

Moro Men Start Flying Club; Buy Plane

A group of local men have organized the Moro Flying Club and have ordered a new Aeronca trainer plane to be delivered March 15. Bob Boynton is president of the club and Paul May, secretary. Other members are Kenneth McKean, Jodie Morrison, Orlow Martin and Harold Ginn. Clinton Kessinger came up from Portland last week and to spend a few days here with his father, Roy Kessinger. Earl Rehr left Portland Tuesday night for Los Angeles to bring back some trucks for the Mid-Columbia outfit. Theodore Johnston has been ill at his home near town this week.

Earl Belshie was here from Yakima last week end for a visit with his father, Robert Belshie and family.

Dr. O. LeRoy Walter, Synodical executive of the Presbyterian church conducted a worship service with the membership of the church and afterward presided at a business session Tuesday.

A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs is scheduled to arrive in Moro, March 4 and will be on duty at the court house between the hours of 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Ronald Powell came home last week having received his discharge from the navy at Bremerton. John Roth also was discharged at Bremerton a day or two before Powell.

Slides on the Columbia highway and the Union Pacific railroad near Multnomah Falls delayed the mail Wednesday morning with the result that the mail truck did not arrive until afternoon. A wrecked truck halted passage up the north bank.

C. R. Lagon, auditor of the county's books, is here this week checking on the accounts and also checking Sheriff Wilson out and Sheriff Fields in.

Visiting Mr and Mrs A. A. Squire this week are her father, J. E. Crofoot and wife and two sons, Bain and Earl from Okanogan, Washington. They live near the spot where the school bus went into the lake last winter.

The Moro grade youngsters went to Grass Valley Wednesday to play basketball with the team there and came home with a victory 22 to 19.

Bon Christiansen shipped out from Port Hueneme Wednesday for Pearl Harbor expecting to be gone for a year.

Mr and Mrs Charley Powell were up from Portland last week to spend a few days at the ranch.

Mr and Mrs Collis Moore drove to Portland Tuesday to remain for the week.

The Moberg, Russell Belshie and Chester Smith families drove to The Dalles Sunday to attend church service held in the afternoon.

Phil Ruggles was here this week, coming from eastern Oregon and Idaho where he had been working for a time. He is trying to get away from the lower country, back to a higher elevation.

State Senator E. R. Fatland and Hollis Bull were here Sunday while on their way home from Klamath Falls where they had been inspecting the Marine Barracks as a member of the emergency board.

Miss Mary Roberts of Arlington, a cousin of Mrs Lester Barnum, was here last week for a visit, having just completed her course as a trained nurse.

The American Legion met Wednesday night and decided that next Tuesday evening was to be clean up day for the post at which time members are expected to come and help shine up the new building, now devoid of partitions and with new underpinning.

Mr and Mrs Karl Landstrom have bought a home in Portland on east 18th street and he has gone to work for the department of agriculture with office in the Bedell Bldg. They will get moved by April 1.

George Updegraff returned home Wednesday night from Portland where he had been since Saturday on business.

A class to instruct Red Cross first aid instructors is being given this week and next at the court house. The class meets each evening at 8 o'clock. Chester Schwartz is giving the lessons, which after 30 hours of instruction, is designed to make competent first aid instructors of the pupils, of which eight are expected. So far the two Haan sisters, Merrill Oevvyn, Curt Tom, Mrs Afton McIntyre, Edna Waterman and Delores Lang are the pupils attending.

Hon. E. Riddell Lage, state representative from Hood River county, was in Moro Thursday for a short visit.

The world day of prayer service will be held at the Community church Friday afternoon, March 8 at 2:30. Mrs Dewey Thompson is in charge of the program.

Mr and Mrs Howard Perrigo have rented the Hazel Woods house and are moving in this week.

Mr and Mrs Howard Perrigo have rented the Hazel Woods house and are moving in this week.

Mr and Mrs Howard Perrigo have rented the Hazel Woods house and are moving in this week.

