CAMPAIGN ISSUES

As far as this newspaper is concerned this issue closes the election campaign for 1944. It has been a most interesting one because of the peculiar things that have happened while it has been in progress.

The writer is not a friend of the new deal, as even the casual reader might have guessed long ago.
It appears to him to be opposed to many things that go to make up the American ideal of government. It is not Republican or Republican doctrine is one of expanding economies, of aid and support to American business and American enterprise, of foreign trade with all nations. Neither is the new deal Democratic in origin for Democrats were given to economy in national government, and the new deal has not been economical.

The nation is now at the end of its worst war. Whether the actual end occurs before the inauguration or not, the major part of the next presidential term will be after the end of the war. It will be a different world in many respects.

It seems elementary that this nation needs a man young enough and strong enough to look to the future. Dewey has talked of what should be brought about in 1948; Roosevelt is still talking about the thirties. That is indicative of a difference in viewpoint and in age.

There has been much talk of foreign policy and it has been a difficult subject because this nation has no foreign policy. At least none that has been expressed in concrete terms. We have aided England and Russia in the war, but that is hardly a policy. What is going to be our policy now?

This week we stopped calling Chang Kai Shek a hero and a leader of a great people and started calling him a bum, a selfish partisan and other things not inclined to endear us to the Chinese people. If we had any policy toward China it is demonstrably subject to change without notice.
Like OPA prices.

If in twelve years Roosevelt has been unable to develop a foreign policy it is not likely that he will be able to develop one while other nations are making the peace. We have been subservient to England, have alienated South America, now China.

The people have been denied information about foreign affairs and were it not for Churchill's talks before parliament we would know as little about our foreign policy as do the Russians about Stalin's policy. That, in itself, is reason enough for defeat of the president when there is a peace to be made.

During the entire campaign there has come over this editorial desk no line from the Democratic headquarters, either national or state, except the weekly clip sheet, which goes on year after year whether there is a campaign or not. The CIO-PAC has sent stuff regularly. The CIO-PAC has carried the campaign for Roosevelt, not the Democrats. We have received material from southern states, and southern senators opposing Roosevelt, none favoring him from Democrats.

We, therefore, cannot be convinced that Democrats of the old school will vote for Roosevelt with a clear conscience. It will certainly hurt those millions who have American deals to vote for any even for the fourth term. It will certainly not be easy to make a cross for a man who has turned their party over to the radicals.
They may do it. We respect them too much to believe it will be easy for them.

Of especial interest to farmers is the influence of the CIO-PAC.
The re-election of Roosevelt, if achieved at all, will be because of its work. That means that first consideration will go to radical labor during the fourth term. Midwest farmers oppose Roosevelt and if he is re-elected farmers will not be the fair-haired boys.

The new deal is not Democratic, nor Republican, nor even so Communist. Its philosophy stems rather from the big city machines from which so many of its leaders came. It is Tammany hall, "I am the law" Hague's Jersey, Kelley's Chicago, Crump's Memphis, Pendergast's Kansas City that have been broadened to include the entire nation. If ever this nation needed a house cleaning in Washington to let the sunshine of public information shine, it is now.

Like the big city machines the new deal has expended money for political power. Administration of laws has been very bad. Duplication of authority, men given duties without power, men given power without responsibility, have been frequent. Who wants to uphold the hand of Hopkins, of the blatant Ickes, of Hague?

Dewey is a serious young man who wants to give American industry a chance to give employment to all Americans instead of having the government establish the dole again after the war.
Whether it can be done or not, no one can say. But, it will have to be done if this nation is not to become totalitarian. We can be a vigorous country if we but resolve to look ahead to our future instead of fearing to turn loose the energy of Americans. Let's go ahead for a change. Let's change to go ahead.

MEASURES MEASURED

The following recommendations about the nine measures are made because full discussions of them have not been made because of public interest in other and generally more important matters. Information about them has come to the attention of the writer and the recommendations are made on that information.

AMENDMENT TO PROVIDE ALTERNATIVE MEANS FOR SECURING BANK DEPOSITORS.
This puts state banks in the same category as national banks.

VOTE 300 x YES

AMENDMENT AUTHORIZING
CHANGE TO MANAGERIAL
FORM OF COUNTY GOVERN-MENT. This is permissive legislation and has been favored by nearly all who have studied it.

OREGON WAR VETERANS
FUND PROVIDING TAX THERE-FOR. This amendment is to loan money to returning veterans. It duplicates the federal GI bill, puts a tax levy in the constitution. It is of doubtful necessity.

