

Wasco Couple Married In Yakima Friday

A quiet wedding of a prominent business man and a Rufus lady occurred at Yakima, Wn., Wednesday November 10th, when Mrs. Margaret Leff and Frank Knox were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Bogart at the parsonage. The sister of the groom and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. Loftstrand of Yakima, Wn., were best man and lady. They came to Wasco Thursday and are now at home to their friends in Wasco, who wish them much happiness in the years of their married life.

At the home of Mrs. Dick Yocum Thursday a number of ladies gathered and showered two brides, Mrs. Frank Knox and Mrs. Catharine Tom Westfall and the bride to be Mrs. Edith Hoggard, who is soon becoming the bride of Mr. T. J. Baranger of Stanfield, Oregon. A pleasant afternoon was spent and many lovely gifts received by the honored guests.

Mrs. Catharine Tom Westfall of La Grande is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Tom of Rufus.

Mrs. Owen Barnett submitted to a major operation at The Dalles hospital Wednesday and is recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fridley spent the week end in Portland.

Miss Grace Jackson, National Representative and Field worker of the Red Cross, and Mrs. Naomi Van Gilder were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargent Wednesday night.

Mrs. Esther Stanley left Tuesday on the bus for The Dalles, Portland, Beaverton and later to San Francisco, California to spend the winter.

The Tuesday Afternoon Study club met with Mrs. Ed Dutton, with Mrs. H. Shull co-hostess. After the regular opening form and business was attended to Mrs. Lloyd Royce gave a review of Thanksgiving, the origin of customs of different countries etc. Several members gave short articles and a game was played instead of the usual songs. The hostesses served salad luncheon to a good turn out of members.

Honoring their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Porter of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargent served a dinner Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Van Gilder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Gilder, John and Olive Robinson, Walter Eaton and their house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dutton and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins attended the Taylor funeral in The Dalles Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Van Gilder cut her thumb so badly Saturday evening that several stitches had to be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. William Macnab of Rufus are the proud parents of a baby daughter born this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Garland of Paisley arrived Friday and spent the week end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Deibert Johnson and baby are spending a week in Portland leaving Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Banta and son are up from the valley visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock, Mrs. Banta's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brackett of Portland is visiting friends in Rufus and Wasco.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

land Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Grady are in Portland where Mr. Grady went for medical attention.

Murvel Stone has bought the home of Lave Barnett in the east part of town. Mr. Barnett moved in the small house Cliff Fridley is remodeling, until he can find a suitable place to live.

Those in The Dalles Friday shopping and transacting business were Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDermid, Cliff Fridley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hilderbrand, Mrs. Ida Andrews, Mrs. Syble McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Watkins, Mrs. Anne Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. John Royce, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Royce and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith, Owen Barnett and others.

Mrs. Clayton McCall and baby boy were released from the hospital in The Dalles and returned home Saturday.

A Red Cross meeting at the Moro court house occurred Tuesday with Miss Grace Jackson, state field worker in attendance. County workers were there and Rev. F. L. Cannell and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre attended from Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Landles of Marshfield came for his father A. Landles, our former school band supervisor, who is ill and took him to Marshfield where he will be with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Long. While with the Wasco school he has built up a fine band and many of his former pupils have done some fine competitive work with other organizations. A new man is contemplated to serve in his place and that of Mr. Simpson, recently deceased, with the school bands in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Root made a flying trip to Portland Friday and back Saturday.

The annual library dinner and rug raffle Saturday evening was its usual success financially and otherwise. They took in around $240.00 with very little expense. The rug went to the small son of Lawrence Kaseberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortner of Portland arrived Friday and spent several days with friends.

The Dorcas Class party of the Christian church was held at Mrs. Tom Stricker's home last Wednesday. A pleasant afternoon was had by members and friends.

The WSCS (Ladies Aid) of the Methodist church held their monthly meeting at Mrs. Arthur Smith's home Wednesday afternoon.

A double header volleyball game between the first and second strings and town teams of Moro and Wasco at the Wasco school gymnasium Tuesday evening resulted in a tie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dutton and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins attended the Taylor funeral in The Dalles Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Van Gilder cut her thumb so badly Saturday evening that several stitches had to be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. William Macnab of Rufus are the proud parents of a baby daughter born this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Garland of Paisley arrived Friday and spent the week end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Deibert Johnson and baby are spending a week in Portland leaving Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Banta and son are up from the valley visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock, Mrs. Banta's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brackett of Portland is visiting friends in Rufus and Wasco.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills in Portland, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Jennie Porter, living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W.