Mr and Mrs Howard Perrigo have rented the Hazel Woods house and are moving in this week.

CHURCHES

Grass Valley Baptist Church Sunday School 10:00 A. M. Morning Worship 11 A. M.

Howard A. Schelling, pastor

Moro Community Church

James D. Moberg, pastor

Bible School 10:00 A. M.

Morning Worship 11:00 A. M.

Christian Science Society

Service at 11 a. m., Subject: "Christ Jesus"

WASCO METHODIST CHURCH

Preaching service at Grass Valley Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

F. L. Cannell, Pastor

C. A. Ruggles

INSURANCE

Moro Oregon

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

OREGON

Wasco Couple Surprised On Anniversary

Harley Dutton and Mr and Mrs W. E. Dutton visited Mrs Harley Dutton, who is in The Dalles hospital. She is reported improving.

Mrs Benton Barnett is another who has been on the sick list.

The Wasco Bakery changed hands this week. The new manager will be Steve O'Meara, who will take over March first. The Shelton family plan to locate at Seaside, where he will operate the Little Gem Restaurant.

The reconversion of the Atwood store building into a first class restaurant is rapidly taking place. Jack Wilson is to open as soon as it can be completed.

Mrs Carl Tuggie was initiated into the Eastern Star Tuesday night.

Miss Mary Marshall is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs Ed McKee.

Mr and Mrs Clifton Dunlap of Bend visited at the home of his sister, Mrs Ed McKee.

Mr and Mrs N. S. Gochnauer and family spent the week end in Portland.

Among The Dalles visitors on Monday were Mr and Mrs Arthur Sargent, Mr and Mrs Art Smith, Mr and Mrs Leon Smith, Mr and Mrs Albert Kaseberg, Dan McDermid and Don.

Mr and Mrs Grant Boice of Camas, Washlyton were visiting friends in Wasco over the week end. The Boices are former residents of Wasco.

Mr and Mrs Vivian Rust visited in Salem over Sunday.

Jerry Barnett arrived home by plane Saturday afternoon. He has received his discharge so will be at home in Wasco from now on.

John Proudfoot is another of our Sherman county boys who has received his discharge and is home again. He is the son of Mr and Mrs H. D. Proudfoot Sr.

The Women's Society for the Christian service met at the home of Mrs Joe Hilderbrand on Wednesday February 20. After the business meeting Mrs John Royce conducted a program. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr and Mrs John Royce received a pleasant surprise when several of their friends gathered to help them celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary last Friday night. A seven o'clock buffet dinner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and high and low prizes were awarded to both the men and women. Mrs John Royce won high and Mrs Ted Everett low for the women. Bill Tidwell was high and Ted Everett low for the men. John Robinson won the chair prize. A nice gift was presented to Mr and Mrs John Royce at the close of the evening.

Frank Lamborn and Mr and Mrs Al Dormaier went to Portland Thursday, and returned Sunday. Mrs Dormaier reports rain in Portland at that time.

The masquerade dance at Rufus Grange hall February 23 was a grand success. It was difficult for the three judges, Elizabeth Kuypers of Rufus, Gladys Belshie of Wasco, and Mrs Ben Hockman of The Dalles to decide who should have the prizes. The lady prize went to Mrs Dick Yocum dressed as a Hawaiian princess. The mans prize went to Harland McDonald disguised in a beard and the best couple prize went to visitors from Blaylock, he dressed as a bridesmaid and she as a pirate. A group came from Blaylock dressed as a complete wedding party, having a man in a white formal and veil as a bride. Shirley Yocum came as an Indian girl, Mrs Jensen made an outstanding Spaniard, Bob Davis a clown, Mrs Lee Del-

ner was given at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Tidwell. Table decorations consisted of a large cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom also candle lighting. Guests were Mr and Mrs O. G. Hilderbrand, John and Olive Robinson, Mr and Mrs Ted Everett and daughter, and Mr & Mrs Lloyd Royce and children.</