FOR SALE

I am offering for sale my own Cherry Creek Stock Ranch, which consists of more than 50,000 acres of deeded and leased lands.

This ranch lies in the heart of Central Oregon's best bunch grass range. This ranch starts at the John Day river, at an elevation of 1500 feet, and extends for 15 miles to the mountains, an elevation of 6000 feet, which makes it an ideal all the year around stock ranch, without taking them from home.

This ranch is well watered and will cut plenty of hay, and will take care of 1500 head of cattle the year around. It has two good sets of buildings and corrals, and is all fenced and cross-fenced. The price is $125,000, and long, easy terms can be had at four percent interest.

If interested get in touch with H. H. SCHMITT, Phone 386, Prineville, Ore.

HAMMER MILL SHINGLE STAIN

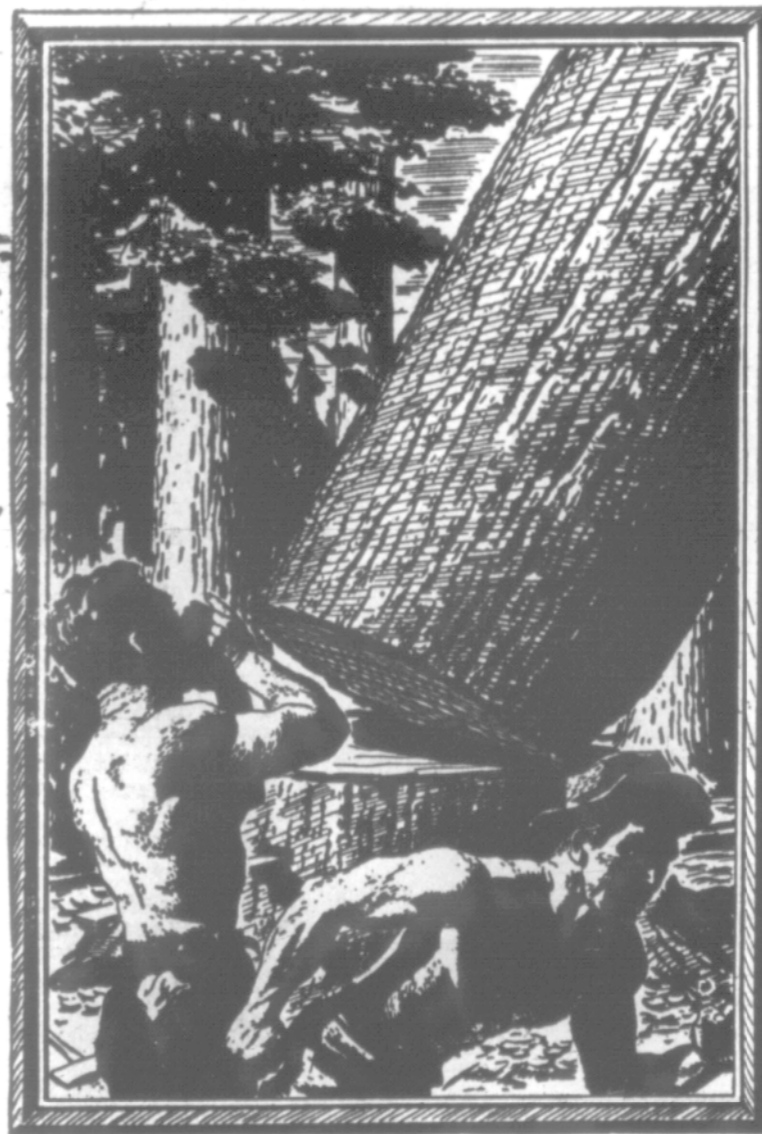

Haying time is getting near and we have some equipment you may need especially if you chop your hay.

We have a new CASE Hammer Mill and it will do a cow's chewing for her so she'll be satisfied with the job as well as she had done it herself. Come in and see it.

Then we have shingle stain to make the house and other buildings pretty and protected from erosion of the elements that curl and break shingles.

One always stands out

DOUGLAS FIR - This planet's tallest living thing grows ONLY in the Pacific Northwest and, acre for acre, forms the world's heaviest vegetation. A single tree cut this year was 265 feet high, 11 feet in diameter at the stump, and yielded 70,000 board feet.

QUALITY IS ALWAYS WORTH WAITING FOR

It takes years to grow a giant Douglas Fir! It takes time to make an outstanding beer! Blitz-Weinhard's slow, carefully controlled brewing process produces the beer . . . "so good it's guaranteed satisfying!" Discriminating people know Blitz-Weinhard's consistent goodness and unvarying quality make it worth waiting for.
