Those who would trade freedom for security are deserving of neither.

HAMS, CITY FASHION

To a farmer the facts of animal life seem very simple. To a city dweller they seem to be as complicated as the Einstein theory.

A little item in a daily paper of general circulation tells of the birth of 22 pigs to a Washington sow endowed with a Dionne complex, was headlined "SINGLE BATCH HAS 88 HAMS".

Country folks are able to learn about street cars, elevators, night clubs and other evidences of city life and the charge that country people are rubes without sophistication is an outworn vaudeville joke.

We recall the case of a bank manager sent to this county who was puzzled over the difference between steers and bulls.

IT HAPPENED BEFORE

The government seems determined to restrict the food on the American table in order to feed the Poles, the Germans, and the other peoples, mainly in the Russian zone of Europe.

The American diet can stand some trimming, or else there's a lot of men and women talking about reducing who are misinformed about the state of their figure and health.

However, that isn't all of it. So far the statements about the need of feeding Europe's and Asia's millions have been very unconvincing.

So far—and there is no thought that the procedure will change—the U. S. has put up nearly all the money for UNRRA. The English have provided many of the agents who distribute it in Europe and have put up some of the money.

In Italy where some of our wheat is going, the harvest should be ready by the time wheat can get there, and other crops could have been grown to fill the stomachs of the hungry.

We are doing much like we did after the last war, although then we took foreign bonds for our pay.

Our postwar prosperity will keep on booming until we get tired of sitting to Europe on time or giving it goods.

Keep on booming until we get tired of sitting to Europe on time or giving it goods. Then our price structure will be so high because of "good" times that we will be unable to sell and foreign manufacturers will be rehabilitated so they can get the market.

A LITTLE HISTORY

About two months ago the surge of propaganda toward help for Europe began. Why it started in February instead of October, deponent knoweth not.

The wheat rolled out, trainload after trainload. Nearly everyone turned his wheat over to CCC, which turned it to USDA, which turned it to UNRRA with perhaps a few other agencies being involved in the process.

Now those who did not believe the government, or who neglected to release their grain, are being given an extra 30 cents per bushel. It never pays, apparently, to believe the government.

In Other Days

From the Observer, Apr. 26, 1947 P. N. Lemmon and family took a spin in their new auto Sunday doubling the road between Grass Valley and Moro.

Medals to be awarded as prizes in the declamatory contest will be on exhibit at the ST store next week.

Hon. R. J. Ginn has been riding the seeder to finish on one of his early farms.

From the Observer, Apr. 27, 1947 Ralph Brisbane has been appointed city marshal to succeed E. L. Bogart, who has accepted a job with the railroad at Shaniko.

Replies to a letter sent out by the school board favor a new building by 7 to 1.

Private owners of vacant lots are giving the use of them to those who will grow vegetables and Mayor Barnum wants every lot in use.

From the Observer, Apr. 29, 1927 The new elevator was 19 1/2 feet high last Saturday night at quitting time.

Clare Axtell has bought a 75 foot frontage on the block owned by Mrs. Frank Sayrs and will move the old Sayrs house on it.

H. A. Page and wife here from Newberg, recalls the time he butchered the first hog ever killed for meat in Sherman county.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Continued from page one. Payer rarely realizes what his contribution is. Mr. Gillespie contends that if the taxpayers were paid their wages in cash and then had to pay the withholding tax to the federal government every month, the people of the United States would become more tax-conscious, and would give greater attention to the appropriation bills passed by congress.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh. Best War Memorial I Know. There's an old war memorial in our town that I like to stop and look at now and then.

Since then, there've been all kinds of disagreements in this country, big and little. Prohibition was one—and there was plenty of bloodshed, misery and grief until the problem was resolved.
