If you are waiting for a telephone... you may be certain that getting one to you just as rapidly as possible has top priority in our plans. We are working full speed on buildings, cables, switchboards and other equipment needed to provide service for everyone who is waiting... and to make service even better for every telephone user.

If you are a farmer... you may expect the extension of telephone service in rural areas. New methods and new developments will be used, including high-strength steel wire, power line carrier equipment and possibly radio for remotest locations. You may also expect fewer parties on the lines, fewer rings for other parties and other service improvements.

If you use Long Distance... you may look forward to an even better and faster service than ever before. We are working on our part of a nation-wide coaxial cable network for long distance calls and television transmission. Equipment will be provided for nation-wide operator dialing of toll and long distance calls and for customer dialing of toll calls between some communities.

Thousands of jobs... millions of man hours of work... will be created by this program, the largest in our company's history. Our total plant investment will be increased to more than a billion dollars. For it is our purpose to provide an ever-widening, ever-improving telephone service... to grow with the West and to help the West grow.

Every day we seek to make telephone service even better than it has ever been before.

HH, that's the name of the new priority that retains almost all building materials for use in veteran's housing and nearly everything we have is tied up waiting for a veteran to want to build a house.
The lumber is to be held six months before it can be sold to non-ex-service customers unless regulations are changed. We can't do much about it and suspect that no one else can even if it was desirable to do something, which we doubt. So we'll get along, as you will, until there is lumber again. Then we will have it.
