

George Updegraff Portable Kitchen for Nazis on Eastern Front Returns To Moro After Trip

Judge and Mrs. George Updegraff returned Wednesday night from their trip to the east coast having visited his brother in Oklahoma, relatives in Pittsburg and in Washington D.C. where George endeavored to get into military government for service overseas. He was unsuccessful as the army and navy are moving men up from the regular services for this duty.

Mrs. Aden Artell left Monday for Beaverton with her sister, Mrs. Nora Jack, who had been here for a few days. She will remain until after the Fourth.

Dr. W. N. Morse of The Dalles was here Sunday afternoon for a call on Mrs. Morse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Moore.

W. F. Jackson was here from The Dalles Tuesday as were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ragsdale. All were looking after their farm holdings in the county.

C. V. Belknap's Barber Shop will be closed from Sunday, July 2nd until Thursday, July 6th.

It is reported that Dan McLachlan is able to sit up a short time each day, although it may be some time before he learns to walk on one leg.

Mrs. George Wilfams learned last week of the death of her sister, Mrs. Flora Church of Druid, Saskatchewan. The sister died but five weeks after the death of a brother at the same town.

Tony Moura was here Wednesday while on his way back to navy camp from his home at Baker where he had been on furlough. Tony says he likes the navy and has signed up for six years of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlan and family have moved back to Moro and are living on the Charley Bullard ranch, working for Bill Schilling.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Neal Freeman spent the week end here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Freeman, coming from Eugene.

Norwood Apperson and Sid Reiser of McMinnville were here Wednesday to adjust the fire loss of Theodore von Borstel on his barn which burned Friday morning. They also visited the Frazer farm to look over the saddle horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket will begin their vacation next week and Lloyd Hennagin will come up from Portland to take charge of the bank during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller returned home Monday night after a trip to Salem to see their daughter, Mrs. William McKinney and family. The McKinnies have moved to Salem recently as he is to be in charge of agricultural education in the Salem schools.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schaeffer came home from a two weeks visit in Portland Monday evening.

David McLeod, now nearly three years in navy uniform, came home last week to visit his parents and friends around Moro. His sister, Mrs. Helen Kruger, came up from Portland and his father from Gilliam county to make a family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell came up from Portland this week to remain for a time on their farm here.

L. E. Langford of Rufus was a visitor here Thursday afternoon. The Sherman riders will ride again July 2 starting from the fair grounds and riding over the country north of Moro. They will picnic at the Jess Landry home. Twenty six were out the last ride.

Dan McLoughlin was over from Condon Thursday to meet with George Updegraff. The two are in partnership in the abstract business in Gilliam and Wheeler counties.

John Stiles says Tuesday is a poor day for Sherman Countians to leave home because they can't stop at Stiles on the Deschutes for cats or drinks. But Stiles is open every other day from 8 in the morning until 10 at night.

This picture, received through a neutral source, shows members of a German anti-aircraft gun crew snatching a few moments from Russian air attack to grab a bite to eat, somewhere on the Russian front. The food which they seem to be eating with great relish, apparently was prepared on a portable stove.

Weather has been generally cool for the past week although Wednesday and Thursday were warmer. A high wind blew Monday to change the air around Sherman county wheat fields. Wheat in the north end of the county is pretty well made and any damage that happened to it will have to come soon. Farther south there is still danger of hot weather damage, the extent of which depends on the weather man.

J. E. Torbet, who was principal at Kent last year, was moved to Salem by Vernon Platt this week. Mrs. Edna Waterman, the other Kent high school teacher, has been sent a contract to teach at Moro this coming school year.

No celebrations or other means of observing the Fourth of July have been announced in this district and other than a few picnics the day will probably be used for hay pitching.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I can't think of anything else you'll need for your Victory garden, Judge... you've got pretty nearly everything."

"I think so, too, John. Ever get your asparagus patch going?"

"I gave that up last year, Judge. Tried it six years in a row with no luck. Just haven't got the right soil, I guess?"

"Well, I think you're wise, John... no use keeping on trying things you know won't work. Just like prohibition. State-wide prohibition has been tried in this country seventy-two times in the last ninety years. It has been adopted forty-seven times in the past thirty-three years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Same thing was tried in eight provinces in Canada and in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia but it was an admitted failure and universally abandoned.

"The reason is prohibition does not prohibit. All you get is bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor, plus no end of crime and corruption."
