

Pioneers Here For Visit With Home Country

Jay Price of North Bonneville and Martin Massiker of Grants Pass came up from The Dalles Saturday night after the last meeting of the pioneer's association to visit relatives here. Monday they went to Bend with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barnum to spend a few days.

Mrs. Grace Smith spent the week end here with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Woods and family, returning to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barzee are home from Portland after several weeks spent in the city.

Harry Kunsman, Free Crews and Tom Striker went to their Blue mountain cabin Friday for the weekend to see how it had stood the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrell Bennett will be transferred from Coos Bay to The Dalles about the middle of this month, says Ralph Brisbane, father of Mrs. Bennett. Carrell is employed by the First National Bank.

The First National Bank has purchased the Margaret Peetz house from the heirs of S-Sgt. Carl Peetz and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Close have moved in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket and son, Paul left the middle of the week for Heppner to spend a few days before going on to Lakeview where he will report Monday morning to become assistant manager of the Lakeview branch of the First National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Douma and daughter, Gloria, attended the wedding of Mrs. Douma's niece in Bend last Sunday. Miss Eunice McMeen was married to Daren Roberts of Richmond, Washington, now serving in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ruggles and children are here this week to visit relatives and friends, coming from St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Roberson entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket. A group of friends were in for the evening.

Mrs. Orville Hockman has received word from her sister, Grace, that their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cothran had an auto wreck April 17 that injured Mrs. Cothran severely. Her face was jammed into the windshield breaking her jaw and knocking out nearly all of her teeth. She is in San Francisco for hospitalization. Jack was jarred pretty well but not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Balsiger returned from Portland Tuesday evening after a couple days in the city.
