

Vern Belknap Comes, Goes On Visiting Round

C. V. Belknap returned to Moro last Friday afternoon after being away for several weeks visiting with his sister at Leadpoint, Washington. He will go to Eugene to spend the remainder of the winter with his son, George.

Tom Fraser came home from Portland Saturday where he had been on a business trip for a few days.

Mr and Mrs Wily Knighten and son, Wily Jr. went to Eugene last Friday to observe Dads day on the campus and visit their daughter, Anajean.

Dolly Ralston, who has been cook at Bucholtz confectionery for the past year, has gone to Wasco to take a similar position in a new restaurant opened by J. C. Wilson.

Mr and Mrs Mac Barbour stopped at the Moro Hotel Friday night. Mac was one time owner of a string of bucking horses that performed at the Sherman county fairs.

Howard, Belshee was up from The Dalles Saturday having found some business to complete in Sherman county. Mrs Belshee accompanied him for a visit with her sister Mrs C. R. Belshee.

Mr and Mrs Charles Ruggles drove to Portland Saturday.

Mrs Harold Ginn was hostess Saturday afternoon to a party in honor of Mrs Theodore Irzyk, to whom the visitors brought gifts in anticipation of an expected event.

Ernest Howard of Portland bought the brick house on McCoy Street from Dr. J. R. Morgan.

It is understood that M. R. Ry-mal is buying the Frank Beard-sley property across from the court house, which he will occupy soon.

Whoever lost his or her false teeth at the bank corner will be able to get them from the bank.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean were in Eugene last week where they were guests of Mr and Mrs Kenneth McKenzie, former Rufus school teacher who married Betty McCafferty Kaseberg.

Mr and Mrs Harold Ginn and Mr and Mrs Robert Marvin drove up the Deschutes river from Shearers to Maupin Sunday and found the road in good shape. It is impossible to make the trip after the fishing season opens as Portland fishermen keep a man to watch the gates.

Last Friday C. Leonard Ireland former publisher of the Sherman County Observer in Moro, left the newspaper business by giving possession of his Molalla Pioneer to Monroe Sweetland, young CIO advisor of Portland. It is understood that Mr and Mrs Ireland, whose health have not been of the best, are to retire.

A group of Masons, by membership and by temporary profession, spent the greater part of Tuesday repairing the chimney of the Masonic hall after necessary gathering of brick, lime and the other items appropriate for the job. They also gathered an audience of good proportions considering that snow still hung in the shady places.

Herb Flatt, half-brother of Vernon and Floyd Flatt, visited here this week while on his way home to Dakota after being discharged Monday from the army where he has served three years.

Don Thompson was here from Sunday until Wednesday for a visit with his parents, Mr and Mrs Dewey Thompson. He is still at Camp Lewis doing office work to aid the discharge of returning veterans.

Cleoro Miller returned from Portland Tuesday after undergoing an operation for cataract of the eye which as very successful.

Frank Beard-sley expects to leave Saturday for South Dakota to recuperate from his recent illness, from which he has only partially recovered.

Clare Artell is moving back to Moro from The Dalles and will take over the job of janitor at the schoolhouse. Dick Holdaway and family who have been occupying the Axtell house moved Tuesday into the Huls building.

Mr and Mrs Jerry Wilson Jr. have rented the Lot Rust house, formerly owned by Hazel Woods and are moving to Moro from Kent.

Mr and Mrs E. J. Rea left last week for Harrisburg where they will live on a farm.

Arden Squire left Tuesday for Portland on a business trip.

Mr and Mrs E. E. Barnum, Mr and Mrs A. H. Barnum, Mr and Mrs L. L. Peetz, Mrs May Barnum of The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Giles French drove to North Bonneville Sunday to attend an open house in honor of Captain Jay Price who was celebrating his 80th birthday. Eighty-five friends and relatives called during the day and many more sent gifts or regards. Eldest to register was Martin Massiker 82 and the youngest, Mr Price's great grandson, James Schultz, under 2.

Mr and Mrs Chester Coats have moved to the ranch near Wasco and are getting ready to begin farming when the weather gets a little warmer.

