

Mrs. R. Powell Escapes Injury In Car Accident

Mrs. Ronald Powell started for Spokane Tuesday morning expecting to stay there and visit with her husband who is in the hospital at Camp Farragut Idaho with septic sore throat. Shortly after passing Lind, Wash., Mrs. Powell found the road slick and blocked by other vehicles causing her to slip off the road overturning her car and breaking it up rather badly. She was uninjured and continued her journey. Her small son remained here with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose of Portland stopped here one day last week to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Foss. They lived here years ago when Mr. Rose was in business and Mrs. Rose was Lillian Stanley.

Leaving for physical examination Tuesday were Leland Schwendel, Gerald Nisbet, George Jensen, and Leonard Lutje from this county and accompanying them were Roy Gillman and John G. Lind. School ended for the Christmas holidays this afternoon and teachers left for their homes to spend a few days with parents.

Mrs. Beth Mersinger Green and son, Eddie, came last week to spend the holiday season here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mersinger. She lives in Montana.

Stuart Johnson is here from Salem this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Barnum came Tuesday evening to visit relatives in this part of the county leaving Thursday for their home near Bend.

Mrs. Collis Moore came home from Portland Monday evening after having been in the city a week with Mrs. Ernie Moore, who is recovering from a recent operation.

Warning is given by Ralph Brubaker that at this time of year when power lines may be down it is dangerous to pick up loose wires or wire tangling from trees as it may be charged and dangerous.

The Moro Basketball team went to Goldendale Wednesday night and lost a close game by a score of 29 to 21.

Word from George DeMoss is that he has been promoted to the rank of Motor Mechanist Mate second class and is still serving at Pearl Harbor. John E. DeMoss is still in the South Pacific.

Clifford Kenny came home Tuesday evening from overseas duty in France and has until January 16 to remain at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kenny and other relatives and friends around Moro.

Mrs. George Drinkard took suddenly ill Monday and was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. The Standard Bearer girls met at 5 o'clock for their fellowship dinner and regular meeting and exchange of gifts. The high school met at 8:00 P.M. at which time they sang Christmas carols for the slush-ins. They met afterwards to celebrate Patricia Kaseberg and Jimmy White's birthday. The Junior League had a Christmas party for their mothers Monday evening. A lovely lunch was served with Mrs. Nisbet pouring.

Grand Master Leaves On Trip To Lodges

H. D. Proudfoot left this week to conduct District Meetings for the Masonic Grand lodge at Ashland, Klamath Falls, Nyssa, Prairie City and Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baldwin of Hood River were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Shelton.

Miss Mary Marshall of Tacoma, Washington, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McKee.

The W.S.C.S. held their Christmas party at Mrs. Tidwell's home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Johnson were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson Sunday evening. They were on their way to Portland where Mrs. Johnson visited her father.

Mrs. Lawrence Edwards left Friday for Farragut, Idaho, to spend a week with her husband, who is the chaplain's assistant.

Visitors in The Dalles Monday were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Root, Mrs. Art Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dermid, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent and Billy Wallace.

Mrs. George Drinkard took suddenly ill Monday and was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

The Standard Bearer girls met at 5 o'clock for their fellowship dinner and regular meeting and exchange of gifts. The high school met at 8:00 P.M. at which time they sang Christmas carols for the slush-ins. They met afterwards to celebrate Patricia Kaseberg and Jimmy White's birthday.

The Junior League had a Christmas party for their mothers Monday evening. A lovely lunch was served with Mrs. Nisbet pouring.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson is spending the week in Portland.

Mrs. Larry Funk returned from the hospital Saturday.

Doris and Eileen Scott of Portland were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nisbet.

Dean Barnett spent the week end with his father Lefe Barnett. Danny Kaseberg returned home Sunday evening for a short furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Blakeney and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Ormand Hilderbrand Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paty of Bellingham, Wash., parents of Mrs. L. P. Haven are spending the holidays with them.

One measure of the congestion on war needs is the fact that the War Production Board finds output of farm machinery, exclusive of wheeled tractors, repair parts and attachments, about 25 per cent behind manufacturers' schedules for the four months ending October 31. Military needs more critical than in recent months are creating shortages in components for farm machinery.

Dr. Vance A. McNish
CHIROPODIST
Telephone ATwater 5428
916 SELLING BUILDING
PORTLAND 5, OREGON

T. Lester Johnson
LAWYER
WASCO

AND A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS
NEW YEAR TO EACH AND ALL

FROM

DOUMA'S MARKET

SHOE REPAIR
PERCY THOMPSON
MAIN STREET, MORO
Work Done Well and Quickly

and best wishes for a

Merry Christmas

and

Happy and Victorious

New Year

MRS. B. ESTELLE HAILEY

MERRY CHRISTMAS
AND A
HAPPY NEW YEAR
TO ALL

BUCHOLTZ CONFECTIONERY
PAUL CYPHERS

J. C. Freeman & Co.

Want Ads

TAKEN UP: Red steer, coming two, branded rafter L over bar, on left shank. - D. Reckman, Grass Valley. 5-7pd

LOST: Black cocker Spaniel. Clyde Stradley, Grass Valley. 7p

FOR SALE: 6 and 10 foot windmills with 30 and 40 foot towers; several electric and gasoline pressure water systems for shallow and deep wells; 30, 40, and 82 gallon automatic electric water heaters that can be sold on farm priorities; plumbing fixtures and septic tanks that can be sold without priorities. Gillenwaller's Hardware, Goldendale, Wn. 7-9c

GEORGE C. UPDEGRAFF
Attorney At Law
Moro and Wasco

WASCO MARKET

Merry Christmas

and Happy New Year Greetings

and a most
Happy and Prosperous
New Year
from the
Wasco Pharmacy

W. T. BALSIGER
INSURANCE

wishes happiest seasons greetings

and best wishes for a joyous

New Year

Merry Christmas

and a most Happy and Peaceful New Year
is the wish of the

J. K. McKean Company

and a Happy New Year is the holiday wish of the

Sherman Cooperative
Grain Growers

A Merry Christmas

and a
Prosperous and Victorious
New Year

to all is the wish of the

Moro Grain Growers

The Sherman County Branch

First National Bank of Portland

wishes a Merry Merry Christmas

and a Happy and Peaceful New Year

a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year
May & Son

PEACE ON EARTH GOOD WILL
TO MEN IS A BLESSING
NEEDED THIS CHRISTMAS DAY
MAY THE SEASON BRING JOY

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT