

H W Champneys Dies Suddenly At Washington Home

Word was received here by Geo. G. Updegraff that H. W. Champneys, former bank liquidator of the banks in this county, had died suddenly at his home near Seattle. Mr Champneys was here during the thirties when the banks were being settled by the state examiner. He came from Burns.

Mrs Julia Hansen was here Monday on business and for a visit with her sister, Mrs Leon Moore.

Mrs Frances Henrichs returned from Camp Sherman last week leaving her daughter, Mrs Richard Campbell and daughter at that resort. Mrs Henrichs and her daughter, Maxine, will remain during harvest.

Charles Ruggles went to Klondike Tuesday to help his father a day or so as some of the harvest crew were ill.

Dry grass in the southwest end of town was burned Monday night with the aid of neighbors and the city fire truck as stand by.

Mr and Mrs Collis Moore and Mr and Mrs Giles French drove to Bossil Sunday on a business trip.

M. M. Oveson drove to Portland Saturday, taking his sons, Dick and Steve with him. The doctor permitted Dick to remove the blinders from his eyes and he appears well on the way to recovery of complete sight.

Mrs Dick Lockhart and son Roger, and a friend drove over from Yakima, Washington Saturday to spend the week end here visiting friends.

E. R. Barzee came up from Portland last week to superintend the harvesting of the Barzee land here.

Mrs Collis Moore went to Portland Tuesday to attend the wedding of her sister, Mrs Janet George to Vincent Graue, which was held Tuesday evening in Portland. Mrs Moore returned Wednesday accompanied by Mrs Darwin Van Gilder and Miss Betty Olds, who were in the city on business.

Wily Knighten has been working at the experiment station while harvesting is going on there.

A news story from Stevens county Washington tells of the exploit of Roger Wilson, who was decorated in Germany for taking his commanding officer out of a damaged tank through shell fire to a position of safety. Wilson worked on the Tom Frazer ranch for a year or more before going into the service.

Muriel McKean is here this week to visit her brother, Keck, and family.

Corliss McLeod is home on a leave from the navy and is spending a part of his time here with his mother, Mrs A.W. McLeod. His sister, Pat, and daughter are also here for a visit.

Neal Ruggles, son of Mr and Mrs Star Ruggles drove by Moro Wednesday night while on his way to Redmond for a truck load of hay.

P. N. Lemmon of Albany was in town Thursday having come up earlier in the week to see about his wheat crop on his farm near Klondike which is farmed by Walter Bruckert.

J. B. Adams was here last week end for a day or so, but returned to Ontario where he is attending to Eastern Oregon Land company business for the summer. The company has hay land and beet land in crop there and is practically out of wheat land in Sherman county.

Imogene Johnson was here Monday and Tuesday to visit her sister, Mr Lamer Sayrs. She came from Hermiston where she is local manager for the Consolidated Freighways.

Doyle Hayward, power division manager for the Pacific Power & Light company, was here Thursday to make some tests on the power lines of the county.

A small fire burned several acres of stubble and standing wheat on the Jim Kenny place Tuesday before it could be put out by the crews of two combines, a fortunate thing considering the dryness of the day.

C. A. Ruggles
INSURANCE
Moro Oregon

Mrs Edith Sayrs is here this week to visit and look after her crop. She has been living in Portland this summer.

Mrs Marjorie Marvin received word Tuesday that her husband, Bob Marvin, had arrived in New York and would be sent to Camp Lewis for processing for furlough. He is expected home early next week.

Clyde Kiddle, who is in charge of the new crop insurance plan in Oregon, and Merle Cummins, AAA fieldman for this district were in Moro Wednesday while on an inspection trip over eastern Oregon.

C. F. Lemmon of Gresham was a guest at the Moro Hotel Wednesday night while on one of his periodic trips to Sherman county.

Cecil Fields moved his machine to the Esta May Powell land west of town this week to begin cutting the crop on that land.

Connie Wilson returned from Wawawai, Washington, where she had been visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs I. E. Wilson.

Mrs Gene Lockett left Monday for New York to visit with her parents whom she has not seen since coming to the west.

Miss Luella Welsh spent the week end here with relatives, coming from Portland to which town she returned Tuesday.

Mrs Elizabeth Schaeffer went to Prineville last Friday to attend the annual pioneer's picnic held there Sunday. She returned Sunday evening with Mr and Mrs Charley Powell who had driven up that day for the occasion.

Faye Thompson is here to spend a part of the summer months with her parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson.

Mrs May Belashee was down from her summer home at Camp Sherman last week end to see how things were going on the farm. Latest word from C. V. Belknap is that he has had his teeth pulled and expects to get better soon. In the meantime D. W. Nish is growing a beard.

Wheat loans are being made rapidly these days as farmers finish their cutting and begin to realize some financial remuneration from the crop.

Want Ads

FOR SALE: 7 ft. cedar posts, 18 & 21 inch posts and better 3d cents per post delivered any place here. G. L. Briggs, phone 6463 or write Gen. Del. The Dalles, Oregon 22-tfv

COUNTY AGENTS—History W. war II. 1100 pages, beautiful, authentic, 200 photos & maps $5.50 Write Box 947, Portland 7, Ore

WANTED: Breakfast cook. Paul Cypfers. 40c

FOR SALE: By Cluster's Auto. Government surplus trucks, 1939-1942 Dodge, Chevrolet, Ford and G.M.C., to be sold to holders of AAA certificates. Vehicles located near south city limits of Redmond Oregon on highway 97, sale begins August 6, 1945 and to continue through August 20. 40-1c

SHOE REPAIR
FERCY THOMPSON
MAIN STREET, MORO
Work Done Well and Quickly

Wasco Elevator Job Done; Crew Goes To Idaho

The Hoganson Construction crew has dwindled down to eight. At the beginning of the construction of the new elevator annex there were 25 or 30 men employed. They will have completed this job here the last of the week. Some of the crew went to Pocatello, Idaho, to work on the construction of a new elevator there.

Malcolm Buchelder left Saturday for Hobbs, New Mexico after a visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs Etta Evans and Mrs Harley Dutton were Sunday guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Leo Watkins Mrs Etta Evans of Moro spent Saturday night with Mrs Harley Dutton.

SS-c Robert Berryman of Bremerton was visiting this week here. He had a three day leave.

Lavelle Gosson went to Portland Sunday for a few days visit.

Mrs Martin and Mrs Huxel, who have been visiting for the past ten days at the George VanGaasbeck home returned to their home in Arlington a few days ago.

Perry Shelton, son of Hal Shelton, who has been in the South Pacific theater of war is expected home next week.

Jane Byrd, who has been a guest at the W. A. Medler home for two weeks returned to her home in Kennewick last week.

Bob McDonald of Portland spent the week end at the home of Mr and Mrs W. A. Medler.

Joe Brackett was here from Portland the latter part of last week looking after farm interests around Wasco and Moro.

Sunday August 6th the government thermometer registered 99 degrees in Wasco. The hottest day was July 7th when the register showed 104 degrees. Monday August 6th the mercury again climbed to 104 degrees.

Mr and Mrs Carl Mell have as guests at their home, Mr and Mrs Kenneth Glibreth of The Dalles. Dorothy Mae Anderson entertained with a little party at her home Friday of last week. Jean McIntyre, Patricia Kaseberg and Lorraine Sunderland were her guests.

Joan Burres and Patricia Kaseberg were Sunday guests at the home of Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand.

Lesley Blakley of Portland was a weekend guest at the O. G. Hilderbrand home.

Mr and Mrs Byron Kinsley of The Dalles were Sunday guests at the home of Mr and Mrs R. H. McKean.

Martha Hastings and son, Robby, and Jessie Anfang attended a movie in The Dalles Sunday.

Mr and Mrs O. T. Hansen were in The Dalles Friday of last week for the purpose of having Mrs Hansen's finger tanced. She had a felon.

Mr and Mrs Fred Cole visited at the homes of Tom and Ed Alley Sunday in Grass Valley.

It was reported that two locust trees are in bloom on the Methodist church lot, which is very unusual as locust trees usually bloom in the late spring or early summer.

Mr and Mrs R. W. Packard and daughter and Mrs Kindt and daughter Ada spent the weekend at the T. L. Fields home in Rufus. Ada remained for a two weeks visit.