Mr and Mrs Charles Powell were Sherman county visitors last week end. Mr Powell is about again after a recent operation.

Mrs Minnie Squire accompanied her son, Arden, home from Gresham Wednesday expecting to remain several days visiting him and his family.

Relatives surprised Mrs E. E. Barnum Wednesday night in honor of her birthday anniversary and after eating the food brought in for the occasion, spent the evening playing cards.

Miss Clara Mersinger was up from The Dalles to visit her newly returned brother, Linden and her parents. While here she learned that her employer, Mrs Leta Richardson of The Dalles had been injured in an automobile accident.

Moro Women Asked To Sew Curtains

Moro Women's club members have been asked by Mrs James Kenny, president, to come to the club meeting at 10 a.m. February 15 and bring their lunca so they may sew on the club's new curtains.

The program of February 1 featuring Canada, was composed of a talk by Mrs Theodore Johnson who told of the government, the finance and the wheat farming of the Canadian provinces. Two films, one on the French provinces of Quebec and Ontario, and one on the Great Lakes were shown and the club members sang the, to them unfamiliar, Canadian Nationa anthem, "The Mapleleaf Forever."

Lupine Rebekah Lodge No. 116 Meets 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month. Visiting members welcome. L. McLachlan NG Florence Johnston, Secy

Moro Lodge No. 113, I.O.O.F. Meets 1st and 3rd Tuesdays in I.O.O.F. hall. Transient and visiting brothers are cordially invited to meet with us. Ernest Houston N. G. A. R. Kessinger, Secretary

KENT NEWS OF INTEREST

Mr and Mrs W. C. Helyer of The Dalles have been visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs D. W. Helyer.

Mr and Mrs D. W. Helyer and family spent the week end in

Bethlehem Chapter No. 78, O.E.S. Meets Every Second and Fourth Thursdays in each Month. Visiting Member invited—Moro, Oregon Helen Ruggles, W. M. Edna Melzer, Secretary

Mr and Mrs Bob Holmes of Grass Valley were dinner guests at the home of Mr and Mrs B. M. Kelley Sunday.

Mrs Allen Bekkadhi and Arthur Decker went to Portland Thursday where they will receive medical treatment.

Mr and Mrs Bert Cox and son, and Mrs Warren Morgan were visiting in Kent Sunday. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Harry Justesen. Mr and Mrs Dale Howell left Monday for Missoula, Montana, where they plan to visit her parents, Mr and Mrs Bickle and also her brother, Jim, who has been ill for some time.

Bend visiting her parents.

Helen L. VonBostel left Thursday for Corvallis after spending two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs A. vonBostel.

Ernest Smith and Robert Brown left Sunday for Bay City where they plan to visit. Mr and Mrs George McKay and other friends for the next two weeks.

Robert Helyer was in Portland Monday on business.

