Replace Worn Parts

—before they hasten wear of others. For example:

1. Check and replace worn-out connecting rod bearings before they cause wear on crankshaft.
2. Replace worn generator bearings before they cause armature wear.
3. Replace worn water pump packing and save pump shafts. These are just a few cases where attention now can save time and materials later. Let our Service Department help you.

Faith in America with those who have died in the nation's service will be pledged anew on Pony day, May 29, Mrs. Glena Anderson, American Legion Auxiliary chairman, said today as the auxiliary continued preparation for the annual distribution of memorial poppies in Wasco. No set price is asked, with everyone privileged to give as little or as much as he cares to. The contributions go to the rehabilitation and child welfare funds of the Legion and the Auxiliary to help the disabled fighting men of both wars and the children of the dead and disabled.

The Mystery Mother banquet was one of the really nice affairs of the week. It was held Friday, April 30, in the Methodist church dining room when the Standard Bearers girls organizations entertained their own mothers and the "mystery mothers" made themselves known to their "daughters." The banquet was planned and prepared by the mothers and mystery mothers, and was enjoyed by all present.

A program at the table consisting of appropriate songs and talks was presided over by the toastmistress, Lois Coats, who first welcomed the mothers and mystery mothers, with a response by Mrs. E. Shull.

After dinner a splendid program was presented in the church auditorium by the girls and some of the boys who had acted as waiters at the banquet.

There were 21 girls in the organization this year, with Mrs. F. L. Cannell as their leader. This project of the church is of a missionary study order.

A Red Cross work sheet has been prepared and is in the council chambers. This chart records the names of workers and the work completed and returned.

The chairman, Idah Everett, hopes that her attention will be called to any errors so that they may be corrected.

Mrs. Cliff Fridley left for Weston Tuesday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Robert Belknap of Junction City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wilde. Mr. Belknap, who at one time taught in Wasco and who has since been teaching in Junction City, has been elected to teach in Lakeview and the young couple will soon be moving to that city.

The Klondike Community club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Archie Gossen. A pleasant afternoon and refreshments served by the hostesses were enjoyed by a number of the ladies of this community.

The Tuesday contract bridge club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Smith, with Mrs. Sam Brock as hostess. Mrs. Anna Lee has returned from an extended visit in Ashland. Miss Edna Jasper spent the week end with relatives in La Grande.

WASCO SCHOOL NOTES

The operetta to have been given May 14 has been cancelled, the primary reason being transportation problems. Many taking part could not get in for evening practices and time could not be taken from school work in the daytime.

A senior dance will be given at the school auditorium May 15, the money raised to be used for the purchase of a roll of honor banner for service men who attended school at Wasco. Their names will be placed on the banner, which will be hung in the school building following presentation at the graduation exercises. Admission to the dance will be 25 cents for ladies and 50 cents for men.

Aid to Enemy

"Any American who wilfully neglects to pay his taxes on time or to invest every cent he can in War Bonds is surely giving aid and comfort to the enemy. . . . We have a job to do and we are all called for service to our country. Our dollars are called to service too. Let us all ask ourselves, 'Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?' — Secretary Morgenthau."
