

Marius Douma, Chester Coats Home Again

Mrs Marius Douma received word last Friday that her husband was to get out of the navy Sunday noon. Mrs Chester Coats also was informed that her husband would be discharged from the army Sunday evening. The two women and small sons drove to Yakima where they met Marius and Mrs Coats went on to Camp Lewis to greet her husband, who had never seen his son.

A. C. McKinney, organizer for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, was here the first of the week talking to veterans.

Mike Mulick was in Portland Tuesday on business for the Moro Lumber & Fuel company.

E. E. Barnum came home from Bend Saturday after spending several weeks there.

VITAL VICTORY FACTS about the great Victory Loan and how important it is to you and the business of your farm to buy EXTRA bonds in this final loan!

Seven times during the war you've been asked to buy extra bonds to win Victory. Our fighting men have finished their job... let's finish ours! Buy extra bonds now!

Victory Bonds will help pay the tremendous cost of winning the war. They will help bring our boys back home... will supply the finest of medical care for our wounded.

Field by millions of Americans, bonds will provide a reserve to assure jobs for veterans, for other workers. They will help maintain prosperity for you and your community.

By buying bonds rather than scarce goods, we help keep the lid on prices... keep our pledge to fighting men to guard their dollars' value. We prevent inflation... and depression.

Victory Bonds form a reserve for "rainy days," provide a backlog for needed farm repairs, for buildings, improved stock... if current income fails to cover them.

They hold dollars in store for our children's education. Victory Bonds purchased today, will provide the scientific training so necessary in the world of tomorrow.

Victory "E" Bonds return $4 at maturity for every $3. The safest investment in the world, after 60 days, they are immediately convertible into cash if necessary.

Buy Victory Bonds to start your own annuity fund. Followed up with regular purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds, Victory Bonds will permit you to enjoy later years in comfort.

BUY VICTORY BONDS!
