The 7th and 8th grades had the highest room average of 65 2-3 percent. We hope by next week to get a school average of 95 percent so we can get a Minute Man Flag.

There was no school on November 11th. On Wednesday we had an assembly with Armistice Day being the theme of our program.

WASCO SCHOOL NOTES

Because of ill health, Mr. A. Landies resigned as band teacher of Wasco schools and will leave for the home of his daughter Saturday. While here he has done a very splendid work in the school and community and its with regret we have to lose him and hope rest and quiet will help regain his health. He will attend the last assembly Friday A. M. At a recent volleyball game much amusement and fun was caused by the girls town team and the first string. Subpoened were Leslie Blakeney and Larry Nesbitt on the town team, who went down in defeat.

Moro and Wasco volleyball teams played at Moro Monday night. Our first team won to a score of 30 to 26, while the second string lost.

Next Tuesday will be the last volleyball game at Wasco, with Moro and Wasco competing with both the first and second strings. Also the town team will play Moro town team. The public is invited to attend.

At assembly last Friday the juniors and seniors put on an interesting and amusing program. Mrs. Harry Van Gilder substituted for Mrs. Laverne Jordan Tuesday, she being called away.

The annual Band Call day will be held Friday evening, November 19th, and the pupils are busy preparing their solos which may be called for from the audience. The public is urged to come and encourage the band members.

GERMANS KILL ITALIAN MULES

An American Division in the Italian mountains became the envy of others when it received 300 large mules to pack supplies and munitions. As soon as the Germans realized that American Infantrymen were using the animals, they began a systematic slaughter of all the Italian mules they could find.

BRITISH WOMEN GET SPIDER-WEB

Collecting spider-web for precision sighting instruments is one of the duties performed by women in the British Auxiliary Territorial Service. October spider-web in Great Britain, according to experts, is most suitable for sighting instruments. The collection requires a delicate touch and a steady hand. The woman web collector catches a spider with one hand and drops it from one hand to the other. As the spider falls, it spins a fine web. This strand is attached to a metal frame smeared with shellac, and the frames are stored for future use. When this fine strand is not fine enough, ATS craftswomen split a strand in two under the microscope.

EATING is a daily performance, a habit almost universal, praise be.
BUYING FOOD is almost so.
You need a constant, steady, handy source of supply where the larder can be replenished with good food at good prices. That means—

CHILDREN'S SHOES

Some relief from the shortage of youngsters' shoes will be provided about the first of the year by a new supply of children's non-leather shoes for general wear to be sold ration-free. OPA has announced. In general, children up to about eight years of age will benefit. The shoes will have canvas uppers and soles made from remnants and heavy woven fabric, reinforced with vulcanized rubber. Shoes of this type larger than Misses' and Youths' size three will be rationed.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Yes, I'm afraid there's no denyin' it. I... jeeps and trucks and other kinds of... ized equipment have taken the place of... good old horse in modern warfare."
"It's true of lots of things in this... Eben. Every day we hear of new tactics... requirements and new uses of products... instance, take the alcohol that is used... war purposes. In World War 1, this vitri... needed product was used mostly in making... smokeless powder, chemical warfare materi... als and medical supplies. Today it must do... it must provide the base for such... sensible products as synthetic rubber, waterproof glass, lacquers, plastics and... other of our requirements so essential to victory."
"As a result hundreds of millions of gallons are required every year... half of which is being produced by the beverage distilling industry. Bet you didn't know that, Eben."
"As a matter of fact, I didn't, Judge. That's a mighty important war contribution that had escaped me completely."