VOTE 305 x NO

AMENDMENT TO AUTHOR-IZE LEGISLATIVE REGUL-ATION OF VOTING PRIVILEGE FORFEITURE. This amendment will give legislature right to give prisoners back their right to vote.

BILL PROVIDING EDUCA-TIONAL AID TO CERTAIN
VETERANS WORLD WAR II
Although partially duplicating the GI bill, this would provide means of learning trade or profession for veterans.

BILL IMPOSING TAX ON RE-TAIL SALES OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY. This is the sales tax bill, a good one of its kind, but not needed.

BURKE BILL; ONLY STATE
SELLING LIQUOR OVER 14
HUNDREDTHS PERCENT AL-COHOL. This bill will put the sale of fortified wine in the liquor stores. May not be very effective but a start.

VOTE 312 YES

CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-MENT INCREASING STATE
TAX FUND FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL SUPPORT. A constitutional amendment that freezes a tax on the people. A dangerous bill for taxpayers.

MENT PROVIDING MONTHLY
ANNUITIES FROM A GROSS INCOME TAX. Gross income tax would take from 3 to 5 percent from all transactions. Extremely dangerous.

In Other Days

evening when the Venable farm home located near the bluffs overlooking the Columbia river at Ru-his friends by going into farm op-scale larger than ever. He will have a section of EOL Co. land, besides 320 acres bought of C. P.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County: John A. Joyce, plaintiff, vs. Jack Reynolds and Margaret Reynolds, defendants.

To Jack Reynolds and Margaret Reynolds, defendants:
IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you, and each of you, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh Cracker-barrel versus Dog House

Most of the political conventions in our town are held around the cracker-barrel—in Sam Abernethy's store.

We were settling how the country should be run the other night when Homer Watson started to put in a word.

"Wait a minute, Homer," Sam said sharply, "did you vote in the last election?"

"Well," Homer fumbled, "I was awful busy just at the time."

"That don't matter," Sam insisted. "Free speech around this cracker-barrel is for them who help protect it—and all the other freedoms in America—by voting. Folks that just talk freedom don't count here."

From where I sit, it doesn't make any difference how you vote—the important thing is that you do vote. Call it a sacred right if you want to, but to me, it is the bedrock of the whole idea of democracy.

filed against you, and each of you, in the above entitled suit on or before four weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, and if you, or either of you, fail so to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will take a judgment and decree against you, and each of you, as follows:

(1) For the sum of $500.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum from October 14, 1935; the further sum of $1.95 as taxes paid on real property being foreclosed in this suit; and for the further sum of $125.00 attorney's fees and for plaintiff's costs of disbursement of suit made and expended herein.

(2) That the said decree shall provide that the said mortgage mentioned in the complaint and the said real property described therein, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances, be sold by the Sheriff of Sherman County, Oregon, after giving legal notice thereof in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property under mortgage foreclosure proceedings.

(3) That the proceeds of said sale be applied (1) in payment of the costs of said sale; (2) costs and disbursement of suit; (3) in payment of attorney's fees heretofore mentioned; (4) principal and interest due on account of said promissory note described in said mortgage.

(4) That the plaintiff may become a purchaser at said sale and that the Sheriff execute a deed to the purchaser, and that said purchaser be let into the possession of the premises on production of the Sheriff's deed therefor.

(5) That the said plaintiff may have judgment and execution against the defendants for any deficiency which may remain after applying all of the proceeds of the sale of said premises properly applicable to the satisfaction of said judgment, and that the plaintiff may have such other or further relief as to this Court may seem just and equitable.

The date of the first publication of this Summons is the 20th day of October, 1944.

PROHIBITION AND
ITS COMPANION EVILS
1. Is it fair to the Service Men while they are away?
Approximately 100,000 service men and women from Oregon cannot vote on this question. Is it fair to permit prohibition to be slipped over again in 1944 as was done in 1918? You can protect them by voting 313 X NO!
2. If they get away with this, will all Beverages be next?
So far this "Burke Bill" pertains only to beverages over 14% alcohol by volume. But if they slip over this much—the light beverages will be NEXT! You can protect yourself by voting 313 X NO.
3. What will this "Joker" do right now?
It will prohibit you from serving any guests your usual hospitality beverages in your club or at home—unless you want to risk severe penalties. Look out for this dangerous
"JOKER".
