O.S.C. RETURNING ENTRANTS APPLICATIONS

"It is with much regret we are obliged to return herewith your deposit for a dormitory reservation at O.S.C. this fall."

This is the opening sentence in a letter sent to hundreds of prospective students here because all space is filled with many waiting for all college controlled housing facilities.

Applicants from Oregon are now being told that they are welcome to enter Oregon State this fall but that they will have to arrange for their own living space. Admission of new out-of-state students was cut drastically early this year, and now no application from other states is accepted except for most unusual reasons.
