SOLDIER'S POEM

Mrs John Rust received this poem from her husband who is serving with the army in France.

To A Poor Civilian
What do you know of war?
Have you heard the 88s
Come screaming through the air,
With their song of death and hate?
Have you heard the burp guns chatter?
Have you ducked when Meemies scream?
Have you heard the singing laughter
Of the rifle's deadly stream?
How'd you like a foxhole

Given Two Honors

Comdr. Harold E. Stassen, former Republican governor of Minnesota, who was named by President Roosevelt to the United Nations conference at San Francisco. He was recently decorated for his naval work.

With water to your knees?
Or an outpost on a mountain
With winds that make you freeze?
Have you ever made an all night march
Through rain and mud and slush,
To meet the Jerries in the dawn
And beat him to the punch?
Have you heard the last soft whispers,
"Tell mom I love her so,
Get word to Mary and the kid,
Promise! Will ya Joe?"
Sure, we know it's tough; no sugar
No meat or cigarettes.
And now its no more gasoline,
Nor any racing bets.
But let me tell you brother,
You are a lucky guy!
You may not get that extra quart,
But you don't have to die!

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Adding another War Bond to your collection, eh, Judge?"
"Yes, Josh, I've always looked upon buying Bonds as one of the best ways older folks like me here at home can help our fighting men overseas. For the past couple of years I've put every extra cent I had into them... not only during the War Bond drives... but on a regular basis. Of course, when there's a drive on I always try to buy an extra one or two."

"We've done the same in our family, too, Judge. We figure the more we buy... the better we equip our men... the quicker they'll finish their big job and come marching home again."
"That's the spirit, Josh. And let's be sure of one more thing. Let's be sure that they come back to the same kind of place they left. While they are away and can't express their opinions, let's not make any decisions on things that are going to concern them in years to come."

Problem of Naming Planes

Many combat fliers name planes in honor of their wives. That makes the job simple. But others lay awake nights with the problem.

Here are some of the names of planes which operate off the strip on the island where a marine aircraft group is stationed:
"Song of Bernadette," "Round Trip," "One O'Clock Jump," "Melancholy Baby," "Millie Lou," "Midnight Train to Memphis," "Loaded Lady," "My Devotion," "Chief Wahoo," and "Hell's-a-poppin'."

Red Cross Fund Oversubscribed By 10 percent

Close of the Red Cross drive in Sherman county found the treasurer with $6125.70 on hand with which to fill the county quota of $5500.00, a quota that was in excess of $3 per capita of the county. Returns of the last week included $30 from the Pacific Power & Light company and $51.50 from the enlisted personnel at Rufus which was but a fifth of their total donation, the remaining four-fifths being sent to Wasco county. The drive has been successful in the county, the goal having been reached very early.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Greet a Wounded Soldier

Charlie Jenkins got back from overseas the other day, discharged for wounds... and he was pretty well banged up.

Naturally, our town felt mighty bad about it. We wanted to sympathize with him and help him. But Doc Walters set us straight about that.

He said that what Charlie wanted most was to be accepted as one of the gang again... as if nothing had happened. So we asked him over to pitch horseshoes with his good hand, and enjoy a friendly glass of beer and chew the fat like old times.

And you should have seen him pick up! From being scared of meeting people, Charlie got his confidence back and soon became his own self again.

From where I sit, Doc Walters gave us the right steer. The wounded men coming home don't want our sympathy or our overenthusiastic help. They want to be treated like the rest of us... with a chance to work and lead a normal life. And that's the least we can offer them.
