

Grover Coffman Brings Bride Home From Pendleton Sunday

Grover Coffman returned Sunday night with a new bride having been married Sunday at Goldendale to Eva J. Hardman of Pendleton. Mr and Mrs Harold Ginn drove to Portland Wednesday to return her mother and her niece to their homes there or nearby. Mrs Robert Marvin accompanied them on the trip.

A new era dawns

---the Atomic age has begun. With America's fabulous energy devoted to the advancement of human and industrial welfare, our future is certain to be blessed with a new measure of peace and abundance.

It will be a pleasure and a privilege to be able to provide some of the new as well as the old products as they come on the market. We hope to be able to provide them in the near future.

Moro Variety & Remedy

GOODRICH TIRES in Stock

Rayon Cord Truck Sizes
8.25-20 7.50-20 7.00-20 6.50-20

Passenger Car Sizes
7.00-12 6.25-6.50-16 6.00-16

Goodrich Batteries for all Cars & Trucks

Complete Battery Charging Service
New Fast Charger & Slow Charger

Woods & Evans

MORO, OREGON Phone 191

LOAN SERVICE for FARMERS AND RANCHERS

The United States National Bank invites loans for the maintenance of farm and ranch equipment, for the purchase of available new machinery, for seed and feed, for livestock, poultry and all purposes that will help the national food production program.

BRANCHES IN PRINCIPAL OREGON COMMUNITIES

The UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK
29 BRANCHES IN OREGON

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Roy Kessinger returned from Heppner Wednesday after being there for several days while recovering from the flu. He was at the home of his daughter, Mrs Ted Pierson.

Mrs Lester Conlee and Mrs A. B. Christianson returned from a trip to Portland Friday night, coming up with the Landstroms.

Frank Beardley, school janitor, was taken to the hospital with pneumonia last week and after recovering was a very sick man for a time.

Martin Melzer and Carl Melzer have bought the Kuks place east of Klondike formerly farmed by Ellsworth Woods who is moving to Ontario on an irrigated farm. Probably Vernon Melzer will farm the land hereafter.

Mrs Millie Hughes, relief clerk, of the Selective Service office was here Tuesday prepared to check in a new clerk for the local office.

Linden Mersinger returned Friday night from the wars having arrived before mid-night after coming from Mare Island after final discharge.

Mrs Edith Burnet was hostess Sunday to her brothers who live in this county. Attending were Roy and wife, Charles and wife, Robert and wife, Howard and wife and LeRoy Belshee, with his wife and daughter. All played cards until evening when they engaged in a family songfest reminiscent of early days.

Mr and Mrs Dewey Thompson and Mr and Mrs Carl Melzer left for Pacific Palisades, California Sunday morning to attend the wedding of Mr and Mrs Melzer's son, Vernon, an event of Wednesday of this week. The two couples will spend a week or so in California.

Lt. Col. Karl Landstrom came home Friday night from Germany where he had been for nearly a year. He was greeted at Tacoma, Washington by his wife and in Moro by his daughter. After remaining here a few days the Landstroms went to Lebanon to visit his parents.

J. K. McKean sprained his ankle last week and went about aided by a strong hickory cane for several days.

Dr. B. A. Stevens, veterinarian of The Dalles, has again opened his office there and is prepared for business. He is a graduate of Washington State college and had practised in The Dalles prior to going to the war four years ago.

The Richmond vs Edgington case was postponed further Monday morning by Judge Mackay on plea by Harold Warner, attorney for plaintiff, that his client was ill and unable to attend court. Time for his trial was not set.

Mr and Mrs Frank Lahmann and family left this week for Centralia, Wash., to make their home. The Futter place will be farmed by a returning service man, perhaps Vernon Futter.

Lloyd Belshe and wife were here last week. He is getting a discharge from the army and expects to locate in The Dalles where he has employment with Consolidated Freight lines.

Homer Curtis and George Edmiston were here for Pacific Power & Light company this week. Curtis has recently returned from the service and started work for the company again.

Want Ads

Order early for preferred dates. Christie New Hampshire, Rock-Hamp Cross, and Dryden White Leghorns. 1946 circular available. Hatches weekly. Hart's Hatchery, Beaverton, Oregon.

FOR SALE: Wood & coal heater. Mrs Frances Henrichs 11p

BUBBLES SEZ

The first thing a sweater girl learns is that woolens thrive on soap and water. But with soap so scarce, we must keep turning in USED FATS to help make it! Remember, where there's fat, there's soap. So keep on saving—help make more soap!

Frank Cautners Married In Seattle

A wedding of interest took place January 12 in Seattle, Washington, when Frank L. Cautners of Moro, and Verna Sauer of Seattle, were married at a home wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. G. Kerby, a Seattle Free Methodist minister, in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends.

Mr Cautners was recently discharged after spending 3 1/2 years in the Army Air Corps. Prior to his service in the army he was employed by the Platt's Truck line. Mrs Cautners, before her marriage, owned and operated a beauty salon in Seattle.

The couple left for a two week motor trip to San Francisco and other California cities. They plan to make their home in Seattle.

Collections for the March of Dimes campaign will be taken care of in Mori by Mrs Zella Kenyon and Mrs Clara Houston. In Grass Valley A. A. Dunlap will handle collections and J. M. Wilson in Kent. In the North end of the county George Potter will be the man to gather the funds.

C. V. Belknap writes from Leavenworth, Washington that he is going to stay up there awhile to visit his sister and confer with his doctor more often than possible if he roams around. Winter is a reality there, he reports.

Mr and Mrs Giles French drove to Portland and return last Friday. While there he attended a meeting of an Oregon State Teacher's association committee engaged in studying HB 80, which will be on the November ballot. If passed it will aid in equalizing school taxes within counties.

