

Wasco Clubs Hold Joint Meeting

The joint meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Study club and the Wasco Woman's Study club, when they entertain the State and District Presidents will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Kaseberg, instead of at Mrs. R. H. McKean's home as previously announced. This meeting is to be Wednesday, October 20th.

R. H. McKean went to The Dalles for medical attention the first of the week.

The first pre-school clinic will be held at the school house Friday, October 15th at 9:30 A. M. Miss Mabel Spinning, Public Health Nurse of The Dalles will be present.

A. Landles is expected to be dismissed from the hospital. Laurence Royce Nesbit has been substituting for him.

Miss Margaret McDermid and a girl friend of Oswego spent the weekend at home. She is a teacher in the Oswego schools.

Mrs. G. A. Sargent returned Saturday from Corvallis where she has been helping her daughter and family, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Neville and baby daughter get settled in their new home. She returned again to Corvallis Tuesday.

The aged gentleman, Mr. Clemens who lived in Wasco several years but is now of The Dalles, is in the hospital there suffering from a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins of Camas, Washington, and infant son, Donna Knox and friend of Seattle, Wash., visited Donna's father, Frank Knox. Mr. and Mrs. Collins and baby returned home but Miss Donna will be here a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruggles of Moro are now farming the old Farrel place and will live there.

A quiet wedding occurred at the Christian church parsonage Oct. 9 when Mrs. Agnes Duncan, living near the John Day river, and Albert Merritt were united in marriage.

We understand Robert Kaseberg has bought a lot in The Dalles and will build a home on it.

Word from Mrs. James O'Meara and baby in South Carolina is that they arrived safely last Sunday having driven that long distance in about a week.

Mrs. Hugh White and Mrs. Chas. Fulton are visiting in Portland.

Mrs. A. Huckin, Mrs. Hugh White and Mrs. H. Zell attended a dinner in The Dalles Tuesday evening honoring the Grand Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star order.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Darby and children of Portland spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lydia Darby.

Little Nancy Ferguson was taken to The Dalles hospital the latter part of the week with an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. Archie Gosson was dismissed from the Mid-Columbia hospital last week and is recuperating from a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stricker took their granddaughter, Betty Juhnke, to Corvallis where she will attend the OSC this year. James Coats, Clyde Fridley Jr. and Leland Medler also are entering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank La Mond returned Monday from visiting in Seattle and Centralia, Wash.

Mrs. Andy Shearer went to Salem, Albany and Corvallis to see friends and relatives.

T-Sgt. Jerry Moorehouse arrived from Texas recently in Wasco to spend his furlough with his mother, Mrs. Mayme Elliot, and other relatives. They left Monday for Vancouver, Wash., to visit his sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McLaughlin and daughter. He will leave Friday for camp.

Mrs. George Potter arrived home Friday from Portland.

Mrs. Ida Andrews went to The Dalles Monday on the stage.

Mrs. Ted Everett received word that her nephew who was killed in a plane crash was buried at Trinidad temporarily and his body will be sent home for permanent burial in a national cemetery in the states after the war.

Mrs. Esther Stanley and Mrs. Eliza Dingle spent Thursday in The Dalles.

Mrs. Glenna Anderson, Mrs. Grace Medler, Mrs. Guy Andrews and Mrs. Ormand Hilderbrand attended an American Legion conference in The Dalles Monday and Monday evening.

Kenneth Ferguson of Portland spent a recent weekend in Wasco with his family.

Miss Olive and John Robinson drove to Portland Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Bruce Grady and little Ruth Anne are visiting in Walla Walla, Wash.

Friends of Jessie Knox, daughter of Frank Knox, were surprised to hear of her marriage to R. L. Anfang in Seattle, Wash., October 8th. Her husband is with the Navy and Jessie grew up in Wasco and graduated from the Wasco High School, so people here are interested and wishing them well along life's highway.

The Leslie Blakeney and Ormand Hilderbrand families picnicked at Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Haven's Sunday.

Mrs. Gladys Zell left Tuesday for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star.

WASCO SCHOOL NOTES

The date of the Junior Prom has been set for Saturday night October 30th and plans are for a good time.

Each Friday the school will have assembly and after a flag salute one room either of the high or grades will be responsible for the program. This coming Friday the program will be given by the 3rd and 4th grades under the direction of Mrs. Jordan. Last Friday they had a flag raising ceremony.

Miss Catherine Fridley, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades, who was ill returned to her duties Tuesday.

The first volley ball game is between Wasco and Moro at Moro Thursday night. Miss Catherine Fridley, coach announces she will have a first and second string playing.

The school library has received better than 100 new books of both fiction and general interest to both high and grade school.

The fact that adults are welcome to attend classes may be of interest to the public. At the present time a number of people of the community are planning to take typing.