PLUMBING & HEATING SERVICE I. L. KIRKELIE PHONE 391 MORO

C. A. Ruggles INSURANCE Oregon MORO

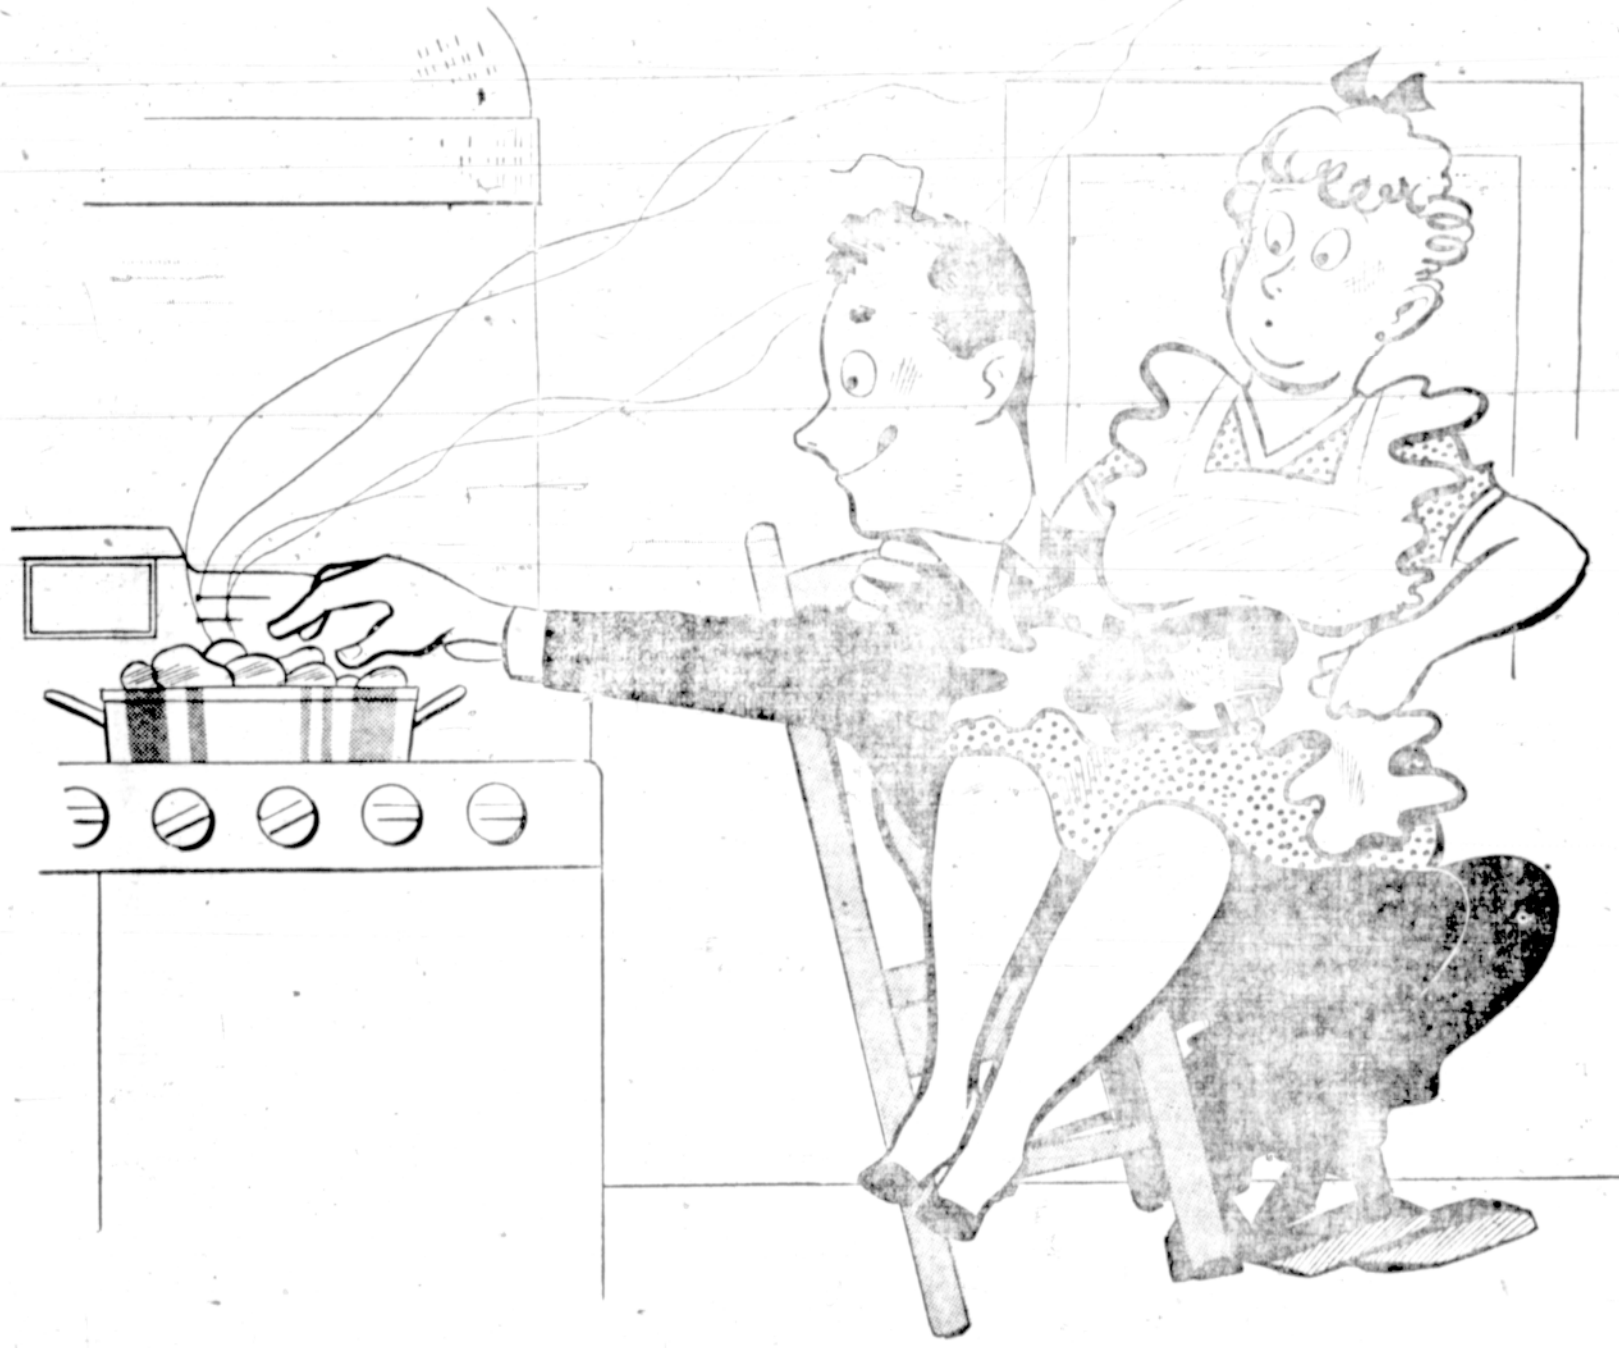

RHEUMATISM and ARTHRITIS

I suffered for years and am so thankful that I found relief from this terrible affliction that I will gladly answer anyone writing me for information. Mrs Anna Pautz, P. O. Box 825, Vancouver, Wash.

Senior Sweetheart Swing

Wasco Gym February 16

Dancing 9 to 1 Adm. $1.20 couples .60 single FORMAL

Within the reach of everyone!

Electricity here is so amazingly cheap that every home can enjoy an electric range PP&L, you see, has cut rates 15 times! More than twenty thousand homes cook with PP&L electricity and at an average cost of less than two dollars a month. Thousands more have placed their orders for clean, accurate electric ranges. Better get your order in now with your dealer. Then you, too, can soon enjoy modern, effortless electric cooking.

Pacific Power & Light

A Self-Supporting, Tax-Paying Business

MAKING YOUR ELECTRICITY CHEAPER AND CHEAPER!

Revere Ware

You know, the cooking utensils with the stainless steel rppers and copper bottoms. Any cook can cook in this ware and not hurt a thing. Old Paul Revere, himself, left some of it on the stove when he went on that famous ride only he didn't have stainless steel. That's a good story and Revere ware is good ware and we're lucky to get it and you'll be lucky if you get some too.

Moro Variety & Remedy

We have the best stock of candy we have had for months and Valentine's day is coming.

Fountain Service, Cigarettes, Cigars, Agent for All Magazines and Lots of them on the racks.

A warm and cozy place to spend the spare time.

BUCHOLTZ CONFECTIONERY

T. Lester Johnson LAWYER MORO

GAS AND OIL Tires—Accessories R. H. McKEAN and SON Insurance Grain, Feed, Flour, Fuel Farm Implements, Bags, Twine BARBED WIRE—GOOD POSTS PHONES Feedstore Office Residence 163 162 182 WASCO OREGON

American Legion

DANCE

FEBRUARY 9,

Moro Hall Old-Time & Modern Lunch Served in Hall