Dr. B. A. Stevens Veterinarian

1608 G St. Phone 307/
THE DALLES, OREGON

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Moro Woman's club will meet today, Friday, at its building with the program being under the direction of the Literature and Drama committee. Mrs A. Douma and Mrs Lewis McKee will be hostesses. The program will feature a book review of "The Immortal Wife" by Irving Stone given by Mrs Darwin van Gilder. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m.

Child health conferences will be held in Sherman county next Thursday for the completion of immunizations begun earlier in the

GEORGE G. UPDEGRAFF
Attorney At Law
Moro and Wasco

C. A. Ruggles
INSURANCE
Moro Oregon

winter. Hours at which the doctor and nurses will be at the various schools of the county are Rufus 9:30 a.m., Wasco 10:30 a.m., Moro 11:00 a.m., Grass Valley 1:00 p.m., Kent 2:00 p.m., and the party will go on to Antelope for a 2:30 meeting.

A group of folks went down to

RHEUMATISM and ARTHRITIS

I suffered for years and am so thankful that I found relief from this terrible affliction that I will gladly answer anyone writing me for information. Mrs Anna Pault, P. O. Box 825, Vancouver, Wash.

charvari Mr and Mrs Grover Coffman Wednesday night with the result that the group were entertained with pie and coffee at the Hotel Cafe.

PLUMBING & HEATING

SERVICE

I. L. KIRKELIE
PHONE 391 MORO

ANNOUNCEMENT

Georg Wernmark has returned from the service
GEO. WERNMARK CO.
Accountants & Tax Consultants

U. S. NAT'L BANK BLDG., The Dalles, Oregon

Hotel Moro Coffee Shop

Lloyd Johnson, proprietor

is now open for business with much new equipment

meals served from six in the morning

until eight at night

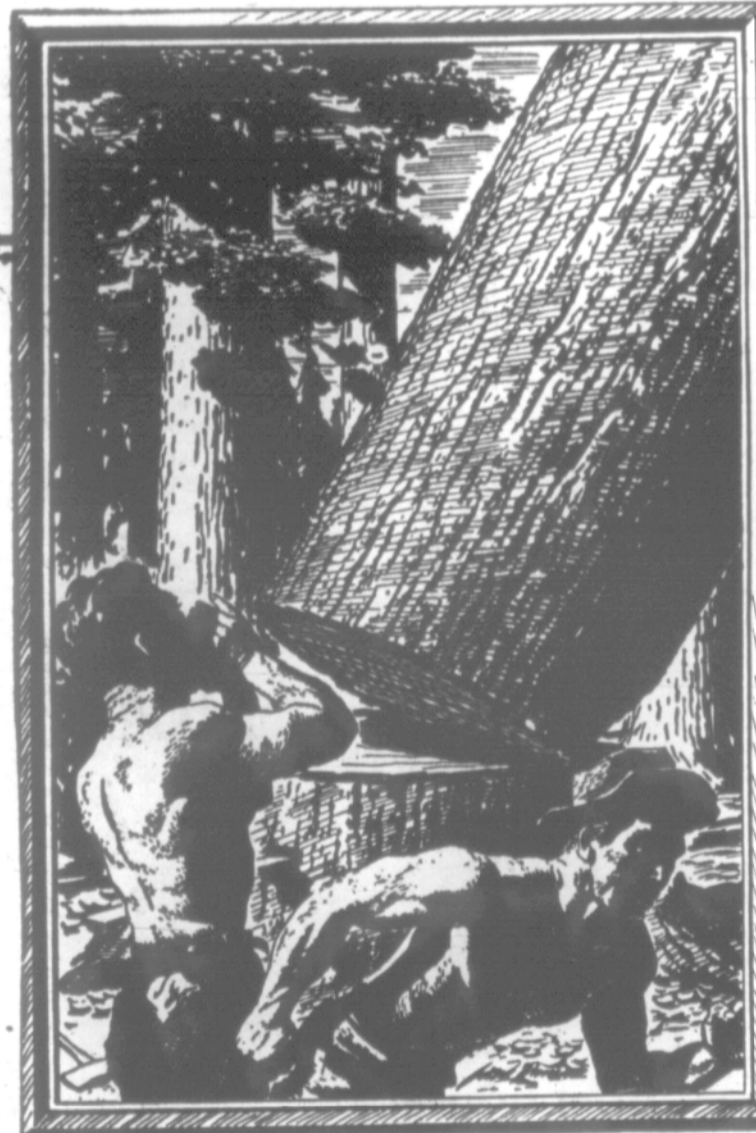

Special Sunday Dinners
make reservations, please

featuring:

Roasts, Steaks, Chops, Chicken

Home made Rolls, Home made Pies and Pastry

One always stands out

DOUGLAS FIR - This planet's tallest living thing grows ONLY in the Pacific Northwest and, acre for acre, forms the world's heaviest vegetation. A single tree cut this year was 265 feet high, 11 feet in diameter at the stump, and yielded 70,000 board feet.

QUALITY IS ALWAYS WORTH WAITING FOR

It takes years to grow a giant Douglas Fir! It takes time to make an outstanding beer! Blitz-Weinhard's slow, carefully controlled brewing process produces the beer... "so good it's guaranteed satisfying!" Discriminating people know Blitz-Weinhard's consistent goodness and unvarying quality make it worth waiting for.

KEEP ASKING FOR IT BY NAME

Blitz-Weinhard
Guaranteed Satisfying BEER

BLITZ-WEINHARD COMPANY • PORTLAND OREGON