Mr and Mrs H.F. Haley of Rufus have sold their property and have moved to Rockaway to live.

There was a birthday party Sunday August 6th at the home of Ruth Fields in honor of Miss Catherine Fridley. Those present were Mr and Mrs Earl Fields and daughter Gladys, Mr and Mrs Ira Fridley daughter, Joan, Mr and Mrs Wayne Bartron, Leland Schwendel and Raymond Douglas. It was a complete surprise to Miss Fridley.

Mr and Mrs C. R. Morrison were The Dalles shoppers Monday. Charley Harper accompanied them to his home there.

Dr Greisinger of Portland spent the weekend at his farm which is operated by Fred Dormaier.

Mrs William Powell of The Dalles visited at the L. E. Winnett home over the week end.

Mr and Mrs J. F. Foss of Moro Mrs J. M. Matteson and son, John were Sunday guests at the Lawrence Kaseberg home.

Pte Clyde Fridley Jr., Air Force Cadet, arrived home Monday from Hobbs, New Mexico to spend a twenty-two day furlough visiting relatives and friends.

Mr and Mrs Wilbur Miller, Lower Miller and Harry Coghill were in Hood River Sunday.

Lavelle Guy of Portland was a week end guest at the F. S. Lamborn home.

Mrs W. F. Freeman and son, David of The Dalles were guests two days last week of Mr and Mrs L. P. Haven.

Mr and Mrs Pardy Rich and Mrs Arthur Van Gilder went to Portland Sunday and returned the same day.

Tuesday of last week there was a birthday party held at the home of Mr and Mrs Leo Watkins in honor of their daughter Joan's eleventh birthday. Those present sixth birthday of little Stephen Walsh, quite a number of children met in the city park to help him celebrate the occasion. Those present were Nancy Shelton, Kathy Walsh, Sally Fields, Carmen Royce, Sterling Gochauer, Darlene Gochauer, Janny McIntyre, Lee and Terry Kaseberg, Betty Lou Haven, Larry Smith, Jeanette Belshie, Phyllis and Shirley Watkins, Everett Royce, Robby Hastings and Michael Fields.

One Legged Pitcher

Lt. Bert Shepard, shot down after 34 missions over Germany, with the loss of one leg, recently pitched four innings against the famous Brooklyn Dodgers in a Washington charity game. He is shown warming up before the game started.

CHURCHES

Moro Community Presbyterian Church
James D. Moberg, pastor.
Bible School 10 a. m.
Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.
Sermon "Jesus Honors Faith"
Wed. 8:00 P. M. Prayer meeting

Christian Science Society
Sunday morning services at 11:30 a. m. Subject "LOVE" includes testimonials of healing.
The reading room in the rear of the building is open. All authorized Christian Science literature can be bought or borrowed.
Wednesday night service at 8

WASCO METHODIST CHURCH
Sunday School 10 A. M.
F. L. Cannell, Pastor

GAS AND OIL
Tires--Accessories
R. H. MCKEAN and SON
Insurance
Grain, Feed, Flour, Fuel
Farm Implements, Bags, Twine
BARBED WIRE--GOOD POSTS
PHONES
Feedstore Office Residence
163 162 182
WASCO OREGON

How to keep trucking along RPM

Right now, when your truck must keep going, RPM Heavy Duty Motor Oil is your best bet! For blended with its selected base oil are special, patented compounds. These prevent ring-sticking...keep oil passages open...make for long, repair-free motor life. (By government directive, RPM Heavy Duty Motor Oil is not available for cars and trucks under 1/2 ton.)

C. R. Anderson, Grass Valley, Phone 232
J. C. Wilson, Wasco, Phone 552

Your local representative for STANDARD OF CALIFORNIA

Harvest BALL

MORO LEGION HALL

SATURDAY, AUG. 11

American Legion, Sponsor
Jim's Cascadians, Music

GRAIN GROWERS

...SPECIFY THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

When your County Agricultural Conservation Committee prepares your loan papers, be sure to specify this Branch of the First National Bank of Portland.
You'll receive prompt and efficient service.

SHERMAN COUNTY BRANCH
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PORTLAND
Oregon's Leading Merchant of Credit

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION