Melzer, Doris Payne, Gloria Douma, and Patty Pinkerton.

"Egg" Barrage for the Axis

It will take both kinds of "eggs" to win—eggs gathered on U. S. farms and bombs ("eggs" to an airman) dropped from U. S. planes. Every Yankee bombardier who tosses an "egg" at the Axis will need 467 eggs to eat this year, and poultrymen, as part of the 1943 Farm Mobilization Campaign, are pledging themselves to greater production than ever before. It's estimated it will take 4,780,000,000 dozen eggs in 1943 to feed our fighters and the folks back home—enough to make a solid band of eggs 10 feet wide around the earth.
