

Flu Attacking Many Families In Sherman County

A number of cases of mild flu are reported around the town and community, and nearly every family has some one ill in it.

Howard Conlee was here for Christmas with his bride, the former Dorothy Smith of Prineville. They were married at Vancouver, Washington, December 19 and after visiting here briefly went to Wecoma Beach for a short honeymoon before returning to Prineville where both are employed by Erickson's Food store.

Christmas guests at the F. J. Bazzel home were their son E. J. Bazzel and wife of Camas and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bummit and four children of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Barnum and children came up from Portland Sunday to spend Christmas here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barnum.

Mrs. Andy May left Monday for The Dalles to spend Christmas with her son Claud and family. She expects to move her furniture into the Urquhart house soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrell Bennett and son of The Dalles were here Christmas to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brisbane.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Moore were Christmas dinner guests at the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Bonney in The Dalles.

Dick Beckmann came up Saturday from his home near Boring to be in Sherman county for Christmas with his family, most of whom still live here.

Bill Close left Friday night for Portland where he spent Christmas with relatives and friends.

Miss Patricia Pinkerton came home last week end from Willamette university at Salem which she is attending for her first year.

Clarence Huls spent a part of last week here, coming to move some of his stuff out of his building. The school district bought his electric stove and to make a clean sweep of it Clarence rented the building to Ivan Kirkelie who will make a plumbing shop of it.

Joe Irzyk came Saturday night to spend a part of the holidays here with his brother, Tex, but he had to leave Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huntley came up from Portland Saturday to be here for Christmas. Their daughter's husband, Vincent Graue, came down from Madras for Christmas and she returned with him leaving the children in the care of their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillmor and son and Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and sons were here Christmas to be with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gillmor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Woods of Centerville were here Christmas day to have dinner and celebrate with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Virtue are buying property in town and will come here to live as soon as possible. He will be employed on the highway crew, a job he used to fill in Josephine county. He is a discharged veteran of the European front.

Max Barzee was here Monday while on a short leave from navy duties at Bremerton. He had to report back Thursday.

Arden Squire came up from Portland Saturday bringing his son, Dell, home from the hospital where he had been since he suffered a broken leg in a collision with a car.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mulick spent Christmas in The Dalles with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Skirving.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Neal Freetman of Eugene came Sunday to spend the Christmas holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Freetman.

We got firtex, all you want, for the first time in sometime. Happy days are here again. So's firtex.

But what we really come here to talk about is hardware. We're getting up on our hardware, and we're getting a little proud of our stock. Not that its much to rave about yet, but like the small boy before Christmas its getting better all the time. We're really going to have a hardware store as soon as the goods are available. We're moving that way. Come in and see our goods.
