

Max Barzee Home

Navy Service

Max Barzee arrived Wednesday with his discharge in his pocket and a yearning for civilian clothes in his heart. He will take over the farming on the Barzee place. His parents, Mr and Mrs E. R. Barzee, were up from Portland the first of the week. Mr and Mrs George Wilcox left Friday for their new home at Salem, where they bought a home north of the city. Their daughter, Mrs Maynard Nelson, will finish the school term before going to join her husband at Salem, where both families are owners of a picture show house. Mrs Mary Southwick was here visiting her sister, Mrs Ernie

M. M. Oveson, with his wife and daughter, Joan, left Wednesday morning for Portland where he appeared on "Northwest Neighbors" a radio program coming over KOIN. Mr. Oveson's topic was announced as "New Wheat" although in it he spoke of the station, its work, and the county and its wheat crops. Mrs Jack Noonan was taken to the hospital again Tuesday with a recurrence of her heart trouble.

Clarence Huls was up from Portland Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs William Cautheers. E. B. MacNaughton, president of the First National Bank of Portland, will be the commencement speaker here for the 1946 graduating class. Commencement will be held May 28 when 10 pupils will finish their high school work. Robert Rohde has sold his Hay Canyon ranch to Ernest Woods, who has been farming it for the past two years. Dan McLoughlin of Condon has been here this week working with George Updegraff, his partner in the title business in Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties. Roscoe Roberts was here on business for the Mid-Columbia Production Credit corporation Wednesday. John Joerger, veteran's administrator, spent Wednesday here to interview ex-service men about their privileges under the GI law. Mr and Mrs Albert Plueneke were here Monday from Kent where they are visiting until his place at Madras is ready for occupancy.

Enos Robideau and family, who have finished plowing for E. E. Barzee, expect to move to town where he is to start work with the highway crew. Mrs Mel Gogdin and daughter Donna Lou, were here last Friday for a brief visit with relatives. Allan Murray and daughter, Virginia, of Hood River, were here Thursday night and Friday morning to visit with the Percy Thompsons.

George Updegraff went to week end, bringing his small daughter back with him Sunday. Giles French was in Salem Monday to attend a meeting of the Tax Study Commission. K. F. Childreth drove to Portland Saturday afternoon for the

These warm days are fine and we sure enjoy them on our new bench out in front of the store, (try it sometime) but they'll bring on a lot of flies. We're not saying that to be pessimistic but because we've got fly killer to sell, and good fly killer, too. Its DDT which is the last word in fly destroyers. Furthermore, because you need sprayers to scatter DDT, we have sprayers, too so you can go ahead and enjoy the weather, on your bench or ours and we'll help you take care of the flies.

Do you remember when it was as hard to get Firtex as it is Nylons now in these piping days of peace? That isn't so anymore.

We've got Firtex, not only the 4 foot by 6, 7 or 8 foot sheets, but the kind for the ceiling, too. Its 16 inch square by twice as long, grooved.

Now to our friends (and who isn't) we'll part with this precious stuff so houses can be made warmer in winter and cooler in summer and prettier all the time. We like to make you comfortable. Also Ten-Kot, fibre roof coating.
