Teachers Learn of Health Course Exercises

Willy Knighten and some of the teachers in the county were in The Dalles Monday and Tuesday to attend a series of lessons given by the state education department's health instructors, who were sent out to instruct teachers and principals in health. The last legislature passed a bill making more definite the things that must be taught in a health course and the teachers were being taught first.

Mrs Lester Barnum came home Saturday from her trip to Mountain City, Tenn., where she was called on account of the illness and death of her mother. Mr Barnum met her in The Dalles.

and son of Portland were here last week end as guests of Mr and Mrs Paul May. The women are sisters. Mr and Mrs Narvin Howard have been here for some weeks visiting her sister, Mrs Vernon Platt. The Howards come from North Dakota.

Mr and Mrs John Frates of California and Mr and Mrs Robert Gillmor were here for a visit at the Clyde Gillmor home, the Frates coming Friday and Bob Gillmor and wife Sunday. Bob is on his way to Schenectady, New York again.

Frank Sayrs, Dean Pinkerton, Howard Conlee and Bob Roberson drove to Eugene to see the Oregon OSC football struggle last Saturday, taking Pat Pinkerton with them from Salem. They report it was an exciting game.

Mrs Marjorie Norton was here last week end from Portland to see her father, R.C. Byers, who returned from the hospital at that time, some what recovered from a recent stroke.

Mr and Mrs W.H. Ragdale were up from The Dalles Tuesday to say that their son, Harry, was back in the states and would be home in a few days for Christmas if not for good. He has been in the South Pacific and expects terminal leave.

Donald Martin fell while getting out of his granary one day last week and broke his arm just above the wrist which will keep him laid up for several weeks.

Announcements have been received telling of the coming wedding of Miss Janet Peetz, daughter of Mrs Dorothy Peetz, to Earl Robert Schick, on Christmas night at the First Presbyterian church in Portland.

News of the wedding of Miss Patricia Pickett, daughter of Mr and Mrs Fred Pickett to Mr. William Oliver Storey in Edmonds, Washington was received here by friends of the Picketts, who were former residents of Moro.

Dewey Thompson, Merrill Oveson, Paul Alley, Vernon Miller and Carl Meizer left Wednesday for Pendleton to attend the wheat League meeting. Others went for the later sessions and some were on hand for the opening speech Wednesday morning.

Out in civilian clothes again this week are: Charles Ferrigo, Robert vonBorstel, Warren Taylor Elliot and Sybil Belsho Stockdale.

Arden Squire was in Portland last week end to visit his son who is still in the hospital although doing very well.
